

Ballarat trees add beauty to the city but they must be kept in their place. Pictured above are SEC men lopping branches that threaten to interfere with overhead wires of the tram track in the vicinity of Lake Wendouree.

JUNE 1948

This breakdown occurred when the overhead tramway wire snapped in the loop line at the corner of Hamilton street and Wendouree parade on Saturday. The tramways had to operate a shuttle service until the wire was repaired.

SAT. 13th MARCH 1954