Dear Sir.

About 33 years ago the Pleasant St Methodist Church were given the Campbellfield Parsonage to demolish & use the timber to extend the kinder hall. The Mrs Blab took the job on.

This was after the Old Bluestone Church had been sold to Melbourne Day Services. We then started to demolish the Parsonage. Up in the ceiling I found this money box it is English timber. The old Murd was over 100 yrs.

I thought this might be added to the archives of the pioneer days of the northern suburbs as it is now.

Hoping this can be added to the collection

Yours truly.

W H Mc Wiggan.
