Order of Service

APRIL 25, 1922.

His Worship the Mayor (Cr. J. E. Holland) presiding.

1. Invocation and Lord's Prayer Rev. W. Bennett.
(President of Ministers Association)

2. National Anthem

3. Prayer for the King, the Queen, and the Royal Family
Rev. L. W. Lee

O! God who rulest over Thy people in love, we beseech Thee to bless Thy Servant, our King, that under him this nation may be wisely governed, and Thy Church may serve Thee in all godly quietness. Grant that the King, the Prince, and the people, being devoted to these with all their hearts, and preserving in good works to the end, may, by Thy guidance, come to Thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. Hymn—"All people that on Earth do Dwell"

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His flock; He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why! The Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

5. Prayers Rev. W. J. Holt

Almighty God, who hast taught us in Thy Holy Word to perpetuate the memory of brave men and great deliverances, give to this nation grace not to forget the men who died for their fellow men; keep, we beseech Thee, their memory fresh and green in the hearts of Thy people, and make us more worthy of the sacrifices they offered for us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O! Merciful and Loving Father, Who dost not willingly afflict the children of men, but chastened them for their profit, have mercy upon

Thy bereaved and sorrowing servants who mourn for those they have lost in battle (especially those for whom our prayers are asked). And as Thou dost sanctify human love and fellowship here upon earth, so grant them and us a happy re-union with those whom we love in Thy eternal peace and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

6. Scripture Lesson—Rev. S. E. Dorman

7. 1st Address—The Very Rev. The Dean of Bendigo

8. Presentation of Medals

9. Hymn—Kipling's Recessional

God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of the far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies,
The captains and the kings depart,
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

Far-called, our navies melt away,
On dune and headland sinks the fire;
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday

Is one with Nineveh and Tyre
Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget.

If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues, that have not Thee in awe
Still boasting, as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds, without the Law—
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard,
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding, calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord!

10. Address Rev. B. W. Heath

11. General Thanksgiving Ven. Archdeacon Haynes

Almighty God, Father of all mercies! we, Thine unworthy servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but, above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but with our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord; to Whom with Thee and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.
