Dear Mark,

LIVING IN AUSTRALIA

I was delighted to receive today the paste-up of the book up to page 108.

The photographs and layout look marvellous and the photograph chosen for the cover is ideal I think.

However there will be one change necessary; on the spine we put the Pergamon Colophon, the Greek coin as at the head of this letter (repro sample enclosed) and not the words 'Pergamon Press'. We will therefore remove these words from the spine lettering and insert a colophon, which should line up with the top of the R of 'Robin Boyd' on the front of the jacket.

I am having the page numbers typeset in 10 pt univers. Some pages - e.g. 64, 66, 70 and 77 - have very little room for page numbers. However we can probably fiddle round with these when we are actually doing the final paste-up. I think it is essential to number as many text pages as possible, as none of the photographic pages will carry numbers.

I look forward to receiving the rest of the paste-up.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Sandra Forbes,
Senior Editor.
