Dear Mrs Boyd

Would you be able to handle this request. I have not been able to find the original artwork for The Australian Ugliness in our storage area. I can only assume it was returned to the author. Penguin have passed on this request to us, so I assume they do not have the original artwork or photos.

If you were prepared to grant this request, and don't have the artwork, Mr Ball could have the original sketch on p.51 copied straight from his copy of the work, that is a bromide made from it. As for the photograph, if you have the original, it could be copied not too expensively. If not, I do not know what to suggest.

I hope this is some help to you. Please be in touch if I can be of further assistance.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir

REF; Request for use of illustrations from 'The Australian Ugliness' in a forthcoming book.

I am writing a book titled 'Australian Culture and How to Avoid it' and would like to use two illustrations from your book 'The Australian Ugliness!'. These are the 'Special' sketch on page 51 and the Arboraphobiaville picture included with the batch of photographs in the book. May I have your permission to reproduce these illustrations in my book. Also could you provide me with a negative of each? I will pay all costs involved. My book is in a similar vein to 'The Australian Ugliness' but deals more deeply with cultural aspects of Australian social behaviour and the economic possibilities resulting from this behaviour.

Thanking You

P.W. Ball
