

ORDER FORM

Please send me ..... copies of "SOVEREIGN REMEDIES" at $31.00 each, postage included.

Name.....

Address..... Postcode.....

My cheque for $..... is enclosed (payable to Ballarat Base Hospital).

The Book can be collected from the Hospital.

If postage required add $5.00.

Send this form to:

P.O. Box 577,

Ballarat, Vic. 3350.

Telephone enquiries: (053) 330 300. Fax: (053) 33 1562.

Plan of the Alfred Wing, 1870's.

This elegantly designed hardback of 424 pages, with 145 illustrations, retails for $39.45. But is available to associates of the Ballarat Base Hospital at the SPECIAL DISCOUNT PRICE of $31.00, plus postage.

The Hospital, 1859.

Sovereign Remedies

A History of

Ballarat Base Hospital

1850's to 1980's

About the Book

Here is a story of the public hospital at Ballarat — from its uncertain beginnings in the goldrush era to its emergence as one of Victoria's major regional health centres. Lavishly illustrated, this lively account first explores the early hospital's daily workings and its character as a nineteenth-century charitable institution.

Next, great changes are charted: changes affecting the hospital's admission policies, the status of doctors, the rise of female nursing, and the role of government. In the present century, new medical and social trends are traced which have gradually altered the hospital itself, transforming it from the charity of old into a vast and complex modern enterprise servicing the whole community.

About the Author

DR. ANTHEA HYSLOP lectures in Australian History at the Australian National University, Canberra. A graduate of Adelaide and La Trobe, she was taught history at both universities, and economic history at the University of Melbourne. She has published papers on feminism, social and moral reform, and the social history of medicine, and is currently working on Australia's experience of the 1918-19 "Spanish" influenza pandemic.

Sovereign Remedies

Sovereign Remedies will appeal at once to all those, in Ballarat and elsewhere, who know or have known the Ballarat Base Hospital.

Laying the Foundation Stone of the Queen Victoria Block, 1897.

It is also guaranteed to delight other readers with its colourful story, and to engage the interest of social and medical historians everywhere, with its insights upon public health in Australia.

Matron F. G. Eagleton with Medical and Nursing Staff (1896-1911).