SPORTS COACH MAGAZINE

Earlier on this year, the V.A.V.A. agreed to subscribe to the Sports Coach magazine, which is produced by the Department of Youth, Sport and Recreation in Western Australia.

It is a quarterly magazine, and contains some very good articles on general coaching topics, some being very technical, and we felt that State coaches in particular would benefit from the subscription. Enclosed is the first issue of our subscription.

I would appreciate your comments at any time as to the worth of the magazine from your point of view. I notice that this issue has an article on the 'floating serve'. I hope that you find the material generally helpful.
