

Bing Crosby Caught Playing Two-up

ONE of a party of men caught playing two-up in a paddock near the Braybrook Hotel on 3rd March last gave his name to the police as "Bing Crosby."

When the case was heard at Sunshine Court on Tuesday, this name was called but defendant did not appear.

Crosby who resides at 118 Devonshire Rd., Sunshine, was, together with five other men, fined £2 for the offence.

The others charged were: Charles Allinson, 28 Rowe St., Maribyrnong, George Black, 73 Suffolk Rd., West Footscray, Richard Black, Norfolk St., Mads-tone, Jack Preston, 66 Pickett St., Footscray, and James Humphries, Essex Rd., Braybrook.