- 21 p. 90 1864. By the same Act, which created Sandhurst a borough, & its chairman a Mayor, it was arranged that the no. of members should be fixed to 9, & the positions should be held in August. The leaving councillors were Cr. M. J. H. (Mayor) & Cr. Boyd & O'Keefe. For the 5 seats there were 8 candidates viz. the 3 old members & Messrs Jacob, Cohen, Elliott, Thompson, Lansell & Moran.
22. The share councillors in 1867 were: Marry - Messrs Yeo (President), Moore, Rogers, Hy, Colver, Bassett, Muller, Beresford, Tupper & latterly Messrs. Lansell & Curran.
23. Share councillors in 1868 were: Marry, Messrs. Rogers (President), Moore, Yeo, Curran, Colver, Bassett, Lansell, Horwood & Tupper.
24. Share councillors in 1869 were: Marry, Messrs. T. Moore (Pres.), Horwood, Yeo, Rogers, Colver, Curran, Lansell, Bassett, & Tupper.
25. In March the 1st. Jubilee Industrial Exhibition in Bgo. was opened in the Town Hall & temporary annexes. The opening ceremony was performed by his Excellency the Marquis of Normandy, it being the 1st visit of that noble to Bgo. The Exhibition remained open from the last week of March till the end of June. After all expenses, a surplus of £1000 remained & this sum, supplemented by £500 from Mr. Geo. Lansell, was spent in the erection of the handsome Alexandra Fountain @ Channy X.
26. 1879. A long X-cut east from Lansell's 180 on the New Chum line tapped the @ a distance of 560'. & this not only filled up the lower workings in the 180, but flooded several mines on the New Chum line, throwing many @ out of work. Eventually Mr. Lansell agreed to build a brick dam in his X-cut, thus preventing the further influx of this @.
27. Mr. S. G. Cole, who was only 50 when he @, was a native of Cheltenham, England. He arrived in Bgo. in 1852. After a period of gold digging, he opened a store @ Wharf, but was afterwards in the employ of Mr. G. Lansell in New Point, & Mr. J. B. Lorrain, in High St. In 1871 he became a legal manager, & he carried on this business up to the time of his @.
28. 1887 Dec. was notable for the return to Bgo. of Mr. Geo. Lansell & family, who received a hearty welcome from their friends amongst all classes. Mr. Lansell, who had been residing in London for some yrs., returned to Bgo. in response to a general request by the @.

34. Mr. Geo. Williams + 30 July 1895 (78) + 15.9.1877 @ Stratford-on-Avon, Eng. He arrived in Adelaide in 1850, & was a very early arrival on Bgo. One of the 1st, if not the 1st, crushing plants worked by a windmill, erected here, was built by him in New Chum. He was associated in mining in the @. Mr. Barnett Lazarus, in a claim on the Black Lead, New Chum. This claim formed a portion of the present Lazarus lease. It was situated @ the crushing plant of the Lazarus Coy & Mr. Lansell's Fortuna works @ that time known as Balthazar's claim. The Black Lead was only a small reef but was very rich, & the partners obtained as much as 2703% of Au to the ton from it.

38. Mr. 320 B. Mr. Richard Williams was @ Cornwall, & arrived in Bgo. in 1857 to his wife & 2 children. He followed mining pursuits, & in 1864 became manager of Mr. Lansell's Cinderella claim, & his success induced Mr. Lansell to place the management of the whole properties under his charge. After acting in this capacity of 2 1/2 yrs. he resigned to take charge of the Johnson's Reef Coy. For 37 yrs @ up to the time of his @, he continued to be associated in the Coy. Under his shrewd & capable management the mine made great progress. In pardonable pride, he frequently referred to his lengthy connection in the Coy. & claimed to hold the Australian record for length of service in the capacity of mining manager. Mr. Williams was an enthusiastic supporter of the School of Mines, & held a seat on the Administrative Council for yrs, being president for 2 yrs. He manifested a keen interest in the welfare of the Methodist Church & frequently represented his circuit @ the annual conference. In Masonic circles Mr. Williams was also a notable figure, having passed thru all the offices during a term of 20 yrs.

While fighting in the trenches one day he happened to glance around, & was surprised to discover that his brother was by his side. They had not seen each other for a long time & the meeting under such circumstances can be imagined. Two of his brothers, Jas & William, served thruout the war. @ its close he came to Vic, the @ being then @ its height. His stay in Bgo. was brief, as the N.Z. outbreak attracted his attention, but he held in 1858 to Bgo., & as the outbreak was quiet he went back to N.Z. in 1859. Finally, in 1860, he settled in Bgo. devoted to his father & mother & to the @. They took up some land @ Leichardt & remained there for some yrs. when he @ Leichardt Mr. Northcott became Mr. Geo. 1871 B. G. Lansell (35) has a soap-works in View Point, which is the cause of much heart-burning in the locality. He has at last devoted his attention to mining pursuits & realised the magnitude of Bedouin resources, but as yet has not begun to lay the foundation of his fortune.
