To

THE MANAGER OF

THE BANK OF AUSTRALASIA,

Melbourne

Dear Sir,

I ~~We~~ request that you will issue a Circular Credit available at abroad for the negotiation not later than 19th February 1937 of the cheques, on drawers, of Lawrence James Hackett, drafts, with recourse at Sight on London
Two hundred pounds to an amount not exceeding in all (500).

I ~~We~~ guarantee that all cheques, drafts negotiated under this Credit shall be duly accepted and paid; and you are hereby authorised to charge to my ~~our~~ account all cheques drafts drawn under or in terms of this Credit.

In consideration of your issuing such Credit, I ~~We~~ hereby lodge as further collateral security and authorise you in the event of any default under this agreement to sell any securities in your possession, by auction or privately, and to apply the proceeds (less expenses) in or towards payment of any cheques drafts in your hands or of any other liabilities of mine ours to your Bank.

It is understood that the negotiation of any cheque cheques draft drafts under this Credit shall be optional on the part of your Bank or Agents, and that the Credit can be cancelled at any time at your discretion.

Yours faithfully

J. M. Mitchell
