Bendigo's trams go . . . thousands say farewell

It is hard to believe but Bendigo's trams, the lumbering vehicles that have served this city for 82 years, have been replaced.

It looks like Easter Fair time in Bendigo — but it's not. This is just a section of the estimated 20,000 strong crowd that turned out yesterday to farewell Bendigo's trams. These people saw the end of 82 years of tram service to this city.
