Dear Mrs. Boyd,

In 1988 we sought permission from Longman Cheshire Publishers to reproduce an extract from THE AUSTRALIAN UGLINESS by Robin Boyd. Permission was granted on condition that if there was a reprint of the book a further fee would be necessary. As the title is now out of print and the title reverted back to the author it is necessary for me to contact you with regard to reproducing the material in this reprint.

If you have any queries please contact me.

Many thanks!

Kindest Regards
