

CAUGHT RED-HANDED AT TWO-UP

The Sunshine police surprised a group of men playing two-up on Saturday afternoon, 24th September, behind a hedge in Burke St., Braybrook, and as a result eight men appeared at the Sunshine Court on Friday last.

Senior Constable Traynor gave evidence to the effect that he and another constable heard a group of men betting on "heads" and "tails".

When the police jumped the fence the players scattered in all directions, but the eight accused gave their names and addresses.

A fine of £2 was imposed in each instance.
