

In September 1947 thousands attended pre Night Trotting Trials at the Port Melbourne Speedway that was specially revived for the purpose after laying idle since 1941.

After the first Night Trotting meeting at the Melbourne Showgrounds in November 1947, the Speedway closed once again.

The centenary of the Speedway opening was celebrated in the 2018 PMHS calendar.