

DRESS AND REGALIA OF THE RAY SECTION OF THE METHODIST GIRLS' COMRADESHIP

=====

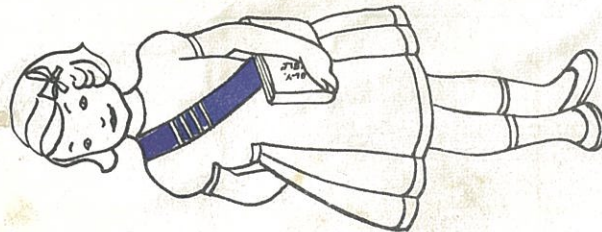

DRESS For ordinary Branch meetings there is no special uniform.

For Installations, Church Parades, and other special occasions uniform shall consist of white dresses, or grey skirt and white top (Winter).

No hats or overcoats are to be worn with uniform.

Winter Dress

Summer Dress

Chief Ray

Deputy Chief Ray

Deaconess Ray

Recording Ray

Receiving Ray

Companion Ray

Entrance Ray

Harmony Ray

Ray

Junior Ray

CHIEF RAY: Gold sash with gold fringed ends and "C. R." in satin stitch inside royal blue stem-stitched circle 2½ inches in diameter, with gold crown above.

DEPUTY CHIEF RAY: Same with "D. C. R." in satin stitch, not in circle, silver crown above.

DEACONESS RAY: Royal blue sash with four white bars worn in centre, and rosette of royal blue, white and gold.

RECORDING RAY: Royal blue sash, with three white bars worn in centre, and rosette of royal blue, white and gold.

RECEIVING RAY: Royal blue sash, with two white bars worn in centre, and rosette of royal blue, white and gold.

REGALIA

This is a 3 inch wide sash, worn over the right shoulder, and joined at the left side below the waist. (See diagram below).

It should be worn at all meetings, except where programme makes it impracticable.

COMPANION RAY: Royal blue sash, with half-inch white border, and three white bars worn in centre, and rosette in royal blue, white and gold.

ENTRANCE RAY: Royal blue sash with half-inch white border, two white bars worn in centre, and rosette in royal blue, white and gold.

HARMONY RAY: Royal blue sash with half-inch white border, one white bar worn in centre, and rosette in royal blue, white and gold.

RAYS: Royal blue sash with half-inch white border, joined at waist with rosette of royal blue, white and gold.

NOTE: In a church where there is a Junior Ray Branch, Regalia shall be as above, with a white "J" one and one-half inches long, embroidered above bars of office (if any) - see diagram.