

But I have been as careful as I could; and tho' there are some matters of fact that will seem strange, yet I have been more especially careful in these to say nothing but what, according to the best of my knowledge, is the very truth.

– Lionel Wafer, A New Voyage and Description of the Isthmus of America 1699.
First published in Vancouver, University of British Columbia Press 1979.
Cited by Harry Morton, The Wind Commander, University of Queensland Press, St Lucia, Queensland 1980.

By the same author

Bushrangers, A Pictorial History.

Select Documents of the Nineteenth Century: National Australia Bank Collection (Ed.) Volume One 1834-72, Volume Two 1872-1900.

A MOST INGENIOUS HOSPITAL

A History of Sandringham and District Memorial Hospital 1940-1990

Harry W. Nunn

B.A. (Hons), C.R.M. (USA), F.R.M.A.A.,
formerly Keeper of Public Records, Victoria

