

12th February, 1937.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL.

The Sydney Manager,

SYDNEY .. N.S.W.

Dear Sir:

WING-COMMANDER WACKETT.

Further to my letter of the 27th November last requesting you to pay Mr. Wackett's salary, it is noticed from debits that have come through for January payments that you are paying the sum of £59.7.0 fortnightly. This is not quite in accordance with directions set out in my letter. It was intended that these payments should only be made twice monthly, and not fortnightly.

As an overpayment has now been made in January, I suggest that you make only one deposit this month of £59.7.0. Thereafter, will you please make the deposit at the end of each month for the total sum of £118.14.0

Yours faithfully,

Managing Director.

Dear Sir,

WING-COMMANDER WACKETT

In connection with payments being made to the credit of Mr. Wackett's account, I should be glad if you would kindly pay in the sum of £63/15/7, which is additional to the amounts of £38/9/3 paid in twice monthly for the month of November.

As from 1st December I should be glad if you would pay to the credit of Mr. Wackett's account the sum of £59/7/- twice monthly until further notice.

Yours faithfully,

Managing Director

Dear Sir,

Wing Commander L.J.Wackett.

I am in receipt of yours of the 23rd instant (CP.R1) and undernote the dates on which payments have been effected. The discrepancy would appear to lie in the August statement, which apparently only shows on the copy sent you two payments for that month -

February	29th	July	4th
March	14th		18th
	28th	August	1st
April	11th		15th
	25th		29th
May	9th	September	12th

Dear Sir,

MR. COMMANDER L. J. WAGKITT

Fortnightly salary payments to the above Officer commenced as from the 15th February last, the first payment being made on the 29th of that month.

Your "Sydney Office Accounts" shows one payment in February and two payments each month thereafter up to 30th September.

By our reckoning, the September payments cover up to the 12th of September only, and October payments should be three to carry up to the 24th of that month.

If your records are in agreement with the above I shall be glad if you will make the necessary adjustment. Kindly advise.

Yours faithfully,

ESSINGTON LEWIS
