Mr. Robin Boyd,
290 Walsh Street,
SOUTH YARRA.
Vic. 3141.

Dear Robin,

I attach a letter which I sent to Lord Casey today.

I did not write earlier because, believe it or not, Halstead Press who are printing the book had a walk-out and all last week their staff was on strike. However the men returned to work this morning and I now have had an assurance which, I hope, will stick, that the book will be ready for the time of the launching.

In any event I shall keep in touch with you and send you a copy of Casey's reply when it is received.

I don't suppose you have heard whether or not he is in Australia at present.

May I take this opportunity to thank you and Patricia most warmly for that extremely pleasant and stimulating evening I spent with you. I do hope that when Elisabeth is back in Sydney you will come and have dinner with us.

Fond regards,

Yours,

AF:n1
