

REYNOLDS FAMILIES
FIRST GENERATION

Richard Croome Reynolds

Eldest Child of Richard and Eleanor Reynolds nee Hinde.

Born 1859 b/f no. 4704 in Tent on White Hills Goldfields Bendigo Vic.

At age fourteen he left home after death of Father

Occupation Shearer - travelled around Australia. Remained a Batchelor.

Died in 1949 aged 89 years . D/f 16246 Buried in Beechworth

Cemetery. During Amelia's schooldays he visited Mandurang to see his brother Charles.

Richard was named after his Father and Croome after the first husband of his paternal grandmother. This earlier marriage was on the 25th Feb. 1806 in London.

CHARLES ALBON REYNOLDS

See separate profile.

MARY ELEANOR REYNOLDS

Eldest daughter of Richard and Eleanor Reynolds nee Hinde.

Born 2nd January in 1866 in tent on the White Hills Goldfields.

B/F no. 5502 At two years of age she suffered a fall and was left with a limp. Her Mother advised her that she was not strong and that she should never marry. Her occupation was a tailoress and she lived to ninety-five years. She grew up in Bendigo, lived most of her life in St.Kilda and in her last years lived for a while in Auburn and died in Cheltenham Home 13th May 1960 and was buried in Springvale Vic. d/f 5829 Springvale
She had a friend called George and when George died she was sad and said they had been engaged for forty years.

She had a good sense of humour and with her black hair and blue eyes would have been good looking in her youth She supported herself with her sewing, well into her eighties. She had a generous nature In 1958 she made Dirkjan his first short tailored trousers.

She was then ninety-two years of age.

She was named Mary after her maternal grandmother and Eleanor after either her Mother or her paternal grandmother. Or both.

WILLIAM JOHN REYNOLDS

William was the third son of Richard and Eleanor Reynolds nee Hinde.He was born in a hotel in Sandhurst (Bendigo) on the 13th August 1867

His birth file no. is 18004 1867.

Probably the hotel was owned by Eleanor's brother Richard Hinde

As an adult his occupation was a Brick Contractor.

His hobby was growing chrysanthemums.

. William travelled and worked in Fiji, in Jan./March 1900 with Pedro Jorgensen, Tom Jorgensen and brother Charles Reynolds.

He married Anne Dorothea Jorgensen, M/F 31'81 at St. Andrews Presbyterian Bendigo. On the 14th of 1897

Anne D. Jorgensen (sister of Thomas), Anne was born on the 22nd August 1871 at Chewton Vic. Anne's hobby was oil painting.

William died at Mosman in 1945 and was cremated at Chatswood. NSW.

Parents of Anne -

Peter Jorgensen and Emma Elizabeth Joynes . of Slesching Denmark

Children of William and Anne were -

Clement Gladstone Reynolds 1898

Neil Irvine Reynolds 1902

Lee Jorgensen Reynolds 1904

Chris Reynolds 1906

June Dorothea Reynolds 1921