

MAGGIE'S BRIDLE

THE DANDENONG JOURNAL MAY 20, 2013 P.14

BEST IN BUSINESS

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Bouquet for bride shop

Maggie's Bridal Centre in Walker Street, Dandenong, has been named one of Victoria's top wedding designers. It was honoured for achievement in excellence at the 15th annual bridal industry awards on May 7.

About 350 wedding suppliers attended the festivities at Leonda by the Yarra.

The awards were voted on by 6000 past brides who rated their best wedding suppliers on quality of product, quality of service, value for money and attitude of staff who saw to their needs before, during and after their wedding day.

A total of 281 suppliers across 39 wedding categories qualified as finalists for the awards. Maggie's Bridal Centre was a finalist in the bridal gown boutique category.

Australian Bridal Industry Academy chairman John O'Meara said the wedding supplier was "unique in that they had just one unrepeatable day to deliver excellence in their products and services". He said the quality of their work, reflected in the votes, was something they could be proud of.

He said businesses like Maggie's Bridal Centre complemented and elevated the wedding industry with attention to detail, and the pride, passion and professional manner in which the wedding product was delivered to the bridal customer.

I do: Antoinetta, Christiane, Rihana, Heather, Roslyn and Jodie celebrate their success.

The recognition is extra special as Maggie's Bridal Centre celebrates 25 years in business this year.

For more information on the Australian Bridal Industry Academy, visit abia.com.au.