ANNUAL REPORT

OF

Adult Deaf and Dumb Society of Victoria

(INCORPORATED)

For the Year ending 31st March, 1911.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I bequeath the sum of £..... to the Treasurer for the time being of Adult Deaf and Dumb Society of Victoria, for the use of the said Society, for which the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge.

HON. F. S. GRIMWADE.—It is with great regret that the Committee place on record the death of the Hon. F. S. Grimwade, the President of the and was Society. He took a deep interest in its welfare a large contributor towards the proposed women's wing at the Blackburn Farm and Home.

MR. W. H. FELSTEAD.—The subscribers are to be congratulated that Mr. W. H. Felstead has consented to allow himself to be nominated as successor to Mr. Grimwade. His standing in the religious, business, and the social world is such that his connection with the Society will, of itself, serve to commend it in the eyes of the public.

HEADQUARTERS.—The Committee have every reason to be pleased with the work of the Society during the past year. The public have subscribed well to the funds. The behavior of the deaf mutes has given satisfaction and they are happy and contented. At present they are all in employment, owing no doubt to the general prosperity and the scarcity of labour of various kinds. Though their earnings are not all on a level with others who are in possession of all their faculties, it is a matter of satisfaction to the Committee that at least they are earning a livelihood, for unfortunately it is found that when business is dull the first to be dispensed with are those whose want of hearing makes it inconvenient to communicate with them.

The usual lectures, classes, and other gatherings have been held throughout the year at the Flinders-street building. The facilities there offered for instruction and recreation are as fully appreciated by the mutes as ever, and the expectations entertained by the promoters of the Society in its early years have been well fulfilled. The deaf mutes are trusted by the Committee to manage their own affairs under the supervision of the Superintendent. Thus they acquire the faculty of initiation and develop self-reliance. The Committee are glad to say that during the history of the Society this trust has been fully justified.

The appended report of the Deaf Committee, although it contains details of what probably appear to the public as very ordinary pleasures and unimportant events, shows to your Committee that the Society is answering the end for which it was formed by bringing happiness into the lives of those under its care. The deaf regard their building in Flinders-street, and the companionship which they find there, with much the same feeling as one who has been staying in a foreign country amongst strangers, with whom he is unable to converse, thinks of his native country when the time arrives to turn his steps homewards.

PROTECTION OF GIRLS.—The Chief Justice has lately commended the provision of a club or home where girls may find a counter attraction to the dangerous pleasure of walking about the streets and gardens in the evening, remarking that such an institution will be worth all the money spent on it. If these words are true in relation to the ordinary girl, much more do they apply to the deaf, whose deprivation means added ignorance of the pitfalls of youth. The subscribers may well derive satisfaction from their maintenance of an institution which the deaf girls find a manifest pleasure in frequenting.

BLACKBURN FARM AND HOME.—The establishment of the Flower Farm and Home for aged infirm and feeble-minded deaf mutes has largely extended the Society's operations, especially while in the initial stage of laying out, clearing and cultivating the farm, and finding a market for the flowers. The work requires all the care and attention that the Committee and the Superintendent can give to it. In fact the dual duty of supervising both the Flinders-street and Blackburn institutions is a considerable tax on Mr. Abraham's time and powers. In the performance of this duty he does not spare himself, but brings a whole-souled energy to the management of both branches. In laying out the Farm the Committee is fortunate in having the expert advice of its member, Mr. George Brown, the Curator of the Melbourne Public Parks and Gardens, and the assistance of Mr. G. G. Mercy, a member of considerable ability, and one who devotes a large amount of time to the various matters which are constantly requiring attention.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Since the last annual report a further portion of the Farm has been put under cultivation. The total area now cleared amounts to about thirteen acres.

WOMEN'S WING.—Donations towards the erection of the Women's Wing continue to come in slowly. The amount to the credit of this fund is £344, and a further £660 is required. The Committee feel confident that as soon as this sum is raised the income of the Society will enable them to house as many women as the new building will accommodate.

FLOWERS AND PICNICS.—During the year the Superintendent has sold flowers to the amount of £217, and it is hoped that the receipts from this source will regularly increase. Apart from the question of income this item has a special interest, for it is in the cultivation of flowers that the inmates find their chief interest in life, and the occupation of which is essential to the maintenance of their health. All can take part in this work, and the women will be able to render material assistance when their building is erected. A sum of £79 has been raised by catering for picnics and the hire of boats on the lake, and £57 has been received from the sale of firewood, and from the cane work done by one of the inmates who is both blind and deaf.

INMATES.—During the year twenty-six deaf mutes have been afforded a home at Blackburn. The number now accommodated there is seventeen, of whom thirteen are men and the remainder women. Nearly all have greatly improved during their residence at the Farm. Fresh air, good food, steady work, congenial companionship, and regular supervision have stimulated them mentally and strengthened them physically. Several deaf mutes of normal intelligence are employed in the clearing and flower cultivation, and those who have not their full mental capacity work with them. Under the example of the former, and the Superintendent's influence and control, those who were formerly somewhat intractable are becoming docile, and the lethargic are learning to be industrious.

MATRON.—The services of Mrs. E. J. D. Abraham, Matron of the Blackburn Home deserve special recognition. The duties properly belonging to her office have been performed by her in a manner eminently satisfactory to the Committee, and to the inmates whose comfort is so largely dependent on her ministrations. But she has not limited herself to the performance of those duties. The impossibility of obtaining qualified cooks and other domestic help for more than a few weeks at a time has thrown upon her a variety of work which the Committee have been loth to see her undertake, but she has taken it upon herself and carried the burden cheerfully. In addition she has, with the valuable aid of her daughter, catered for picnic parties, both in the grounds and in her own house. This service of itself has entailed a great expenditure of time and strength. It has been performed entirely voluntarily and as a labour of love, and with a desire to assist in making the Farm self-supporting. A sub-matron and domestic servant have now been obtained, who the Committee trust will stay for a reasonable time, and thus enable the Matron to confine herself to her own special functions.

MR. F. J. ROSE.—The Committee recommends this gentleman for election as a life governor of the Society. He was one of its founders under its former name of Adult Deaf and Dumb Mission, and the founder of the Victorian Deaf and Dumb Institution, of which he was the first Head Master. He is always present in his place at the Committee meetings, and has taken an active interest in the welfare of his fellow deaf mutes.

DR. CRAIG.—While the health of the inmates has been good on the whole, it is inevitable that there should have been a certain amount of sickness. Dr. Craig has kindly continued to act as Hon. Physician, and has on many occasions given medical advice and aid. This has made greater inroads on his time during the year than was anticipated, and the Committee record their gratitude to him.

FINANCES.—The finances of the Society are in a healthy condition. The collectors, who are all deaf mutes, have worked zealously, actuated by a desire to raise sufficient income for the maintenance of the women's department. They have not confined themselves to the wealthy section of the community, but have gathered in the ever welcome small subscriptions of those in modest circumstances, regardless of the trouble of collecting thus entailed upon themselves, and compensated by evoking the interest in the work which is naturally felt by every subscriber.

IMPOSTORS.—It has been reported to the Committee that amongst other impostors, there is one who is soliciting subscriptions in aid of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Asylum, and, it is believed, without any authority from any Deaf and Dumb Institution. So far as this Society is concerned the public are urged only to give contributions to those collectors who have the official printed authority and receipts of the Treasurer and Secretary.

APPRECIATION.—The management of the Farm and Home has required so much of the Superintendent's attention that it has been impossible for him to devote as much time as formerly to the work at headquarters. Fortunately there are several deaf mutes of great ability and intelligence who have devoted themselves to the interests of the deaf, so that there has been no neglect. Whilst it may seem invidious to make any special reference where many have given assistance, it is due to mention Mrs. J. E. Muir, who has made the training of young women her special care, and Messrs J. E. Muir and M. L. Miller, who have given practically all their leisure time to the work of the Society.

Welcome and valuable gifts of cows and other live stock and useful articles have been presented to the Society both by deaf mutes and hearing friends, particulars of which are subjoined.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.—The following remarks of the Superintendent are of interest:—

We have admitted to our home several deaf mutes, who, prior to their admission, were looked upon as incapable of being trained to profitable labour. It is with no small degree of satisfaction that we record success in every case admitted after but two years' training. Those who have hitherto lived lives of idleness, and the parents of whom had concluded that they would be lifelong burdens either to themselves or the public, are now profitably occupied, working with varying degrees of success, satisfaction, and pleasure to themselves, side by side with the few normal deaf mutes who are employed at the Farm as a standard for those under training.

In addition to the above and the women at the Home, we have two inmates who are blind and deaf. One contributes towards his maintenance by caning chairs and casing bottles. He is a great reader, and so with his love for his work and his love for his books he is content and even cheerful. The other case, however, is a very sad one, and the cause of much anxiety to the Superintendent and Matron. This man, who is fifty-six years of age, lost his hearing about three years ago and his sight only nine months back. His condition of mind is such that he has constantly to be watched and interested. It is sometimes necessary to sit with him for hours at a time listening to his talk and replying cheerfully. There are signs of improvement, and there is hope that before another year closes he may be drawn to take an interest in some work that will occupy his mind and make more bearable his dark and silent existence.

Most of the time of the deaf employees and inmates has been put to improvements, grubbing, clearing, and ploughing additional plots of land and laying same out in beds, making paths and draining the land. Much attention has also been given to the propagation work. At present we have about ten acres under cultivation.

The Committee at the outset purchased the stock of a nurseryman in a small way of business. To this has been added the stock of a small bulb farm consisting chiefly of daffodils of the better kind. There has been a natural increase in the quantity of bulbs first purchased. We have now ten thousand strawberry plants, and a large stock of chrysanthemums, dahlias, calliopsis, gaillardia, shasta daisy, picotees, marguerites, Michaelmas daisy, violets, gladioli, passion fruit, wattles, rose trees, carnations, marguerite carnations, antirrhinum, delphinium, canterbury bells, sweet peas, wallflowers, cornflowers, everlasting sweet peas, arum lilies, ranunculus, winter sweet peas, tuberose, ericas, boronia, agapanthus, and primroses, besides a few fruit trees, bushes, and rhubarb for culinary purposes. We shall therefore be able to put a regular supply of flowers on the market.

IN CONCLUSION.—The Committee record their thankfulness for the continued prosperity and useful work of the Society, and their confidence that with the blessing of God it may continue to be of service to the afflicted ones who are the subjects of its care.

By order of the Committee,

H. SUMNER MARTIN,
Hon. Sec.

EXTRACTS FROM TWENTY-THIRD

Annual Report of the Deaf Committee.

APRIL, 1911.

To the Members, Ladies and Gentlemen.

THE DEAF COMMITTEE of the Adult Deaf and Dumb Society have the honour to present to you the Annual Report and Balance-Sheet for the year ended 31st March, 1911, together with the record of the doings of the members of the Congregation.

COMMITTEE.—It is a matter of gratification to record the cordial relations existing between the general board and the Congregation, and your Committee thank the board for their many acts of kindness during the year.

DIVINE SERVICE.—Divine services have been held every morning and evening throughout the year. Mr. E. J. D. Abrahams has carried out the duties of a chaplain up to the present time with entire satisfaction to the Committee and with great benefit to the deaf. In his absence, through illness and holidays, Messrs. M. L. Miller, J. E. Muir, W. P. Muir, R. H. Luff, F. J. Rose, and R. R. Paterson (ex-missionary) officiated.

An interesting feature of these services during many years past, has been the attendance of two blind and deaf friends, and the great delight they have evinced in being able intelligently to participate in the public worship of God. It is the custom of some sighted deaf person sitting next to blind and deaf persons to translate on the fingers of the blind all that is said.

The attendances at the services have been well maintained, especially in the evening. There has been a satisfactory increase in the attendance at the morning services. The average attendance was morning twenty-three, evening fifty. The Lord's Supper was administered on four occasions; the average number of communicants was twenty.

On the 7th and 14th of May, memorial services of the late King Edward VII. were held. On the 19th March, for the seventh time, a Harvest Thanksgiving service was held, the church being nicely decorated with flowers, fruit, vegetables, &c., presented by the deaf members, to whom our best thanks are due.

BIBLE CLASSES.—Bible classes have been conducted by our chaplain every Thursday for nine months of the twelve. New interest has been awakened in the night meetings by the introduction, at the close of the prayers and Bible readings, of a series of special addresses by Mr. Abraham. During his only absence at these classes, Mr. M. L. Miller had charge.

COLLECTIONS, &c.—The total amount of contributions for the year reached £50 3s. 10d. Envelope system, £29 8s. 5d.; ordinary collections, £11 9s. 11d., and private contributions among the deaf, £9 5s. 6d. £5 10s. 3d. was collected in aid of the Hospital Sunday Fund.

EDUCATIONAL.—During the past twelve months the Superintendent delivered six lectures upon a variety of topics. They were well attended and proved very instructive.

OUR SUPT.-CHAPLAIN.—To have such a live gentleman as your Superintendent at the helm of affairs must be as great a source of infinite gratification and pleasure to the members as it is to your Committee, and they would be failing in their duty if they did not place on record their high appreciation of his efforts to place the Society in the forefront of the deaf world. The meetings and details connected with your Society, to which your Superintendent devotes his time together with his invaluable advice, which is always at the service of your members, accounts in a great measure for the position your Society to-day occupies.

RALLY.—Members are entertained quarterly in the building at a social evening which materially assists in cementing the good fellowship existing between them. The younger members who have recently left school, help to make these evenings more enjoyable, and the members, old and young, by coming more closely in touch with one another produce a spirit of comradeship which will bear fruit in the future. Formerly these rallies were under the direct supervision and auspices of the Sub-Committee of the Congregation. With the object of fostering a deeper interest and imparting of knowledge of management, the Committee decided to permit the various guilds, &c. connected with the Society to supervise the arrangement of the rallies in rotation. It is gratifying to note that this object proved successful. These evenings were spent in parlour games, entertainments, and social intercourse.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.—The generous donation of £10 from Mr. M. L. Miller has brought to our Library 101 new books. Another splendid gift of forty-five books from Mr. A. Williamson, who has for many years been a most generous donor to our Library. Several small gifts from other donors were also added. There are 1216 books in our possession at present. Hearty thanks are tendered to these generous friends. To your old Librarian, Mr. M. G. B. Mortimer, we have once more to offer our grateful thanks for the able manner in which he conducts the arrangements of the Library. Messrs. S. Moss, A. Hull, and J. Marks are deserving of thanks for the satisfactory manner in which they carried out their duties to the Hon. Librarian.

SATURDAY GATHERINGS.—To the younger members the Saturday Night gatherings are the most attractive feature of the Society. The interest taken in the games competitions of the winter has grown very keen among the members.

PICNIC.—A most pleasant outing to Lake Park, Blackburn, was experienced by those that took part in the annual Cup Day picnic on the 1st November, the number being about seventy. Mrs. Abraham undertook the catering, and all who partook expressed themselves as highly pleased with the spreads. The poorer members were well looked after by the Sub-Committee. Prizes donated by several deaf friends and the Chaplain were distributed to the winners.

OUR MONTHLY LETTER.—With this issue we enter upon our seventh year, and are now printing 400 copies monthly. We are indebted to Messrs. M. L. Miller and J. E. Muir and Mrs. J. E. Muir for the writing of the lithographic transfers throughout the year, and our hearty thanks are tendered to these workers. Mr. E. R. W. Smith resigned the position of a writer, which he has fulfilled in a capable and efficient manner for the last six years. He has our best thanks for his past valuable services. It is gratifying to note that Miss F. Grimwade and Mr. R. R. Paterson subscribed £1 1s. and £1 respectively to the fund of this Letter and also a good number of subscribers were added.

MR. M. L. MILLER.—Most of our deaf members respond in accord with their means toward the maintenance of the Institute in Flinders-street East. Some take an exceptional interest, year after year contributing handsomely not only to the general fund, but to the many incidental efforts. Among these may be mentioned Miss A. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Muir, Mr. W. A. Paterson, and our most generous friend Mr. M. L. Miller. This gentleman undertakes the heaviest honorary duties, and his gifts to the work are appreciated, not only for their largeness and frequency, but also for the sign of approval they carry with them of the administration of the Society, for no one has a better knowledge of the inner working of the Society than he. During the past year Mr. M. L. Miller has donated £21 to the Sub-Committee Fund. Mr. Miller has also presented the Farm with a cow. We are greatly indebted to this gentleman for the valuable assistance rendered at all times, and desire to convey to him our sincere thanks for his splendid gift.

WOMEN'S GUILD.—The work of the above guild has continued during the past twelve months with the usual three months summer vacation. With an average attendance of sixteen members interesting evenings have been spent. Bible classes, educational classes, and lectures are given in rotation.

MEN'S GUILD.—The progress made by the guild was of a very satisfactory nature during the past twelve months. The number of members on the roll is twenty-three. Sixteen ordinary meetings were held, and the members have greatly profited by the lectures given to the various subjects discussed.

BANK.—The outing fund and bank is keeping up satisfactorily. There are at present on the books thirty-four depositors, and to their credit stands the sum of £60. Mr. R. H. Luff devotes an evening weekly to this special branch of the work. He is assisted by Mr. M. G. Mortimer.

CRICKET.—It is gratifying to record that the Adult Deaf Cricket Club is still going well. Fifteen games were played, eight won, six lost, and one drawn.

BIRTHS AND MARRIAGES.—There have been six births and one marriage.

In conclusion, your Committee rejoice at being in a position to state that they have worked together with the utmost harmony and with the keenest desire to serve the best interests of the Congregation. Their thanks are tendered to the members for their loyal support, and it only remains for the same happy relations to continue to make the coming year one of much success and general prosperity.

Your Committee desire to record their gratitude to Almighty God for the great blessings and mercies of another year and for the past success of our work. We pray for its continued usefulness, trusting that the Society will go on prospering.

J. E. MUIR,
Hon. Sec.

SUB-COMMITTEE.—Chairman, Mr. E. J. D. Abraham; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. W. P. Muir; Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. E. Muir; Committee, Messrs. M. L. Miller, F. E. Frewin, R. H. Luff, M. G. Mortimer, T. A. Nelson, J. McLean, S. Moss; Hon. Librarian, Mr. M. G. Mortimer; Assistants, Messrs. A. Hull and J. Marks.
