

For the site of the new supermarket, Woolworths have purchased $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land at the corner of McCrae and Clow Sts., for a figure in excess of £150,000.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 13, 1964

The intersection of Clow and McCrae Sts., showing the properties purchased for Woolworths Supermarket. The south-west corner of the council's produce market is on the left-hand side of the picture.

—Beaver Photographic