

Raymond Gifford Reynolds

Notes on Raymond Gifford Reynolds

Raymond was the eldest child of Harry Thomas Reynolds and Teresa Gifford.

His brothers were Sidney, Noel, James and sister Thelma.

He was born - place - date after 1890. Believe to have died in London? Date unknown.

He enlisted in the First World War 19th August 1914.

Raymond was a Stretcher Bearer , Second Field Ambulance , First Division.

No. 189 A.Pay.C. Cpl.

Honours and Award, Commendations

Raymond G.Reynolds won a Military Medal for Conspicuous Bravery at Bour- France.

Twenty four hours under Shell Fire in sight of enemy on the 7th and 8th

M.M. 12.4.1917

Raymond does not appear to have returned to Australia. It is believed he married an English girl, in London. It is unknown whether he had a family.

Further research is needed for Raymond G. Reynolds.

Notes on his siblings. Sister Thelma married but died young no children.

Noel was married and had four or five children lived Melbourne.

Sidney - nothing known. James was a bachelor.

Except Raymond the family all lived in Victoria.

Family Card Sheet

HARRY THOMAS REYNOLDS
1871 - ca1955
Teresa Helen Gifford
1C1R		1919, London
Raymond Gifford REYNOLDS
Birth	1895 Bendigo Vic. reg. no 1061	Birth
Death	ca 1985 Age: 90	Death
Occ	Salesman Myers - Army W.W.I.	Occ
Educ		Educ
Reli		Reli
Note	see Research notes. Awarded Military Medal for conspicuous bravery at BOURSANEL (?) on the 7th and	Note
ID: 33	Changed: 13 Jun 2005		