Mr R. Boyd,
290 Walsh Street,
South Yarra,
VICTORIA. 3141.

Dear Robin,

I am writing briefly to sum up the main points of our conversation in Melbourne the other day.

We agreed to publish The Great, Great Australian Dream early in 1972 and you agreed to make some editorial revisions on the lines we have discussed. You have also kindly agreed to do a design for the book's dust-jacket as well as some small line drawings for each chapter heading.

I very much look forward now to receiving your revisions which, if my memory serves me right, should be due here in about a fortnight and after that it would be very helpful, I think, if you could come to Sydney for one day so that the final editorial decisions as well as format and production problems, for which we are retaining Jerry Mayer to advise us, can be fully discussed.

We will send you a contract in the normal way in due course. I feel quite certain that the book will be a success and enormously look forward to its appearance early next year.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Fabinyi.
