Dear I.R. Executive

Enclosed is a complimentary copy of a special update we are releasing for the Industrial Relations Index. As you will see the update contains important changes of which you should be informed.

We have an extra special offer for you. You can subscribe to the Index, pay nothing additional for this and future updates, and receive a full 12 months of the Index for $135.

That's a saving of $30 or nearly 20% off the regular subscription rate.

The Index is your updated Who's Who guide to the big and small players in the industrial relations system. The Index comprises more than 400 pages of 100 per cent useful information.

If you are in any doubt about the importance of keeping up-to-date with the information in the Index, take a couple of minutes to study the enclosed complimentary update. In just 6 pages we supply you with the latest accurate information about:

- * new ACTU Executive including new Female representatives,
- * updated Specialist Staff for ACTU, update of all ACTU Affiliates including new membership figures,
- * updates on addresses, phone, fax and personnel for Unions, National Employers including the CAI and State Employers,
- * revised listing of the Industrial Relations Journalists,
- * updates to Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission, Industrial Commission of New South Wales,
- * addition of Dept. of Employment, Education and Training and the Minister and his staff due to the reshuffle of ministries by Mr Hawke in July,
- * updated contact details for Dept. of Industrial Relations,
- * Stop Press! Who's Who and contact information for the new Secretary to Victorian Trades Hall Council.
