

LIVING IN AUSTRALIA—
ROBIN BOYD—PERGAMON
PRESS—$6.95.

Robin Boyd is an "architect of the home." He says, "Play a word-association game with the word 'architect.' The response of the average Australian is 'home.' And the same with the word 'living.' The answer is 'home.'" Australians are very involved in the concept of home—to quote Robin Boyd again, it's the place where they sleep and eat and rear children and watch telly and make cakes, tea and love—in private. This book gives an up-dated view of what's best in Australian homes and living styles.
