POLICE investigations into the drowning of Mrs. Ivy Jessie Russell, 27, of Maidstone, and her two children in Sunshine swimming pool nearly two weeks ago, are likely to have a development today, following new information obtained yesterday.

Since the tragedy two detectives have been investigating certain aspects. One report they have investigated is that a man was seen on Ballarat Road about half a mile from the pool on the Saturday night before the tragedy was discovered.

Harold James Russell, 26, mechanic, who was arrested on June 16 on a charge of having committed bigamy on May 5, and who was remanded by the City Court last week, will appear again today. It is expected the police will ask for a further remand.
