READING: 2 Corinthians 4:14,16-5:1

Reader: Kallan Dawson

raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side with us. Though our outer self may decay, our inner self is renewed day by day. Tribles are short-lived and soon over, and prepare us for the carrying of the greater weight of glory. Our eyes are not for the things that are visible and last only for a short time but for the invisible things that are eternal. For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens. The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

NSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 23

Reader: Kyel Shera-Jones

ed is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
nd green are the pastures where he gives me repose.
stful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.
e Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
les me along the right path; he is true to his name.
ld walk in the valley of darkness, no evil would I fear.
e Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
e prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
l you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.
e Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
odness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
rd's own house shall I dwell, for ever and ever.
e Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING: Wisdom 3:1-6,9

Reader: Leigh Shera-Jones

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them. In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die, their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us like destruction; but they are at peace. If they experienced punishment as we see it, their hope is rich with immortality; slight was their affliction; great will their blessings be. They have been put to the test and found worthy to be with God; tried and accepted like gold in a furnace. Those who trust in God will understand the truth, those who are faithful will live with God in love; for grace and mercy await those who are chosen. The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Acts of the Apostles 10:34-36,39,41-43

Fr. John

He who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. Though our outer self may decay, our inner self is renewed day by day. Our troubles are short-lived and soon over, and prepare us for the carrying of the greater weight of eternal glory. Our eyes are not for the things that are visible and last only for a short time but for the invisible things that are eternal. For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens. The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Reader: Liam Dawson

We pray that Noel be held securely in God's loving embrace, now and for all eternity.
We pray to the Lord.
All: Lord, hear our prayer.
We pray that the Lord, who blesses those who mourn, will give comfort and consolation to Noel's family and friends.
We pray to the Lord.
All: Lord, hear our prayer.
We pray for all of us assembled here to pray for Noel today. That we may be gathered together again, in God's kingdom.
We pray to the Lord.
All: Lord, hear our prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
