THOUGHT:

What we know is this one thing, namely, that He is building his Kingdom through all suffering and all judgment, that He is on his way with his Church, with all nations and the whole creation, and that He has a definite goal for all of them.

But faith can never neglect all the preliminary, very profane goals on this road. Never would slavery have been abolished, social responsibility aroused, jungle hospitals built, or the Red Cross founded without a faith on it's way with God to God's ultimate goal.

Edvard Schweitzer.
