

ECENTRIC WOMAN.—An elderly woman named Catherine Monaghan, after being lost and found at Mosquito Creek, as described on page 3 of this issue, was brought into Bendigo yesterday, and conveyed to the Benevolent Asylum. She, however, exhibited much aggressiveness, and finally became so rebellious that she had to be removed to the watchhouse. In consequence of her unmistakable mental weakness, she was brought before two justices and remanded to the lunacy ward of the Bendigo Hospital.

Mr. R. J. Stilwell, president of the Benevolent Home Board of Management, receives a cheque from 3CV Women's Club, Benevolent Home Auxillary, to pay for the furnishings of the whole of the first floor. Money was raised by the auxiliary at a fair in the grounds of the home. Mrs. J. Hamilton, a secretary of the auxiliary, presents the cheque to Mr. Stilwell, while Matron Redpath, executive, and members approve of the proceedings.
