Hon. Eric Kent, M.P.,
Minister of Agriculture,
Box 4041, G.P.O.,
MELBOURNE. 3001

Dear Mr. Kent,

I hereby submit a panel of names nominated by our Association for the Producer Vacancy on the Victorian Egg Marketing Board:-

1. Ron Robins, Harcourt. Age 59 years. He has had a lifetime of experience with the Egg Industry. He has reared a family of 3 sons on the family poultry farm at Harcourt. The 11,250 bird farm is now being run in partnership with his youngest son. Ron has been actively involved with the Commercial Egg Producers Association for over 20 years. He is Vice President of the Central Council of C.E.P.A., covering Central and Northern Victoria and a director of the Commercial Egg Producers Trading Co-op for 12 years and Chairman of Directors for 2 terms.

2. Lindsay Bartels, Mystic Park, R.S.D., Lake Charm. Age 35 years. Married with 3 children. He has been poultry farming for 14 years and runs 7,008 hens. He was educated at Dookie College, graduated in 1970. He has been Secretary of Murrabit Branch of C.E.P.A. for the past 10 years. He is active on Mystic Park Irrigators League and also West of Loddon Salinity Action Committee.

3. Malcolm Peacock, who has been nominated by the V.F.G.A., who have also submitted his qualifications.

4. F.S. Wrigley, - present member of the Board whose qualifications are well known to you.

We understand that the term of office of Mr. Steiner also expires at this time and we would like to suggest that consideration be given to Mr. Donald K. Bain for that position. He held the position of Manager of V.E.B. for 19 years and his experience would be of great benefit for the industry.

Yours faithfully,

K. Fitzgibbon
