The Gate 1997

The Gate committee of 1997 have worked hard this year to bring you a new and brighter GATE. 1997 has seen the introduction of digital imaging and more colour pages into what we feel is the brightest GATE ever. We hope you enjoy what has come from a great deal of hard work from the people you see below.

We also hope that you will treasure the GATE as not simply only a record of 1997 but also a treasured memory of an important year in your life at Dandenong High School.

We would like to thank the following people:

- Mrs. Sally Dowman and her keyboarding classes for typing out all information.
- Mr. John P., Gareth Dobson & Daniel Thornbury for their assistance with the digital imaging.
- The Craftsman Press
- Mr. Ian Pogram for his wisdom and advice.

Principal's Report

1998 could become one of the most exciting years in a long life of our school. Early in August this year, our School Council President, Mrs Christine Ware, launched the Gymnasium and Performing Arts Project. The first stage of this project is expected to be completed during 1998 and will include a gymnasium, rehearsal room, instrumental music teaching rooms and general classrooms. The new facility will greatly enhance the education that we offer our students.

The second stage of this project is to redevelop the hall into a Music/Drama Centre. It will be named after a former student, teacher and school councillor, Mrs Edna Vukmirovic.

These are indeed exciting times for our school and we eagerly look forward to the completion of the project - the quality of a school's facilities have a significant impact on the attitude and learning of our students.

Dandenong High School was established in 1919 and for all of its seventy-eight years has provided its students with an outstanding education. We are very proud of the reputation of the school that has been established and nourished by the many students, teachers and parents who have been here before us. It is their work that has made the school what it is today and we are fortunate to live and work in such a fine school.

The school we have today has been developed over those seventy-eight years without the benefit of such things as a gymnasium, rehearsal rooms and specialist built music rooms. The new facility, in itself, will not necessarily make our school a better school. The new facility should enable our students to learn in better ways and our teachers to teach in better facilities. Whether this actually happens or not, is dependant upon us - the students and teachers of the school.

It is my hope that the Gymnasium and Performing Arts Complex will see improved learning outcomes for our students in several areas of the curriculum, but this will only happen if we all resolve to make it so and show that the new facility, so long needed, will make a difference.

My very best wishes to everybody for the coming vacation, especially our departing Year 12 students.

Bruce van den Berg, Robyn Stevenson, Peter Ward.

Assistant Principals' Report

"Travel, in the younger sort, is a part of education: in the elder, a part of experience."
- Francis Bacon

As Assistant Principals, we are privileged to deal with students, parents and visitors to the school who are from other countries. Many of these bring passports with them as a part of our enrolment procedures. Mention the word passport and the immediate thought is of travel beyond Australia's shores. A passport issued by the Government guarantees the identity of a citizen and eases the process of entry to other countries. This document helps one to secure admission by requesting that the bearer be allowed to travel freely without hindrance.

At the commencement of the 1990's the concept of the passport was given a wider perspective in an article by Dr Peter Ellyard, Director, Commission for the Future. He argued that three educational 'passports' would be necessary for success in the 1990s.

These three passports were:

- an academic passport in which literacy, numeracy and the expansion of knowledge would enable an individual to adopt a fulfilling role in society
- a vocational passport, which focused upon the kind of education vital to achieve entry to the labour force at a time of rapid technological change: and
- an enterprise passport the major component of which was an ability to apply self confidence and initiative in a variety of new and challenging situations.

Traditionally we would have no difficulty in identifying the school's task to provide the best possible academic and vocational passports to its student citizens.

However, if Dr Ellyard's view is correct, then our school has an important task to also develop the skills comprising that enterprise passport. The school staff has given Dandenong High School a well deserved reputation in the wider community in many of the activities which build the enterprise qualities of self confidence and initiative. Challenging opportunities are available to students in the creative arts, theatre, music, sport and citizenship, to give but a few examples. It is very pleasing to see that so many students have, during this year, demonstrated a willingness to gain an enterprise passport by taking the extra step of active involvement in many of the opportunities mentioned above.

When you reflect upon the past year, consider the extent to which you strove for a balanced blend of the academic, vocational and enterprise passports in your approach to school involvement. The achievement of this blend will be critical as you embark upon life's journey on leaving school. The school can provide these highly valued passports. However, in 1998 will you make the necessary application for each of these three passports to success? This is the challenge ahead for each member of the school.

Throughout this year the Students Representative Council has been involved in several different areas of the school we have continually striven to meet the demands of the students. In doing this we have had many meetings discussing many different and relevant issues of the students. We have been involved in the decisions surrounding the new hall and the new seats surrounding the oval. We have also assisted in raising money for the productions and organising student free dress days. Along with this we have purchased new hand dryers and organised entertaining assemblies. We have served the student body in an upstanding and appropriate manner and hope that the future student council can follow our lead.

School Captains

Dandenong High School has been home for many Year 12 students for 6 years. When I say that DHS was the best time of my life, I am sure I speak on behalf of all the Year 12 students departing from the true 'second home'. The vast knowledge, skills and lifelong friends acquired within the boundaries of the big blue gates are irreplaceable.

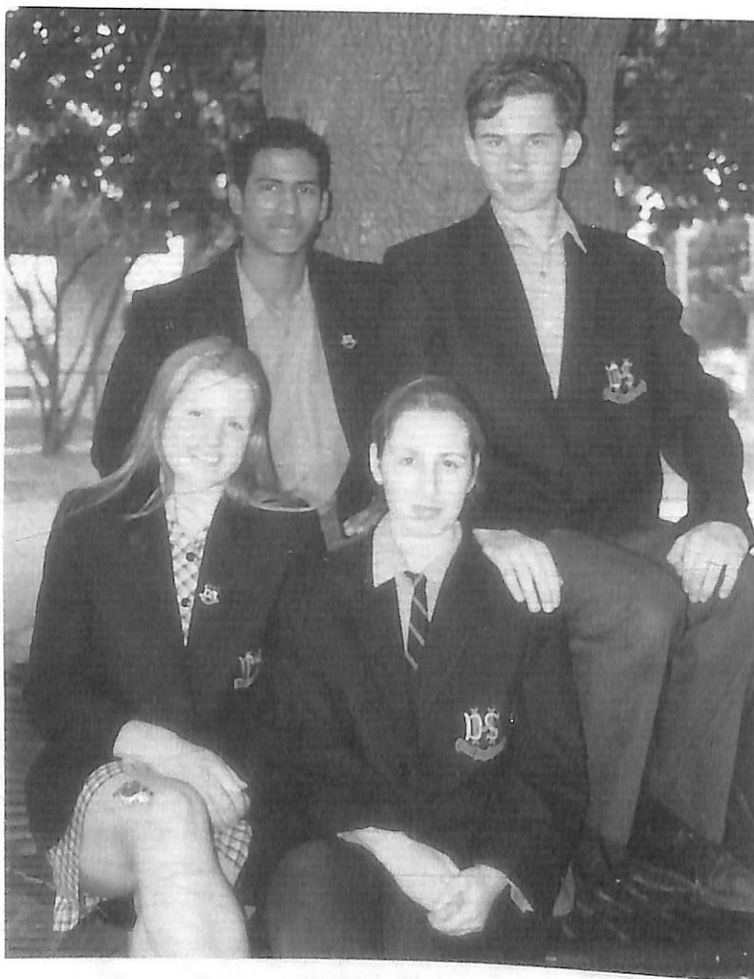

I would like to pass on my congratulations to all the students of 1997. The spirit of the school thrived this year. Many students participated enthusiastically in all extra curricular activities, displaying their talents vibrantly. It has been great to see the wonderful resources DHS has to offer, teachers and facilities, used in such eagerness and gratitude.

As school captains, it has been a pleasure representing Dandenong High, the school so often mentioned as being the best government school in Victoria! Words cannot explain the honor felt on behalf of Michelle and I, in being able to wear the worthy title for 1997.

Now that it is time to leave the homely comfort of DHS, I speak again on behalf of the Year 12 students when I say, words cannot explain the pain felt with our departure. It has been a sad occasion seeing the gate opened for the last time. However, we will always look back on DHS with fond memories and forever keep them close to our hearts. We only hope that DHS will carry on the same tradition, and continue to be the home for many future students.

Michelle and I would finally like to wish all the departing Year 12 students the very best as they strive in their pursuit of excellence.

Mark Gelderbloem Year 12
Michelle Buck Year 12

School Council President

This year has been a very significant one from the School Council's point of view.

Construction of the much discussed gymnasium will commence this year. Much work has been done preparing the concept plans in consultation with the PE, Music and Drama teachers. This has entailed identifying funds, reforming our Cooperative and informing the Department of Education, local Council and community about the project. All this effort culminated in the public launch and unveiling of the model in the school library on 5th August 1997. Those present were impressed, both with the planned building works and with the drama performance by Ms Kamevaar's students.

Members of the School Council were deeply saddened by the death of Mrs Edna Vukmirovic. This wonderful lady was not only a past student, former staff and School Council member, but our friend. She always attended functions at the school, particularly the chorals and awards assembly. 'Mrs V' as we affectionately knew her, will be sadly missed. The School Council decided to honour her memory by naming the proposed redeveloped assembly hall the "Edna Vukmirovic Performing Arts Centre".

The School Charter and Policies have been reviewed, and we hope to soon have our new Charter and Priorities adopted.

The School Council values the teachers, support staff and principals for the contribution they make to our school. We were pleased to once again hold a staff recognition function where we took the opportunity to honour staff members who had over ten years of service at Dandenong High School.

I would like to thank the School Council members for the time and enthusiasm they commit to ensuring Dandenong High School maintains its reputation and meets the needs of our student population. They are:

Travelling around central Australia was a unique experience for me.

The vastness of Australia was overwhelming, and to observe first hand the roughness of the outback, the Red Earth and the spectacular scenery was exhilarating.

One of the highlights was the trek over Kings Canyon which took in breathtaking views and the ultimate reward after a long climb, to a swim in the Garden of Eden rock pool. This year at DHS has been a long ascent but the climb has resulted in many experiences where I was able to assist and encourage students to rise above problems and see their potential or be a coach to the school community.

Eugenie West sums it up:-

Get up and go. There's so much delight in the world just waiting for you, it's a shame to wait another minute. Discovery is delight!

Read about your destination first. Learn all you can. Try new places-Why ever go to the same place twice?

Cruise, fly, drive, climb, crawl-do whatever it takes to have a trip to a place you've never been.

Once you get there keep your eyes, ears and heart alert for delight.

Meet new people, savour new flavours, learn new customs, listen to new music, wear silly hats, dance new dance steps on into the night.

Nothing creates more expansions than a new place.

Eugenie West

My message to each student is to explore the world, overcome your obstacles, rise to your potential and succeed in life and find peace and satisfaction in doing it.

Mr. Eadon

The arrival of nine Japanese homestay students from Tamano High School in August highlights the expansion of Asian languages taught at DHS.

With the introduction of Japanese on 1996, and Indonesian this year, we now offer four languages, including French and Latin.

Our own Japanese students are making excellent progress and impressing everyone with the quality of their masks, origami, music and displays. On October 6, the Year 8 students saw an exhibition by contemporary artist Rieko Hidaka at Monash University.

Ms Robson, Mrs Sakr and their intrepid students have navigated perilous seas to Java, Sumatra, Lombok, Bali, Kalimantan and other Indonesian islands with a steady hand on the VCR remote controls, sampled satay and written letters to imaginary pen-pals during their first year, role-playing and learning songs along the way.

While "slaves" offered their services in the quadrangle to raise money for various charities, their soul brothers and sisters, our Latin students, were fully sympathetic to their fate. Maidens were sacrificed, songs were sung, debates took place on issues dear to every Roman's heart. Meanwhile, Year 9 students donned togas in preparation for their traditional banquet. Overall, Jupiter smiled, and it is hoped that further sacrifices will spell the end of El Nino.

Les Halles restaurant in Richmond greeted and fed 70 Year 9 French students who had spent the morning viewing the National Gallery's French collection. An intensive session at Genezzano College helped VCE students drum out any feral tendencies in their CAT'S. The Year 8's sold crepes for social services on Mardi Gras. Bastille Day saw displays of French achievement in sport, cinema, science and politics, and absolutely no excuses were needed for the odd game of "boules".

Special Visits - Japanese Exchange

Dandenong High School welcomed 9 Japanese exchange students accompanied by their "sensei". The students were from Tamano High School and they were anticipating the discoveries of a fortnight's experience as an Australian. The intention of the visit was to stimulate an understanding of Australia's multicultural customs and in return to reward students of Dandenong High School with the knowledge of Japanese traditions and modern day lifestyle.

During their visit they attended Year 8 Japanese classes to serve as speaking partners. This type of conversation proved to be extremely successful and helpful to both the exchange students and us, as it improved our communication skills.

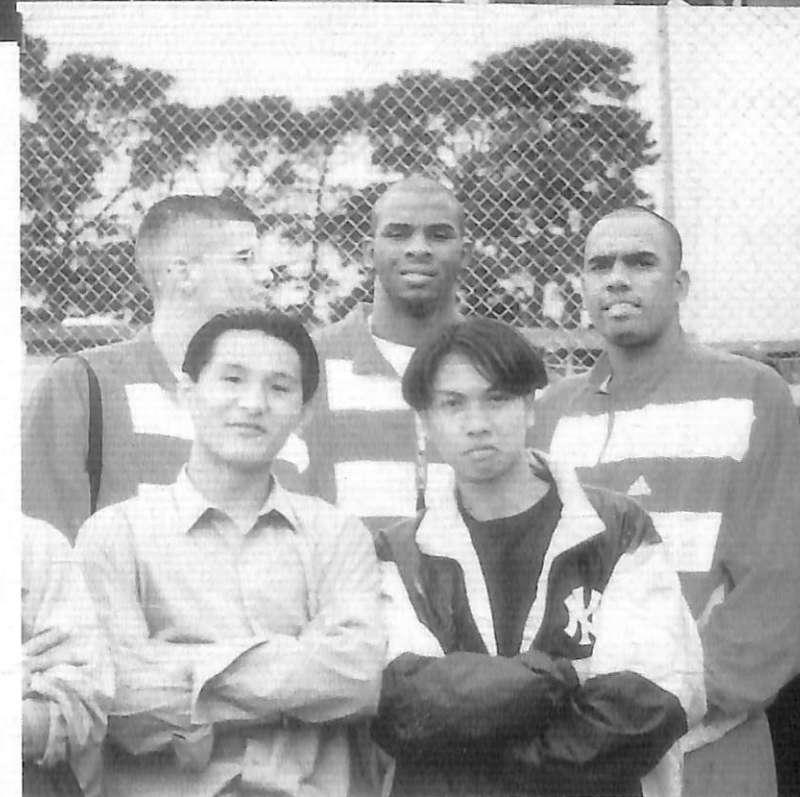

Our visitors were also talented in practical aspects, they taught us the art of origami. The exchange students were such good teachers that by the end of the lesson, even beginners were able to fold brilliant examples of paper cranes.

There were many cultural differences that became evident in our conversation with the Japanese students, but one that stood out was that every year, on August 6th, thousands of paper cranes are draped around statues in the Peace Memorial Park in Hiroshima.

I think that the exchange students were great and the experience of exchanging dialogue with a natural Japanese speaker proved to be fun as well as being a chance to practise our communication skills.

Sayonara!

Physical Education

During 1997 students in the Junior and Middle Schools have been actively involved in a wide range of sporting pursuits. These have ranged from traditional sports such as gymnastics, tennis, soccer (just to name a few) to recreational activities like rollerblading and bowling.

Students in the Senior School have been busy working on mastering the theory work relating to PE. During weekly practical classes students apply the theoretical concepts covered in theory classes.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all the senior students well in their exams.

1998- The PE staff and students are eagerly awaiting the completion of the new PE facilities next year. (We can't wait!)

Art News 1997

It has been a challenging and busy year for everyone involved in the Art Faculty. Students participated in several extra curricular activities including the Arts Extravaganza Education Week Exhibition, The Greater Dandenong - Art Week Exhibitions and the Dandenong Festival of Arts.

In fine tradition Dandenong High School students have performed well at the Dandenong Festival of Art. Outstanding results were achieved in the Design on Australian Stamp Section, judged by John Balmain.

FIRST PRIZE was awarded to Huan Ming (Year 7E) for her entry depicting Australian flora.

SECOND PRIZE was awarded to Tracey De Kock (Year 8A).

During ART WEEK in conjunction with the Greater Dandenong Festival, the Year 12 Studio Arts students presented their CAT1 Folio work. Talented teachers also presented a wide variety of wonderful art work. Fun, educational and successful workshops were presented by artist/teachers which included Creative Papermaking and Brass Rubbings. The 'Draw a Teacher' proved to be a fun and popular competition once again. Michael Juricic of 7A was a winner. Rebecca Bayer received the Art Treasure Hunt competition. Laura Jarvis obtained an award for the best screen printed T-shirt design.

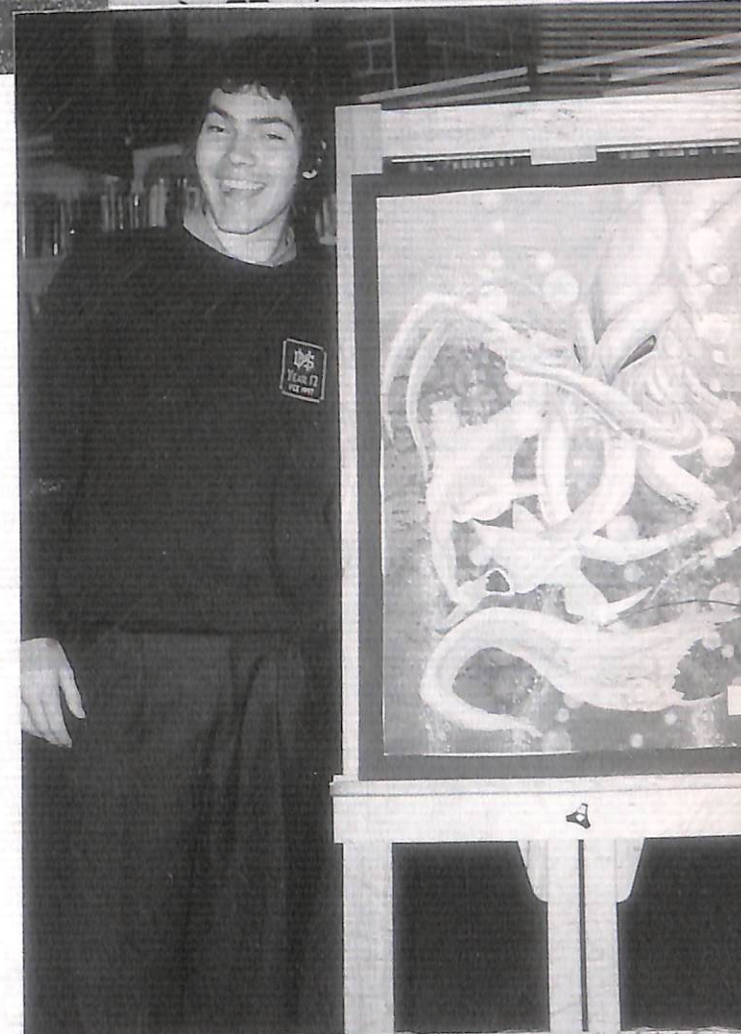

During Education Week several students were selected to have their work exhibited at the professional 'J. Space' Gallery at Casey College Dandenong. The exhibition was officially opened by the Mayor of Dandenong, Cr. Greg Harris. For the students, this was quite an honour.

The Art staff are proud of the achievements of our students at all levels.

Let's maintain our tradition and keep the Arts alive!

Mrs. L. Giliberto

Art Coordinator

Drama

The Drama Department has been flat out this year trying to keep up with all of the extra-curricular performances we have been involved in.

As well as the many performances done at school assemblies, particularly the characteristic Village People impersonation by Year 12 at International Week, Drama activities have been the highlight for many students who participated in the 1997 VATE conference; the DHS production of COSI; the Dandenong Cultural Festival; the Springvale Multi-cultural festival; the Springvale Children's Moon Festival; the Monash University Festival of Drama in Schools; the Monash Dip-Ed performance, just to name a few!!!!

Both in and out of the classroom our Drama students have proven that all the world really is a stage.

COSI

This year's Dandenong High School production was COSI. Cosi is a story about a university student who goes to a mental institution to put on a play with the patients. A lot of effort has gone into getting the final product as brilliant as it was. The play took place over four nights from the 27th to the 30th of August in front of a packed audience. The venue for this great event was the school hall, which was well equipped to handle the large audience present.

Led by the dynamic Felicity Kamevaar and side-kick Ryan Allemann, the actors took their direction admirably and used it to benefit themselves and their character. All of the actors did extremely well and there were some outstanding performances. Kaine Hilton who played Lewis a university student was brilliant. He showed us that he could go far in the acting business. This was of course his second role in a production, last year he played a dirty grave digger in the well presented "Hamlet".

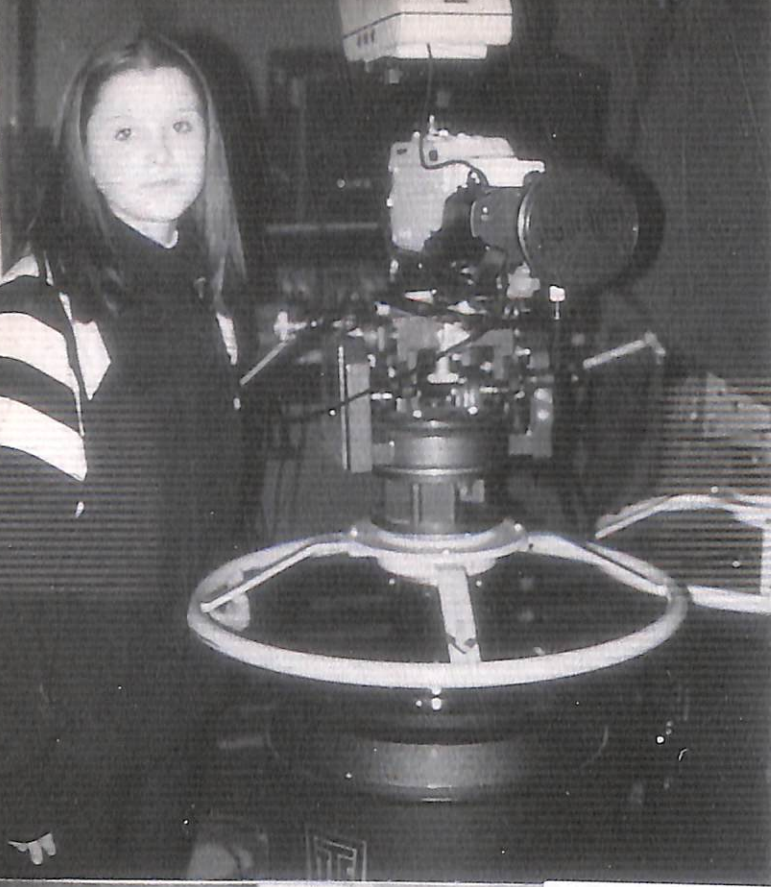

Jamie McCarney was disturbing, playing the mad mental patient ROY. Jamie is quite normal in real life, but once he steps on that stage and becomes Roy there is no stopping him. Jamie has also been in many previous productions such as "In the Mood", "Oklahoma", "Oliver", "Dimboola" and he was a great king in last years' "Hamlet". This year Jamie has given his all in portraying Roy and also helping the younger members of the cast.

The lighting and sound was led by Mr Pegram and his diligent team who worked tirelessly to make every light and every mike come on when they were supposed to. The sets were quite plain as that was the intended effect. The end scene was very colourful and bright which added a great effect to the acting.

Overall, this play was very entertaining and extremely funny. The play was a risk to put on but it was a move that paid off, making it the biggest box office hit of all time.

Felicity Kamevaar, Yvonne Ellins and Ryan Allemann should all be given a pat on the back for all the time and effort they have put in and on a job well done.

GRAPHIC COMMUNICATIONS

Media Studies

As a new subject in the school Media has been accepted by all students with open arms. While the Year 9's have undertaken a variety of tasks including animation and learning how to develop photo's, the Year Tens have spent quite some time making music video clips and have dabbled in photographic technology. The Year 11 Media class have had the opportunity to record a television program in a real television studio and have often been seen lurking around the school late at night with pizzas and a video staring at television screens in A3 or photographing for yet another assignment. Next year the Media Studies faculty will hold its first Year 12 class while the numbers at the middle school continue to grow. To all the students who undertook Media this year we hope that you have had a good time and we hope that together we will lead DHS into the future of Media Technology.

Deb Ball

On Saturday, July 28, thirteen beautiful debutantes and their partners made their debut at Rembrandts Reception Centre. The task of coordinating these 26 eager people on the dance floor was undertaken by Leo, Leveda, Alison, Don and Michele McKie.

Finally, after months of preparation and hard work, the couples were presented to the community with the help of Mrs. Josza, who was the Master of Ceremonies for the night. The deb's were presented to the Official Party, who included Mr and Mrs Van den Berg and Mayor and Mayoress Harris. The gorgeous flowergirls and pageboys for this year were Leah Roy, Emily Laughlin, Jordan Wells and Matthew Venning.

Special thanks goes to Mrs Stevenson, Mrs Josza, the dance instructors, the partners and all of the parents involved for making this night one that the debutantes will always remember...

Music

This year, the main performing groups of the school: the Concert Band and the Vocal group, performed at many school and community functions. This included appearances at Dandenong Plaza, Waverley Gardens, Dandenong Library, and Dandenong Town Hall. These performances celebrated Education Week, Greater Dandenong Week and the 1st Anniversary of the Dandenong Library. Other performances included International Week, the Variety concert, House Choral Night and Award Night.

House Choral Night

On Monday 7th April, the 4 houses competed for the House Choral trophy. The set song was "FEED THE BIRDS" from the musical "Mary Poppins". The adjudicator was Mrs Ophelia Barnes from MacRobertson Girls High.

Poems

"10E"

Mrs. Moorhouse, our English teacher
 Many essays she has to feature
 So here's a poem, student's from A to Zee
 All put together we make up 10E
 First come my friends Samantha, Sofia
 Three best friends that's what we are
 Stacey's our friend, and Ben plays drums
 Ned and Tasim put up their thumbs
 Roman, Bojan and Timur make three
 The Three Musketeers, is what they're trying to be Tameeka, Tanya, and Anthea you see
 With friends Lisa and Sarah they form a team
 Alan's into Techno, and Hung likes all the girls
 Shilo's on the wild side, her hair done up in curls
 Ashwini and Taupule they join the 10E crew
 Brad is into cricket, and Ricky swings on through Chamnam and Ovidiu, annoying at many times
 I'll finish with Gareth and Erhan, so this poem rhymes

*Everything now seems to be going so fast.
 Like the blazing of the sun,
 or the rising of the moon.
 Everything will be gone one day,
 that is what they say.
 But those people who say this,
 are not the ones who pay.
 It is the young generation, the ever growing youth.
 With so many uncertainties, how can we know the truth?
 If you call out for help, will someone out there hear?
 or will the pain grow deeper in your faith?
 Inside you feel it, but you cannot let it out.
 Is this what our generation is meant to be about?
 or is this just the act of our failing society?*

Quoc Tran 7B

RECIPE OF DANGER

*A bag of fugitives
 A tablespoon of shadows
 A cup of guns
 A slice of fear
 2 litres of blood
 A portion of prisoners
 A blob of punks
 A shade of fire
 A cup full of darkness
 A drop of steel chains
 2 cups of weapons
 3 spoons of erupting volcanoes
 And a handful of thumping heartbeats
 Stir in a steel bowl
 at midnight, and bake in oven and you will have no light
 for the rest of your life,
 Just DANGER THAT SCARES YOU!*

Abiramy Gnanathaniumuthalvan.

"BLACK"

Black is the sky in the middle of the night
 Black are the spiders that walk on eight legs
 Do they scare me?
 Black are the blackberries growing on a bush
 Black is the polish you put on your shoes
 Black is the hat on a witch's head
 Black are the ants that walk two by two
 Black is the colour that reminds me of death
 Black is a colour that makes you feel scared
 Maryana 10E

The other side

Night falls, stars shine,
 Night lifts, stars die,
 I watch the moon
 And wonder why,
 Why must so many beings die?

Night falls, I go to sleep.
 Night lifts, I wake from dreams,
 I watch the sun,
 I watch the sky
 And simply wonder why

I often sit and watch the rain,
 I often listen and obey
 The call of falling drops, in pain,
 They wash so many things away.
 What is the other side?

What happens to all flowers?
 And, what becomes a flower?
 Nature gives us life
 And nature never dies,
 So, what's the other side?

We die for the purpose of being reborn,
 We become for the purpose of dying.
 Existing, not existing,
 We are always living,
 Living as nature.
 Living, a flower
 Living, a tree
 Living, a bird
 Living, a bee.

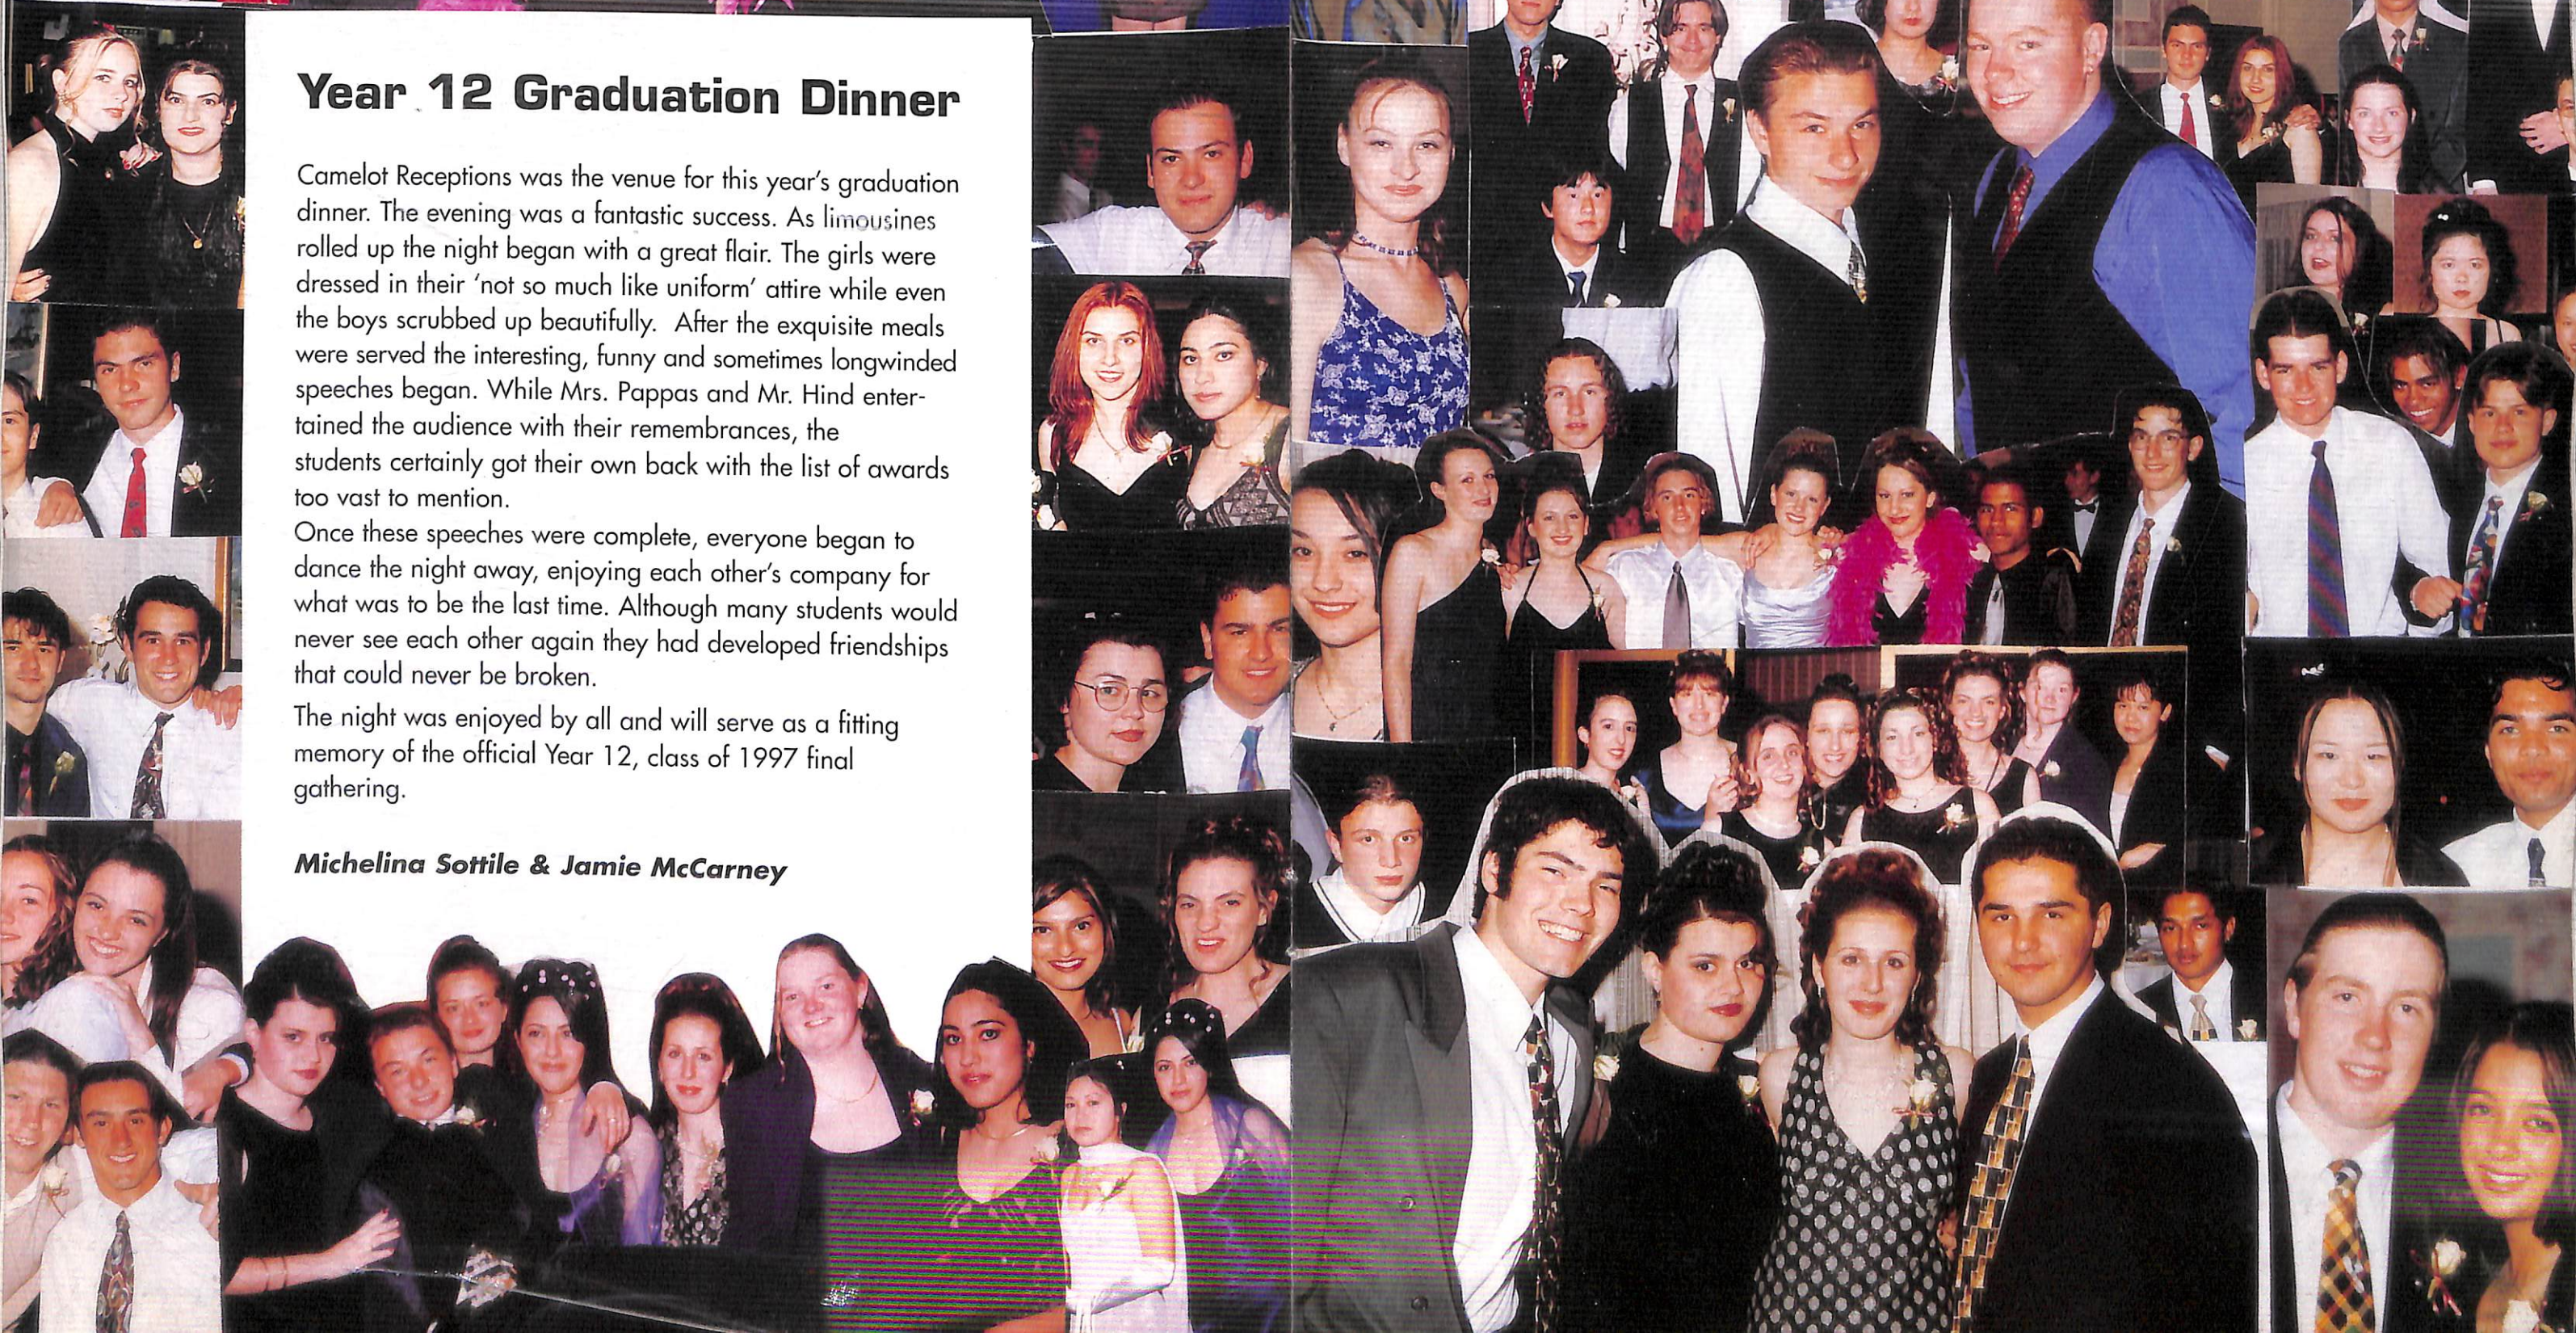

Year 12 Graduation Dinner

Camelot Receptions was the venue for this year's graduation dinner. The evening was a fantastic success. As limousines rolled up the night began with a great flair. The girls were dressed in their 'not so much like uniform' attire while even the boys scrubbed up beautifully. After the exquisite meals were served the interesting, funny and sometimes longwinded speeches began. While Mrs. Pappas and Mr. Hind entertained the audience with their remembrances, the students certainly got their own back with the list of awards too vast to mention.

Once these speeches were complete, everyone began to dance the night away, enjoying each other's company for what was to be the last time. Although many students would never see each other again they had developed friendships that could never be broken.

The night was enjoyed by all and will serve as a fitting memory of the official Year 12, class of 1997 final gathering.

International Week Assembly

This year's International Week was one of the most eagerly anticipated weeks of the year. The organised activities kicked off on Tuesday at lunchtime with the traditional ESL luncheon and the Afro-Caribbean dancers on the Wednesday. Then came the rehearsal for the assembly and the "Past to Present" performance on the Thursday, followed by the assembly on the Friday.

Firstly, we were introduced to the M.C.'s for the assembly, Jamie McCarney and Alex Ognenov, who performed a Blues Brothers number, accompanied by the Blues Brothers Band. The Year 12 drama group performed a Village people tribute with "You Can't Stop the Music", followed by a live performance by two Year 12 students of "Like a Rolling Stone" accompanied by the DHS vocal group. The Pacific Island dancers, the Kung Fu demonstration and sparring, the Mauritian dancers and the Spaz Girls all excited the crowd.

The solo performances and the gospel singers/dancers inspired the audience while the Indian dancers, Albanian dancers, Chinese dancers, Middle Eastern dancers and the Serbian dancers all showed their proud heritage. The Greek dancers in a sign of unity, encouraged other groups to dance with them in their final dance, the tekno Zorba. All the participants were thanked on the next Thursday with a special lunch prepared by the ESL staff.

Year 7 Coordinators' Report

At the start of the year a group of angelic, shy, well dressed students with well polished shoes arrived at Dandenong High School for their first day of high school. What a difference a year makes!

It can be a frightening experience starting Year 7 - so many things to remember, - so many strange faces in unfamiliar surroundings! Who remembers the first time they tried to open a combination lock?

Our job is to try and make the transition process as smooth as possible. We trust that through the participation that they have had in a variety of experiences, that they have settled in well to their new school.

The activities that students could have participated in were; swimming, athletics, interschool sport, musical production, house chorals, drama production, excursions, a two day camp at Gilwell Park, FAMPa Math competitions, Australian Schools science competition, cross country, casual dress days, junior social and a visit to Springers Leisure Centre.

This year's Year 7's are a fine group of students who can look forward to many rewarding years at Dandenong High School. It has been a pleasure for us to be associated with them.

Year 8 Coordinators' Report

1997 has been a busy and challenging year for Year 8 students, both academically and with extra curricular involvement.

Once again students had the opportunity to develop and display their talents on the sporting arena. We were pleased with Year 8 involvement in the Swimming and Athletics carnivals. Individuals performing very well included Lynsey Gibson in Swimming, and Cade Harris in Athletics.

Team sports at interschool level are always popular, with students having the opportunity to play a wide variety of sports. Special mention must go to the Year 8 girls tennis team (Kim and Beth Mitchard, Pinar Simsir, Krystel Stewart and Bianca Coviello) who have won the Dandenong District Title, came second at the Southern Zone and earned themselves a place in the All High Championships later in term 4.

Year 8 students were also involved in this years production of "Cosi". One of the leading roles "Doug the Pyromaniac" was performed extremely well by Stuart Clark and contributed to the overall success of the production. The Ski Camp, International Week, History Week, PE Week, the Cross Country Carnival and the Choral Festival were also events that Year 8 students involved themselves in, displaying their interests and talents.

Overall, a great deal of learning took place both inside and outside the classroom in 1997. We commend the students who took advantage of the opportunities offered by the school this year, and wish all Year 8 students well as they progress through the school in the years to come.

Mr Bond & Mrs Venning
Year 8 Coordinators.

Year 9 Coordinators' Report

It has been an extremely busy for Year 9 students in 1997. The Year 9 Coordinators, Mrs Pearce and Mr Pegram, have been most impressed by the level of enthusiasm and commitment displayed by many students in varying activities.

Year 9 students participated in the following activities:

- the Start Me Up' program with the St Kilda Football Club
- sporting events such as House Swimming, Athletics, Cross Country and Team Sports
- excursions for Geography (Braeside Park), Drama, French and History to name just some
- subject competitions in Maths, Science, Art and Information Technology
- performance in the Variety Concert, School Production of 'Cosi' and the Choral festival.

We take this opportunity to congratulate all the students who participated in the activity offered in 1997. May they continue to achieve success in the years to come.

Mrs Pearce & Mr Pegram
Year 9 Coordinators

Year 10 Coordinators' Report

Mrs Hayes and Mrs Steadman would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the 1997 Year 10 students on the completion of a successful year in all areas of school life.

Together with the combined challenges of the academic curriculum the Year 10's have also taken up with enthusiasm and commitment the many extra curricular activities which have been offered this year.

We were most fortunate to be invited to the St Kilda Football Club in the establishment of the inaugural "Start Me Up Program". This partnership with specially trained players, together with the Chaplain, teachers and students of the Middle School proved to be a most rewarding experience for all involved.

During May and September of this year our students participated in the Work Experience program. As always our students excelled in all areas of the program, receiving excellent reports from their employers who found them to be highly motivated, reliable and excellent ambassadors for Dandenong High School.

Students participated in Mathematics, Science and Art competitions. Students from the Drama Department also represented the school most ably at functions associated with the launch of the Gymnasium and other various drama productions.

Our students also participated enthusiastically in the Sports program, sporting competitions, Chorals Festival and Technology Display evening.

During the latter part of the year a large number of our students undertook Peer Support training as leaders for next year. Excursions during the year included Geography, Drama, Media Studies, English and some students were selected to attend the Ski Trip during Term 3.

As the year draws to a close we would like to wish all our students the best for next year and hope that you and your family enjoy a safe and enjoyable holiday.

Year 11 Coordinators' Report

There were 182 students who walked through the gate that January morning to begin their VCE studies. All of them have experienced the highs and lows that occur during Units 1 and 2. Amongst the laughs and the tears, the work requirements and the tests, the vast majority of students have applied themselves admirably to the task of achieving their best.

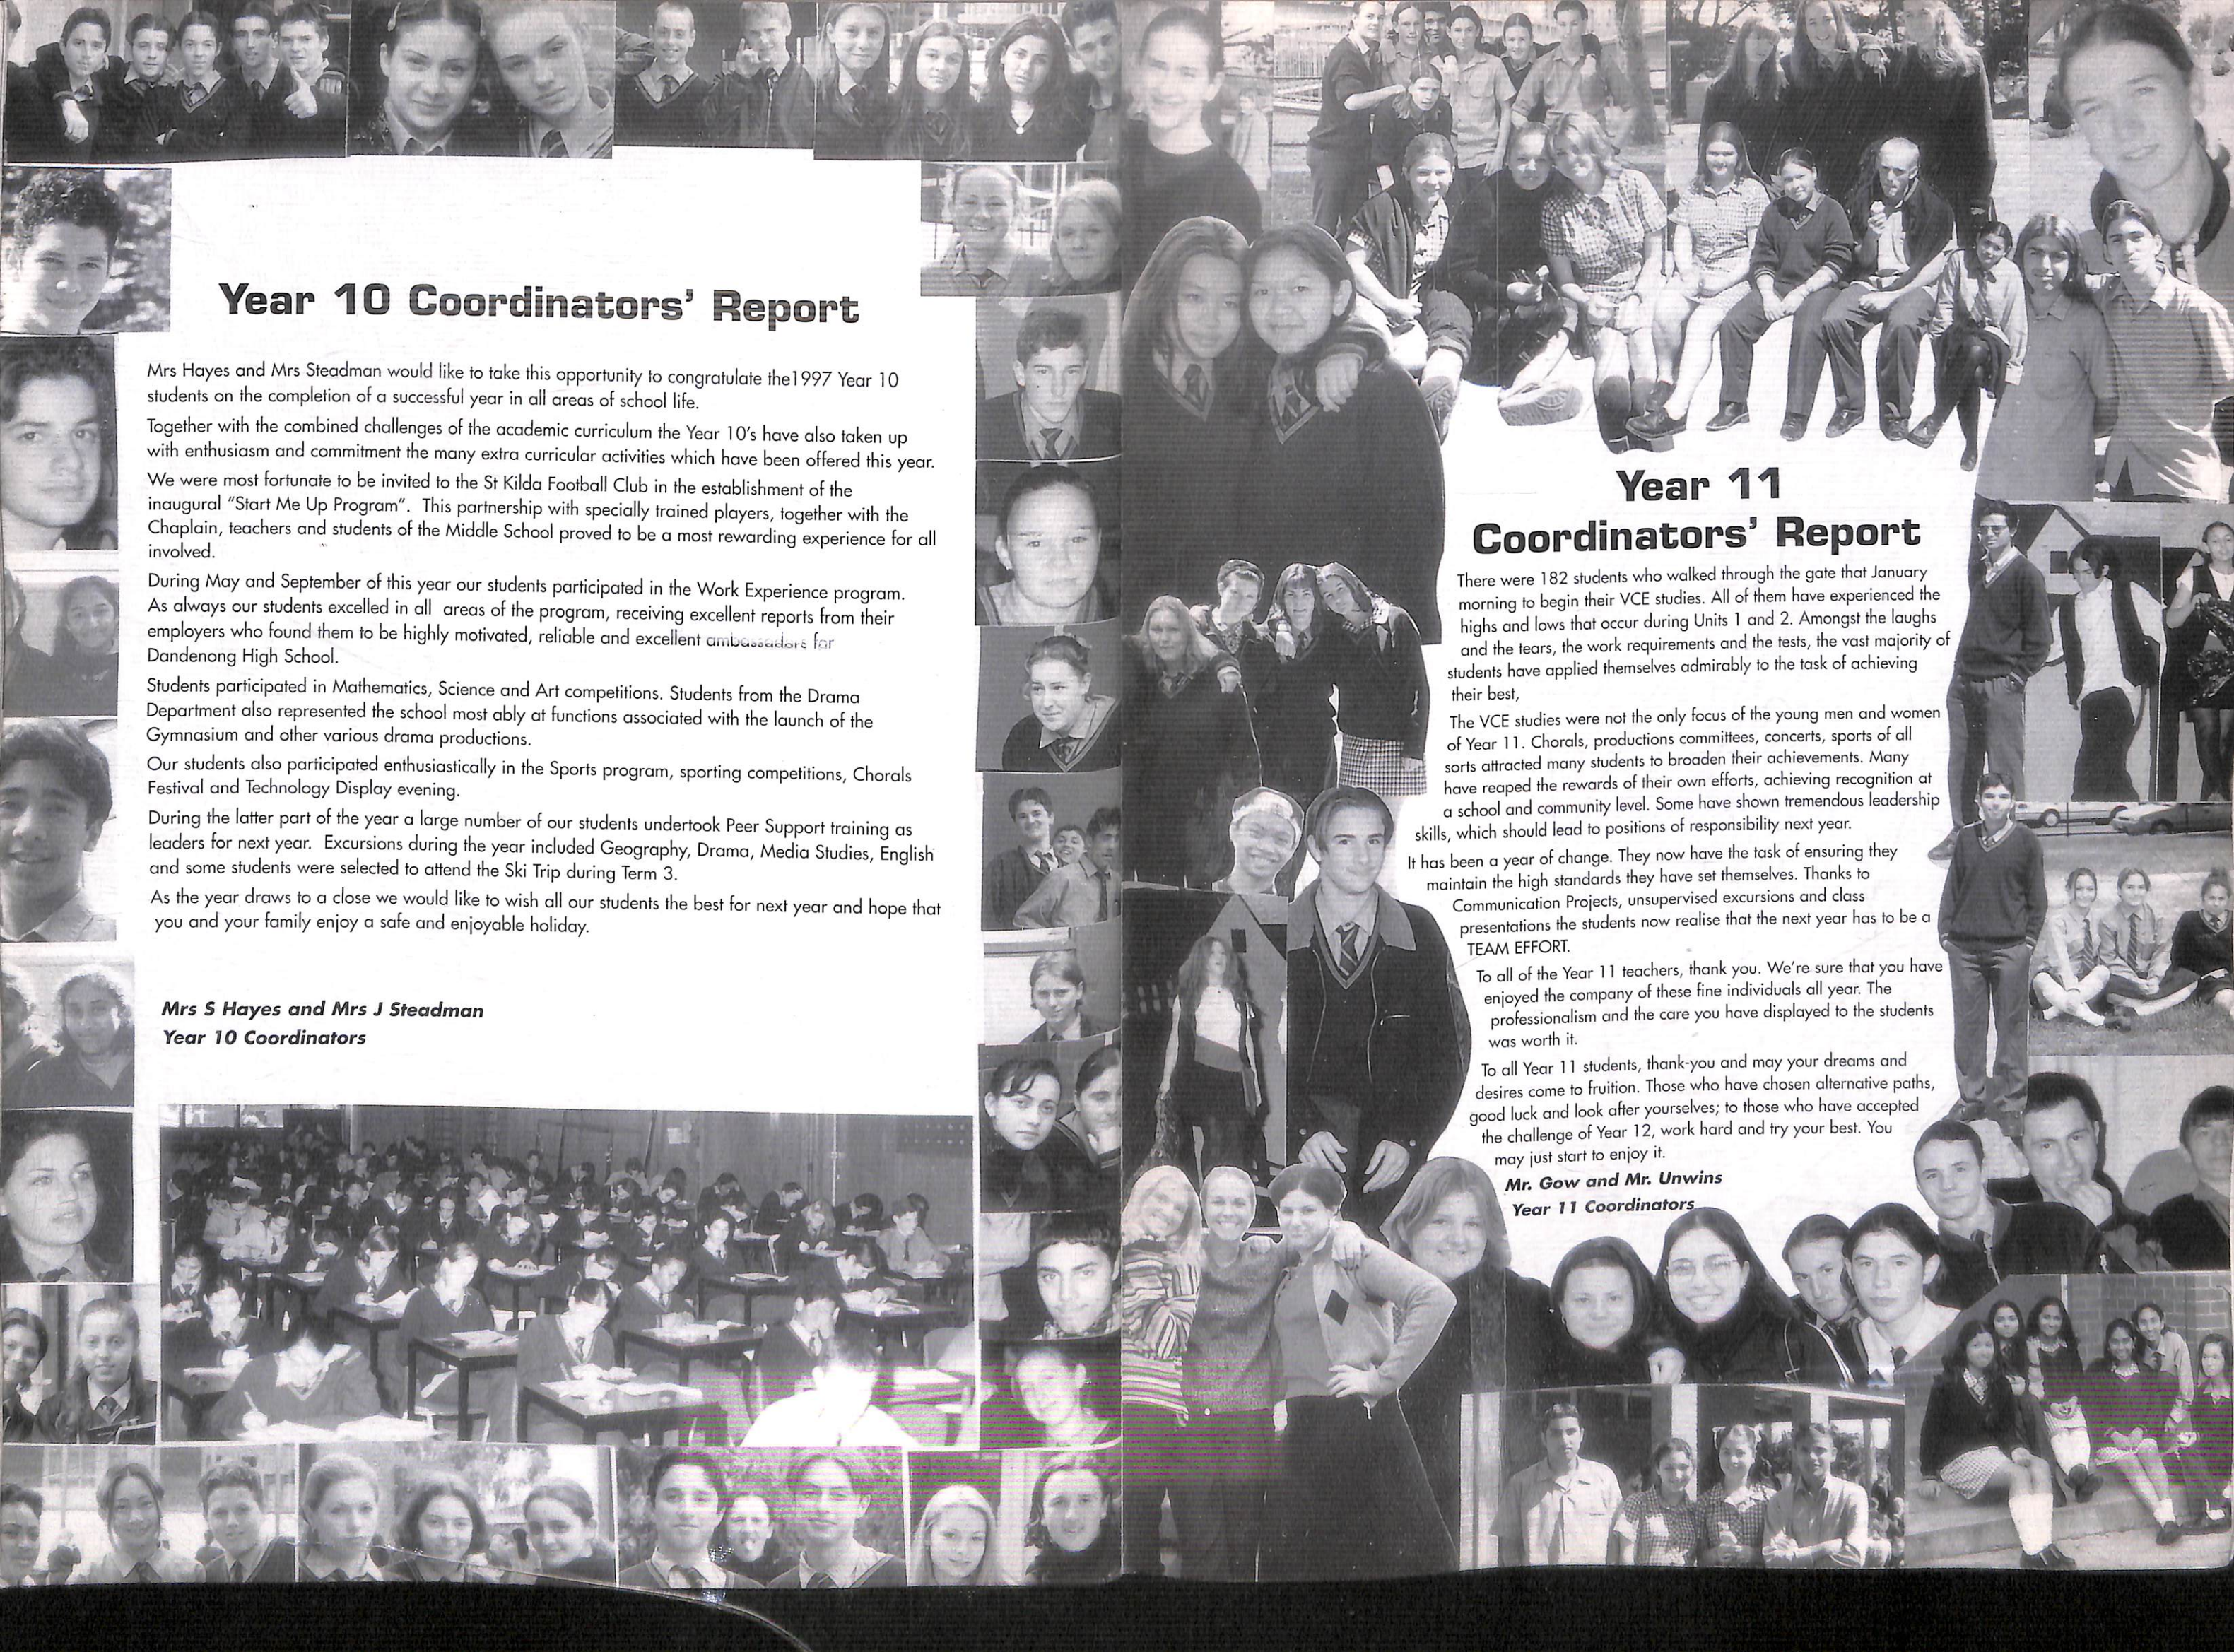

The VCE studies were not the only focus of the young men and women of Year 11. Chorals, productions committees, concerts, sports of all sorts attracted many students to broaden their achievements. Many have reaped the rewards of their own efforts, achieving recognition at a school and community level. Some have shown tremendous leadership skills, which should lead to positions of responsibility next year.

It has been a year of change. They now have the task of ensuring they maintain the high standards they have set themselves. Thanks to Communication Projects, unsupervised excursions and class presentations the students now realise that the next year has to be a TEAM EFFORT.

To all of the Year 11 teachers, thank you. We're sure that you have enjoyed the company of these fine individuals all year. The professionalism and the care you have displayed to the students was worth it.

To all Year 11 students, thank-you and may your dreams and desires come to fruition. Those who have chosen alternative paths, good luck and look after yourselves; to those who have accepted the challenge of Year 12, work hard and try your best. You may just start to enjoy it.

Year 12 Coordinators' Report

The year began as most do; eager students waiting in trepidation to face the challenges ahead of them. The hype of Year 12, the perceived life and death struggle to succeed had permeated their psyche.

The 'Long and Winding Road' seemed an apt description of what lay ahead for the 168 Year 12 students attending their first level assembly in February. Some were determined, fortified themselves for the battle ahead and travelled confidently along the freeway. Others began to wonder whether they had made the right decision to continue and as the year progressed found they had to negotiate may detours before arriving at their destination. Aunt Augusta (Travels With My Aunt) would argue that "It is the journey which is important, not the arrival", and many of the students have indeed worked hard to achieve their goals.

In fact 'participation' is the key word that springs to mind when describing the Class of '97. Whether it be debating, musical and dramatic performances, academic supremacy in the Maths and Sciences, sport at Zone level, representation in the wider community, our 12's have excelled beyond our expectations. This body of students has also been impressive in their ability to persist with their studies all year and have reaped the benefit of their hard work with very pleasing results. They have provided support and encouragement for each other and have worked collectively together as a team to rise successfully to the challenges posed by the VCE and for this we congratulate them.

But the year has not only been one of study. Fashion maintains its preoccupation for some. Ben tested the number of combinations and permutations in which a school uniform could be worn. Wesley defied the trend in his nostalgic 60's psychedelia on Casual Dress Day. Christina spent weeks looking for junior navy trousers to do her figure justice. Florin must have spent more hours manicuring his goatee than attending afternoon classes. David ran out of things to do with his hair and, to the intense pleasure of Mr Ward, finally cut most of it off. Unfortunately, Adam did not follow suit. Siva continues to sport his grandfather's brown cardigan. Geoff set new standards in footwear by wearing runners inside the shell of his shoes and Kerri has rivalled the window display at Tiffany's with her array of bijou. Ironically, the TAC step up its advertising campaigns just as the licence craze began in March. And of course the gaining of licences brought on the car craze. Car keys were flashed conspicuously, students huddled around raised bonnets; admiring, envious, and we, we had our work cut out for us chasing the many ensuing AWOL offenders.

However, as the year draws to an end, we would like to express our thanks on behalf all the students, to the committed and dedicated staff involved with Year 12. These professionals have worked tirelessly and with enthusiasm to help all students under their care to realise their full potential.

Lastly, although it has been a demanding and at times a stressful year, we feel privileged to have coordinated a group of students who have given so much of their time, effort and hearts to DHS. Thank you for your friendly dispositions, your cooperation and commitment. Our best wishes for prosperity and happiness in all future endeavours.
