Dear Patricia,

Thank you so much for your card - and for putting me in line for a visit to the Australian Ballet! Creighton will be off to the West Coast for the last of the Binomings on June 1st. And the results will be the night the Ballet opens June 8th. Rather bad luck for them as their press coverage will be non-existent - but everyone is chasing Politics!!

I have been surprised, and how hurt, bitter and shattered the few Americans I've talked to - still are about Watergate! So the feeling I have, is that whoever gets the democratic nomination will be President. Creighton still thinks Ford can make it - on the "better the devil you know" train of thought. But we've still got the actual campaign to live through! I'm sure Carter will receive his hand from his heart (where he's had it saying, "Trust me!") and start waving

Additional message area

Watergate like a banner! Also helped by the 40 million Evangelists in this Country (a figure I find hard to swallow) - he'll manip in. As I've only been here five weeks I wouldn't know anyway! But we certainly have Politics 24 hrs a day, seven days a week!
Much love to you both - and Melbourne
