For some time now, we have had internal problems concerning our newsletter. This is nobody's fault. The kind of organisation we are, all voluntary workers, has made it very difficult for those who have been kind enough to help produce a newsletter. Hopefully, this newsletter which you are now holding in your hands is to be the first of a monthly or even possibly a fortnightly issue which will help to erase the ever increasing problem of communication.

To those members who have produced our newsletters in the past we say thank you and hope you will keep on helping us.

To those of you who are reading this issue we say help us by providing news items. Just write your message down and post or give it to the Secretary and we will endeavour to publish your contributions.
