Dear Richard,

Further to our telephone discussion on Monday 14th December, 1987, in reference to the value to poultry farmers in having their eggs washed at our grading floor.

One of our larger producers, (45,000 birds) Checkerboard Chicks of Somerville, owner Dr. Alan Bond, advised that after the first month of the Board's operation in washing eggs, his returns increased by an average of 4.5 cents per dozen against deliveries that he had previously made to T.J. Neylon and Son where the eggs were unwashed.

He advised that not only did his second quality soiled decrease significantly but his farm costs also reduced because he previously had to employ casual staff to prepare the eggs prior to delivery to the Board. With the eggs now being washed at the Board, his preparation costs have also reduced significantly.

Yours faithfully,
EGG FARMERS OF VICTORIA
