FEB. 9th: Welcome to First Year Students

FEB. 17th: College Buildings Officially Opened

The new Teachers' College buildings were officially opened by the Minister of Education, Mr. Bloomfield, M.L.A.

Mr. T. W. H. Turner presided at the Opening, which was also attended by the retiring Director of Education, Maj.-Gen. A. H. Ramsay, and held at the main entrance of the buildings.

Present in the gathering were the principals of the other colleges, Messrs. Dudley Erwin, M.P.; Murray Byrne, M.L.C.; V. O. Dickie, M.L.C.; C. E. Brown, President of the Ballarat Shire; the Town Clerk, representing the Mayor, Cr. F. Oliver; and Mr. Earl G. Pearson, District Inspector.

Miss Monica Miller conducted the College Band and Choir in opening the Ceremony with the National Anthem, and closing it with the College Anthem.

Mr. Turner, in his welcoming address, expressed his appreciation of the buildings — their spaciousness and attractive surroundings, and on behalf of all associated with the College, thanked all those in the Public Works who were connected with its building.

Mr. Bloomfield, in addressing the students, spoke on the changes and developments in the profession, the spirit of teachers and the worthiness of the profession.

Major Ramsay expressed his appreciation of the building and congratulated the Education Department for providing such a fitting establishment for the young students.
