

FLORIST

ESTABLISHED 1911
TRAVEL

LANES USED CARS

BOTTLE DEPT

ABOVE:

Scott St. looking east to main street, with crowd waiting for Journals in queue.

ABOVE: Scott St. looking south, with crowd waiting outside "Journal" office for papers to be published.

ABOVE: Frontage of The Journal is 19'9" built on. Wooden building housing editorial and composing runs back 75'. Lane on Title at left.

ABOVE: Frontage of The Journal, showing the relationship to the adjacent brick building at present used by Lanes Motors. The brick building is merely a brick shell, and runs back to the same depth as The Journal site, 136'.

VACANT LOT

