

5-5-66

GO-AHEAD ON OPERA HOUSE

All overseas consultants have agreed to continue work on the Sydney Opera House without Mr Joern Utzon.

The consultants indicated their willingness to continue at a conference in Sydney yesterday with the NSW Minister for Public Works, Mr Davis Hughes.

During the next week, decisions will be made on the basis of renegotiations of contracts with consultants.

Mr Hughes said this was necessary because some of the previous contracts were with Mr Utzon.