Make a date with plaza

DANDENONG Plaza celebrates Ramadan with a free dates giveaway.

The plaza will be giving away free packs of dates at the information desk on Level 2, until June 14 or when stocks run out.

Ramadan is a time when those who follow the Muslim tradition abstain from food, drink and other pleasures from dusk til dawn. It is custom that dates are consumed to break the fast.

"Greater Dandenong is the most culturally diverse municipality in Australia and given that, celebrating Ramadan and other cultural festivals and events that are significant to our retailers, customers and local community is important to our centre," Dandenong Plaza Centre Manager, Mark Tanahill said.
