MEMORANDUM , to R. B. from M. B.

PROJECT: Mr. W. R. Butler

DATE: 8th April, 1964

Mr. John Islip rang with following information on Butler, which he says he would be glad to enlarge on if requested:

Mr. Walter Richmond Butler:

born 1864 at Pensford, Somerset, England.

He served articles for four years in England.

He practised in Melbourne from 1889 to just before his death in Melbourne in 1949.

His practice at one stage was conducted under the title of 'Walter and Richard Butler', later 'W. & R. Butler and Martin', and later 'W. R. Butler'.

He became registered as an architect at the inception of the Architects Act of Victoria in 1923.

His wife's name was Millicent Butler (Mr. Islip is now sure whether she is still living).
