THERE'LL ALWAYS BE AN ENGLAND.

(W. E. Wolstenholme).

Refrain :

There'll always be an England,
While there's a country lane ;
Wherever there's a cottage small,
Beside a field of grain.

There'll always be an England,
While there's a busy street ;
Wherever there's a turning wheel,
A million marching feet.

Red, white and blue,
What does it mean to you ?
Surely you're proud, shout it aloud,
Britons, awake !
The Empire, too, we can depend on you ;
Freedom remains, these are the chains nothing can break.

There'll always be an England,
And England shall be free,
If England means as much to you
As England means to me.
