Banding together
for NZ

THESE wild Willy minstrels are set to tackle New Zealand. But, unlike their local MP, Premier Joan Kirner, they will belt out a friendly tune.

Endless rehearsals, hard work and $8000 raised by parent groups and teachers have paid off for 23 members of Williamstown High School Concert Band.

Performance co-ordinator Finn

Koren says the students, aged 13 to 19, are no ordinary school band — they're fantastic. "They deserve a good break," he said.

The band will play a mixed repertoire from jazz through to pop in at least 10 high school performances on tour.

"Most of them haven't been on a plane before so they are really excited," Mr Koren said.
