Dear John,

Robin Boyd: Australia's Home

I notice from your last sales return that your edition is out of print. What do you think about re-issuing it? We would welcome the idea of your reprinting on suitable terms, and will look forward to hearing your decision.

It is a distinguished work (in my personal opinion the best book he did) and if you have doubts about it for Penguin again we'd like at least to look at the chances of M.U.P. preparing another edition. It's a shame for it to be unavailable.

Best regards,

Peter Ryan.
