PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On this, the Sixty-First Year of the Society, we are able, through divine providence, to enjoy once more the blessings of peace, for which we have striven throughout the long years of war. The coming of peace does not, however, lessen the work in which we are engaged, but I feel sure that with the splendid help of our many good friends who have enabled us to carry on the work, at times most difficult, and to whom the grateful thanks of the Society are accorded, we shall be able to go forward with our plans for the further benefit of our community.

Form of Bequest

I bequeath the sum of £ : to the Treasurer for the time being of the ADULT DEAF AND DUMB SOCIETY OF VICTORIA, JOLIMONT SQUARE, MELBOURNE EAST, for the use of the said Society, for which the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge.

The Society's work must go on year in and year out. To do this the Board of Management has laid long distance plans for the development and well being of the Deaf.

These plans will be possible only by the help of our friends—that is why we suggest that you be good enough to remember this Society when planning your personal affairs.

We would like to emphasise that this Society has no connection whatever with any other organization and is almost wholly dependent upon voluntary subscriptions for its upkeep.

SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Adult Deaf and Dumb Society OF VICTORIA (Incorporated)

In submitting this, the sixty-first Annual Report, the Society places on record its great joy that Peace with Victory has been accorded to the Allied cause, and that it will assure to all liberty-loving peoples the power to develop along the lines of mutual welfare.

The Society's Board of Management is under no illusion but that the future is one of hard work and patience in its endeavour to reach the goal ahead—particularly when we realise that five long years have passed in which restrictions were imposed in order that everything might be devoted to the war effort.

AIMS

Realising that the Deaf and Dumb form a definite class, isolated by reason of their lack of power to hear and converse in the usual way—and that this position of isolation will continue—it becomes a most urgent matter that special efforts should be made for education, training, employment; and that social and religious activities be encouraged during the difficult years ahead.

It is the aim of the Adult Deaf and Dumb Society to provide these facilities where they do not already exist and where they are already in operation (and many are) to consistently improve and extend them to embrace every one of these doubly-afflicted persons. Not the least important part of this work is the desirability for complete liaison between the Deaf and Dumb Institution for Children and this Society, in order that no break occurs between the period of their early training up to the age of 16 and our continuance during adult age—a period that is probably the most important in any person's life, the more so in the deaf and dumb.

The work now being done is of considerable importance in the national scheme of social welfare. Neither the deaf and dumb nor the deafened can be included in any general scheme for the people as a whole, since their affliction creates peculiar difficulties, which have been shown to require special provision for their easement. It is equally to the economic interests of the community and to the deaf as a class that the work should be encouraged and assisted, and therefore it is an entirely reasonable aspiration that this should be helped by the Government and the local authorities in order to equip them adequately for the part they fill, and must increasingly fill, in the national scheme of social welfare.

CHURCH

The Church is, and will always be, the greatest incentive to the joy of living—in our Christian Empire it is the great Rock to which we cling—and so, too, with the Deaf—their Church—standing in the centre of Jolimont Square—is of paramount importance, for no class has greater need of the consolation and sustaining powers of the Christian Faith. Divine Services in the sign language are conducted every Sunday, and Prayer and Lesson each Thursday evening. During the year, our Church being undenominational, Ministers and Lay Preachers of various denominations, officiate, the Service being interpreted by the Missioner.

EMPLOYMENT

During the war period the Deaf played a very honorable part in the war effort, by their consistent attention to work—but it is realised by all that the future will bring its problems and difficulties. The Society has appealed to a large number of employers to place deaf adults in their factory or workshop, and whilst sympathy has been shown with this objective, many are not in a position to implement the idea—chiefly because of commitments to returning staff—and inability to forecast the future so early in the new born era of Peace.

One of the biggest problems is the young man or woman without sufficient experience in trades, and those who have never had a chance to learn a trade—although the deaf have proved their ability in a number of specialized trades.

The Society maintains a register of employers and employees together with the requirements of the former and the ability of the latter. The Welfare Officer always accompanies the deaf person when seeking employment in order to interpret the conversation so that both parties may have complete understanding.

CITIZENSHIP

The Deaf and Dumb as a whole, are eager to shoulder their share of the responsibilities of citizenship. They ask for the opportunity to make good, and maintain themselves, under conditions that will make possible the enjoyment of life in the same manner as hearing people.

THE CENTRE

Situated in Jolimont Square it is open daily—and comprises the administrative building, institute, church, vocational and recreational facilities. It is also the headquarters of the Welfare Superintendent-Missioner and his staff. Provisions include Assembly Hall, Library, Billiards, Games, Reading-rooms, etc. Most social activities take place here, such as Dramatic performances in the gesture language—Thursday evenings are mostly picture nights or talks and discussions on interesting subjects, whilst on most Saturday evenings some attractive social event is provided.

SPECIAL CASES

Many of the duties of officers of this Society are of a confidential nature, calling for advice and assistance in private and/or family matters. Some cases demand weeks of careful attention and masses of detail—it is only possible to carry on this very important work by observing the strictest privacy. This service is one of inestimable value, without which it would be well nigh impossible to maintain the link between the deaf and the normal world—in fact even between the deaf themselves. Other matters require special consideration and attention.

INDIVIDUAL CASES

Officers of the Society arrange for country visitors, meet trains, arrange accommodation, attend sick or stranded folk, conduct interviews between Doctors, Dentists, Oculists, etc. Negotiations in such cases as insurance, assurance, taxation, matrimony, legal matters, admissions to hospitals, accidents, domestic worries, are but a few of the many and varied activities of the Society's Officers.

INTERPRETING

This is a very essential and important branch of the Society's work—no contact can take place between the deaf and hearing people without this all-essential link. Perhaps some idea of its importance can be appreciated by the following records compiled for the past year and requiring the services of the Interpreter.

Employment and Manpower	62
Legal, personal and business	37
Hospital—Institutional and Home Visits . . .	300
Taxation Details	30
Court Attendance	8
Wedding, Funerals, Baptism	18

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S GUILDS

The Guilds meet regularly—aiming at all times towards harmony of thought and endeavour, and a better understanding of life. It is their privilege to conduct their own Guild but they do invite others to meet and discuss with them problems of the day. The Ladies' Guild is generally responsible for refreshments served at the various social gatherings.

DEAF COMMITTEE

The Deaf elect their own Committee, whilst the Board of Management appoint representatives (hearing) to the Deaf Committee. In turn the Deaf also elect certain of their members to the General Board—in this way both are able to maintain a close liaison, thus assuring quick attention to all matters of importance, and a very high degree of harmony at all times.

The Board of Management acknowledges the invaluable assistance given by the Deaf Committee in the matter of supervision of various sub-committees and the direction of many inner activities.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

It would be a poor world were there no relaxation—therefore an important part of the Society's programme is the fostering of everything good and healthy, in sport, and relaxation. The Society sees that each and every member has a choice according to ability, powers or inclination of: Dramatic Art, Chess, Cricket, Tennis, Lacrosse, Basketball, Dancing, Lectures, Picture Nights.

HOSTELS

The Society long ago laid down a plan designed for the improvement and advancement of the Deaf—among the more important items is a Hostel or Hostels designed to cover the needs of our community. Jolimont is obviously the ideal spot for such a centre in which we could house—under proper supervision—some 20 or 30 people under the best community conditions possible—but with self-contained rooms for each—and at a reasonable charge. This will cost money, perhaps a great deal of money in the post-war period, but whatever its cost it should be met in order to accommodate the ever-increasing number who need such amenities and, also to relieve the Society of anxiety when our people desiring accommodation arrive in Melbourne from country centres.

SAVINGS GROUP

During the year the various war loan appeals were well supported—whilst bank deposits over withdrawals show a credit balance of £756/1/-.

WAR ACTIVITIES

These have to some extent slowed down except for such appeals as the Red Cross—whose work must go on for a long time yet—the effort over the past five years has been very good and members' work has been appreciated by all concerned.

OUR HOME AT BLACKBURN

Blackburn is for those deaf and dumb citizens who are aged, infirm, blind or mentally defective or unable by reason of these or other extra handicaps to support themselves. Unfortunately to be deaf does not necessarily make one immune to other afflictions. The Home—and a Home it is—offers a haven where these people find comfort, shelter and care. It accommodates both sexes and is the result of a number of logical ideas put into practice and proven over a number of years. The multi-afflicted present a definite problem and unless it is studied carefully and sympathetically treated could cause the afflicted person much anguish and even worse hurt, therefore, for this reason alone years of careful study have been devoted to this particular work in order to discover the most helpful methods of treatment. Kindness and patience to the inmates brings a ready response, and the atmosphere in general is a happy one. Remembering this whole community cannot speak or hear one word as we do, but must use signs to make their desires and wishes known, whilst those who are also blind must develop a sense of touch in order to converse at all, thereby making almost every case its own problem. These afflictions, of themselves very distressing, cease to be "difficult" when in such a Home as Blackburn, where they are with friends learning to overcome their handicaps, and where the feeling is one of friendly helpfulness among themselves, fostered by a kindly Superintendent and Matron to whom they can turn for guidance whenever it is required.

Many occupations are indulged in such as sewing, growing flowers, vegetables, fruit, care of poultry, whilst some are keen on domestic duties of the more simple tasks, but each is encouraged to do something and so the general feeling of "my home" is maintained.

It is not too much to say that the Home becomes the most important place in their small universe, and it would be hard to realize just what would happen to them without this haven of sympathy and understanding.

This high standard has not easily been attained, nor is it maintained without a struggle—during past years because we lacked manpower—still, because we cannot secure our full requirements, but in spite of this our efficient and understanding Home Superintendent and Matron face the fact and carry on knowing that about forty patients depend on their effort for 365 days per year.

INVITATION

To our many subscribers who are not familiar with Blackburn, we extend a very hearty invitation to visit the Home at any time in order that they may see for themselves that any donation, etc., they may give is put to the best possible use.

GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS ARE MADE TO—

Miss Alice Graham—To whom we are indebted for continued generous financial assistance. Miss Graham's express desire that relief be given where most needed is carried out faithfully and we are sure the people so helped are appreciative, as is the Board for such help.

Rev. F. A. Hagenauer—For yet another year of willing, friendly service to our Society.

Rev. John Frewin, M.A.—For conducting services during the past year and so bringing great joy and comfort to our people.

Mr. Ludbrook, of Balarat—For another year of co-operation and help. We hope that travel will not be so difficult during the coming year and that our personal contact will be closer.

Misses C. & B. Monahan—For adding another year of fine effort and service to the Deaf of Geelong.

Lecturers and Speakers on Thursdays of Each Week—This is a great service rendered by so many—at their own expense—supplying the necessary petrol and transport. Members of the Board and of the Society are most appreciative.

Dr. Selwyn Sutton—To whom our thanks are due for his unfailing help and work on behalf of the patients. During this year every patient has been examined. Also to Mrs. Sutton for her many kindnesses.

The Blackburn Home Auxiliary—To its members for gifts and many added comforts for the Christmas Party at the Home.

Blackburn Masonic Lodge—For their thoughtfulness and continued remembrance of their less fortunate brothers and sisters. The picture nights and suppers are much appreciated by all.

Mitcham Masonic Lodge—For their continued sympathetic consideration and help in our work at Blackburn.

Miss Elsie Dower—For the loan of her cottage at Mornington in order that the patients at Blackburn might have a holiday at the sea.

Mr. A. E. Saynor—For many kindnesses and donations throughout the past year.

To the many Companies who made donations at Christmas time, thereby bringing much pleasure into the lives of the patients at the Home.

Headquarters and Home Staff—Our Superintendents report a year of good work, fine fellowship and loyal co-operation by all staff and committees. The year was not without difficulties and some disappointments, which however have been surmounted.

SUBSCRIBERS

The Board of Management records with gratitude its appreciation of the financial assistance and gifts in kind so generously given by subscribers and friends during the past year. It is encouraging to note that in spite of heavy calls for many fine causes and heavy taxation the response to our cause was excellent. We are indeed grateful.

On behalf of the Board of Management,

H. BEDGGOOD, Chairman.

C. R. B. JAMES, Hon. Secretary.

Extracts from the

SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEAF COMMITTEE

Ladies and Gentlemen,

In submitting the year's report, I have pleasure in recording that much important and beneficial work in Social and Welfare activities at the Centre has been accomplished and that, in spite of manpower shortage and the smallness of our Assembly Hall, we are steadily progressing onward.

The lectures, lantern slides and cinema shows on Thursday evenings were very popular and the Committee expresses its appreciation that the pictures screened were of a very high standard, and is confident that this high standard will be maintained. It is recognised that the valued services rendered by the members of the General Board, whose aim has always been to further our cause, has been in a large measure responsible for the success of these evenings. Therefore we record our appreciation and thanks for their services.

Divine Services were conducted throughout the year by Mr. Reynolds and in his absence by Mr. J. M. Johnston.

We were fortunate in securing Rev. J. Frewin to conduct three Communion Services and there were four baptisms of children of our members conducted at our Church, and four at various other churches.

Thursday evening meetings, Quarterly Rallies, Dances and Saturday Evening Recreation gatherings continued to attract large attendances.

The Lacrosse Club.—The Committee expresses its delight that the Club went through the past season with flying honours and won the Premiership in the "B" section. The Club reports sterner opposition this season having been elevated to No. 1 section and playing against more experienced clubs, but is proud to report that sportsmanship among the players is of the same high standard as in the past.

Basketball.—The Girls' Basketball had a fairly successful year and the players are zealous as ever.

Tennis.—The Tennis Club reports that the season's activities were similar to that of last year and will probably do better in the warmer weather.

Chess.—The Chess Club is still doing well, the membership being twenty-four and the President, Mr. Edwin Johnson. The 1944 Tournament was again successful and the 1945 Tournament is well patronised.

The Cricket Club.—Enjoyed a very successful season although the Premiership honours were snatched from their grasp in the semi-final match against Preservene Social. Our boys played in a creditable and sportsmanlike manner.

The Men's Guild is still repeating much good work.

The Women's Guild has had a successful year and to them our thanks are due for their assistance with the catering, etc., at our various functions.

"Talkabout".—We are pleased to report that the "Talkabout" is now a regular monthly edition and is appreciated by one and all. It is the desire of the Committee to thank all for their continued support.

One of the happiest events of the year was the Xmas treat to the children of Deaf parents, by the Women's Guild. A wonderful contribution of toys made and donated by some members of the congregation. Toys were also received from the Sun Pictorial Toy Fund.

Our thanks to Miss G. Peters for her voluntary work with the floral decorations of our Church. Also thanks to Mr. Fred Bell for acting as M.C. at our dances.

We are pleased to report that the Society has recently purchased a piano. We are fortunate to have such an asset as this, which is the result of the efforts of Mr. Bell and our many hearing and deaf friends who are regular patrons at our dances.

In conclusion, the Deaf Committee wishes to express its grateful thanks to all Clubs for their support in the matter of holding socials for the Society's funds, and sincerely thanks all others who have in any manner co-operated with them in enabling the Committee to carry out a successful year of work.

J. HUNT, Honorary Secretary to Deaf Committee.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS IN WHICH ALL CAN HELP THE DEAF AND DUMB.

It is as well to remember that these people are handicapped because, in addition to other disabilities, they

Cannot hear—Music or Song

The Spoken Word

Radio, Talkies, Telephone.

To fill these blanks it is the Society's endeavour to promote a better understanding between the Deaf and Dumb and the general community. To do this we need constant help and suggest hereunder a few ways to achieve this.
