

MISS ALICE GRAHAM.

It is with pleasure we present our readers with a portrait of our fairy godmother, Miss Alice Graham, who has again waved her magic wand to help those of her fellow Deaf who are finding the present unemployment condition a little too much for them to battle against.

For years past Miss Graham has in a quiet way assisted many and helped the various activities of our society very generously, but now her munificence has assumed such large dimensions that her benevolence can no longer be hid.

One of Miss Graham's greatly appreciated gifts is the beautiful furnishings of the Sanctuary of our new church and the cost of the upkeep of the church lawn and garden. Another very useful gift is a motor waggon, used by the unemployed in an effort to make a living by the sale of goods during the depression. It has also been of service to our society in other useful ways, and now Miss Graham is giving for a period the sum of £25 monthly for distribution by our Principal to deserving cases in relief and relief-employment to the Deaf of both sexes.

We cannot express in words the gratitude we feel toward Miss Graham, nor do we know just how to thank her. Already her thoughtful kindness and timely generosity has brought comfort and consolation to many participants, who will doubtless in their own way let Miss Graham know how much they appreciate her interest in them.

A PARTY OF THREE.

There were three of us, Fred Kendall, Maurice Marks and yours truly, set out to spend our Christmas holidays camping. Our destination was Lorne, and we travelled via Geelong and Anglesea along the Great Ocean Road by motor car, and enjoyed the scenic, rugged hilly country. The Great Ocean Road, which has just been completed, in these parts is one of the most popular roads in Victoria, for it runs along the coast line from Anglesea to Apollo Bay and probably further.

We arrived at Lorne after a four hours' good trip from Melbourne, and set out immediately to search for a good spot for camping and settled on one near the Erskine River. We pitched our tent without difficulty, and soon had everything in place. We made a very comfortable bed of ferns and stuffed ferns into knapsacks for pillows. The camping area was crowded. There must have been some sixty parties. We spent the first few days exploring the township and the beach with a good part of the time in the water. The beach is a long, delightful one, an ideal landing and hopping off place for aeroplanes. There was an aeroplane at our camping place and many people had flights, the fare being 5/- and 10/-.

We had several long walks, visiting many beautiful places, including the Erskine Falls, Splitter's Falls, St. George and Cumberland Rivers. We also walked to the Teddy Lookout, where we obtained a magnificent view of Lorne and its surroundings. We admired the scenery around Lorne so much that we hope to pay another visit to the district. Camping keeps one pretty busy. What with the making of fires, cooking the meals and doing the washing. In the latter ordeal we made a great discovery: we found it a terrific task trying to wash our shirts as white as our mothers always do.

Our neighbors were very friendly. When we camped at Geelong they took us in their cars through the city and suburbs, and we were much impressed by the buildings of the city and industrial works, such as Ford's Motor Works and the Woollen Mills. We visited some of the Geelong deaf, including the Henessey brothers and Len Ashley: they looked the picture of health. We reached home on the 9th January, very contented with our camping experiences.

After two days in Melbourne I spent a most enjoyable week with my parents at Warburton, when deaf friends there kindly took me to see some of Warburton's beauty spots.

MARRIAGES OF THE DEAF.

The Rev. F. W. G. Gilby recently officiated at a wedding of a deaf and dumb couple, and immediately after the event received an anonymous postcard with these words on it in feminine writing:—"It was a very wrong and wicket thing to have married the couple at Trinity Church; afflicted people like that should not marry." In reply to this Mr. Gilby wrote as follows to the "Bath Chronicle" (England):—

"How quick to condemn are those who know nothing whatever of circumstances and who are simply stuffed with prejudices! To begin with, the ages of these deaf persons were 72 and 54. They are both fairly well-off and are exceedingly happy, whereas they were lonely in isolation. My own parents were deaf and dumb, and I am not. My experience of these matters is pretty extensive. I have assisted Professor Karl Pearson and Edgar Schuster, very noted eugenists. I am well acquainted with Dr. Kerr Love, Mr. MacLeod Yearsley, Dr. Haslam, Charles Heath and other aurists of note. I know their opinion re the marriage of afflicted persons. I know the Mendelian theory, and am pretty well able to advise as to the suitability of certain people uniting in marriage when I know the family history.

"The terrible state of things when there used to be no missions to the deaf, and the prevalence of illegitimacy in those days and of contaminated offspring, is known to those who really study these things. Our prejudiced critics should have been willing to learn from those who know by experience that we often have to choose the lesser of two evils. But in the majority of these cases great happiness follows in the mutual society, help and comfort that the one derives from the other."

HELEN KELLER, ONE OF AMERICA'S FOREMOST WOMEN.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell, distinguished authoress, recently prepared for the Northern Newspaper Alliance a list of the fifty living women who, in her opinion, have been the most outstanding in promoting the welfare of America. Among her selection is the name of Helen Keller, of whom she says:—

"The master of her fate. Deaf and blind from nineteen months, she so co-operated with her teacher, Anne Sullivan, that she developed means of communication which opened world's treasures to her. A graduate of Radcliffe College, writer, lecturer: has appeared in the movies and in vaudeville. Active in all undertakings for the blind. An inspiring life."

NUMBER OF DEAF IN VICTORIA.

In European countries and the United States of America, it is usually considered that there is one deaf and dumb person to every 2,000 of the population. The latest figures, according to the figures of the State Statistical Department, the population of Victoria on 30th September, 1930, was 1,786,944. This would mean that there are 893 deaf and dumb in this State. These figures do not include the "deaf," or hard of hearing, of whom there are many thousands. In 1901 there were 67 children in the Victorian Deaf and Dumb Institution. According to the latest report of the school there are now 142.

WOMEN'S GUILD.

The Deaf Women's Guild held its annual picnic on Saturday, 14th February, at West St. Kilda, when there was a fair attendance of members, together with a sprinkling of male friends. The chief attraction was the open sea mixed bathing. After the al-fresco tea on the garden lawn, the party broke up for ramble amongst the local amusement shows, then home.

Honolulu.

The new administration building of the School for the Deaf and Blind at Honolulu has been completed at a cost of £3,000. Mrs. Mabel V. Lacy is the Principal of the school, and there are about eighty deaf and blind pupils.

DEAF MEN'S GUILD.

Our new year of activities opened with an encouraging attendance. The year just closed was a good one, both in attendance and lectures. The lectures were of much interest and instructive, and the members were very pleased with the whole syllabus. This year still better lectures of all kinds are in view. The members are making a habit now of attending the Guild meetings and the Committee insists.

The newly-elected President, Mr. F. E. Frewin, began this year with a paper on "Old Times" on 10th March. He was alternately serious and amusing. After his address Mrs. Frewin and some other deaf ladies appeared from the kitchen with supper, and we did justice to his hospitality. Altogether it was a very enjoyable evening.

Yet another successful lecture was given on 24th March by Mr. H. Puddy, on "Furniture Periods." He said there were ancient kings who sat on stone stools, and before that, kings sat on the ground.

On 18th March the Shell Company lent us a film depicting scenes in Central Australia and other subjects. On this occasion the Men's Guild invited the ladies and non-members.

Mr. J. M. Johnston, who operates the film projector, has become quite an expert. The Secretary, Mr. W. Wood, is to be acclaimed for his energetic determination to further the Guild's good work.

The officers for the ensuing year are:—President, Mr. F. E. Frewin; Vice-President, W. Ashby; Hon. Treasurer, J. Phillips; Hon. Secretary, W. Wood; Committee, Messrs. J. M. Johnston, H. Puddy, R. H. Lambert and M. G. B. Mortimer.

LACROSSE NEWS.

The lacrosse season is almost with us once more, and the Adult Deaf Lacrosse Club has applied for entry into the same Section "B" as last year in the Victorian Lacrosse Association Competitions.

The season begins on 18th April, and already the intending players are showing keen interest, and have started training and practising.

Mr. Vosper Wilson is at present a very busy man, supervising the season's arrangements. He occupies the position of Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, as well as Captain of the team, and he is already making himself popular amongst the players. He will be assisted by Mr. Don Johnson in his secretarial duties.

The annual meeting of the club was held on the 27th February, when the usual business was gone through. The office-bearers for this season are:—President, Mr. J. M. Johnston; Vice-Presidents, Messrs. A. J. Wilson, J. Retallick and G. B. Mortimer; Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Vosper Wilson; Committee, Messrs. Don Johnson, W. Ashby, Herb. Wilson and G. Turnley; Captain, Mr. Vosper Wilson; Vice-Captain, Mr. G. Turnley.

EASTER RALLY.

Beautiful weather welcomed our contesting teams at Lake Park, Blackburn, on Easter Saturday. Warrie Ashby had led off and carried the main end of the job in the arrangements of a cricket match between Melbourne and Country Deaf teams. The game was watched with interest by city and country Deaf alike, with a fair sprinkling of hearing friends. The teams were:—

City: David Ashby (Capt.), Robert Beattie (Vice-Capt.), Warrie Ashby, Rupert Lygon, Walter Webb, James O'Gorman, Willie

Anderson, Willie McMillen, Jack McLean, Joseph Phillips, Gerald Turnley, Edward Roxburgh, Harold Lambert.

City made 84 runs in the first innings and five wickets for 165 runs in the second innings, declared. Country made 61 and 69 runs respectively. The City Deaf won outright by 119 runs.

The teams were entertained at lunch by the Chairman (Mr. N. Armstrong) and Committee of our Home for the Deaf at Blackburn, and the Matron added her share to the success of this part of the day's good things.

Both teams attended the Easter Rally at our Club House, Jolimont Square, and most vigorously participated in most of the games. Every fresh function at our centre demonstrates the need of a large assembly hall as a chief feature to our headquarters. This fact was again emphasised by the overcrowded state of the whole building on the occasion of the Easter Rally. It was a very happy crowd that took part in the laughter-provoking games provided for us by our active and enthusiastic M.C., Mr. George Newnham, who was ably assisted by Mr. J. M. Johnston. Our Chairman (the Principal) remained on the platform just long enough to tell us to "On with the games," and our President (Mr. E. R. Peacock, J.P.), who was also present and distributed the prizes, showed by his ever-smiling face that he was enjoying the fun with the rest of us. The Workers' Club did their share toward the success of the evening by preparing and serving the supper.

GEELONG BRANCH.

Geelong's first social evening was held on Tuesday, 3rd March, in the Rotary Club Hall, and was most successful. After a few short speeches acknowledging the thoughtfulness of the General Board and the Principal, Mrs. J. M. Johnston took charge of the entertainment.

Despite the wet and boisterous weather, seven ladies and five deaf gentlemen left Jolimont Square in the Society's motor van, driven by Mr. McCaffrey, to join the social. Their presence added greatly to the pleasure of the Geelong members. Fancy our Principal sweeping the floor, dusting tables and chairs and laying down the eatables on the tables! But that is what he did at Geelong.

The Jolimont members returned home in bright moonlight, and arrived in Melbourne just in time to catch their trains home. (Geelong is forty-five miles from Melbourne.)

It will never rain roses. If we want more roses we must plant more trees.

THE LATE MR. SOLOMON MOSS.

With the passing of Mr. Solomon Moss on the 5th of March another link in the chain of early pioneers of the Deaf and Dumb Society has been severed, for Mr. Moss had been a member almost since its inception.

To many of his friends he was affectionately known as "Mossie," but he had a large circle in the city, where his smiling face was generally welcome, even though his presence signified a subscription due, for he was the city collector for our society for nearly thirty years, and much valued and esteemed by the General Board.

Although he retired from that position some two years ago, two or three of his subscribers insisted upon him calling on them, and till quite recently kindly enquiries for him were made.

His wife, Mrs. Lucy Moss, pre-deceased him by three months. They had had a long life together, for both were just on eighty years of age.

Few knew of the many kindly deeds so quickly and willingly done by Mr. Moss, and great was the surprise when his benefactions were made known after his death.

Mr. S. Moss

Many of his fellow Deaf have been remembered in a monetary way, and a large amount has been left to this society, which, apart from Mr. Moss's long association and life among us, cannot but help to keep his memory evergreen.

WORKERS' CLUB.

The annual picnic was held on Eight Hours' Day, when a fair company of members and friends of the Workers' Club set off for Reckitt's Point, Beaumaris. Favored with ideal weather, most of our day was spent in diverse pursuits. Cameras were in much evidence. We were glad to see Mrs. Cove, a very old lady, and Miss Mortimer, a Gippsland visitor, with us on this day, and both enjoyed themselves very much. After the bountiful repast, a jolly time in strolling by the shore followed, and later the homeward journey was begun. Thanks are due to the Committee of the Workers' Club for arranging this successful outing.

OUR LITTLE WORLD.

Mr. Allsop, of Echuca, who is an ex-pupil of the St. Kilda Road School for the Deaf, has been an inmate of the Eye and Ear Hospital for some weeks because of ear trouble. He gained much benefit from the treatment.

In February, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sutherland spent a quiet, pleasant week at Queenscliff.

On receiving news of the death of her brother, Mr. James Gibson, Mrs. Lawson, of Adelaide, who was visiting Mrs. Muir at Warburton, had to return home immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ashby returned home after a long sojourn at Warburton, where they enjoyed the kind hospitality of Mrs. G. Damman, whose ability in driving her motor car made possible many enjoyable trips. They had a wonderful time.

Mr. A. Maloney, of Culgoa, is at present with us for a while. He reports a fair harvest, but complains of the low price offered for wheat.

Miss E. Rose, meeting one of our Deaf in town, sent her kind remembrances to all Deaf friends.

During her visit to Melbourne, Miss G. Mortimer was seen at the Club House many times. She also attended the Workers' Club Picnic at Rickett's Point.

Mr. C. Hunt, of Ouyen, stated in a letter received the other day that 3,000 bags of wheat had been harvested on his father's farm, but like Mr. Maloney, he complained of the low price offered for wheat.

Mr. J. Moran, of Cairns, North Queensland, who is an old Victorian, asked for news of our doings, as he has not heard from us for some time. Mr. Puddy, therefore, lost no time in sending him copies of "The Victorian Deaf." He is quite hale and hearty.

Messrs. R. White and E. Raines, whilst returning home from Seymour on a motor cycle, met with an accident when turning a bend near Wallan Wallan. The cycle skidded, throwing them on the roadway. Mr. Raines, who was riding pillion, received a fractured collar-bone and Mr. White abrasions on face and legs. They managed to reach the Wallan Wallan police, who brought them to the Melbourne Hospital. They were treated and allowed to go home.

Mr. W. H. Crush has met many of the Deaf of Tasmania, visited the Deaf School and Workshops, and witnessed Deaf cricket matches against T.O.O.E. teams. The Tasmanian Deaf team, who won the premiership of their section this season, have an excellent chance of winning the "Abraham Shield" next interstate carnival.

Mr. Crush made a flight in the air-liner, "Southern Sky," with Mr. Thomas and friends, near Launceston, and thoroughly enjoyed the trip. One Sunday, when returning from a visit to Mr. O'Toole, of Beaconsfield, Tasmania, Mr. Crush and Mr. K. Best were thrown off the latter's motor cycle when the machine skidded. Mr. Best escaped with light injuries, but Mr. Crush, who was riding pillion, was more seriously hurt.

The Tasmanian Deaf send greetings to the Victorian Deaf. They are eagerly anticipating their trip to Melbourne for the Cricket Carnival next Christmas, when they hope to win cricket honors.

Mr. A. Aird was presented with a special gold medal for his forty-five years' service with the Merri Merri Branch of the Manchester United Independent Order of Oddfellows.

Mr. V. Wilson, of West Melbourne, was joined in holy matrimony to Miss D. Fairman, a hearing lady of Albert Park.

Mr. H. S. Nathan, of Sydney, was in Melbourne for a month seeking employment, but returned home disappointed.

A SAD FATALITY.

Whilst bathing in a dam in Ranter's Gully, Campbell's Creek, near Castlemaine, on Wednesday evening, 4th February, Mr. Alfred Halliday was drowned. Mr. Halliday, who has been running a small dairy farm about half a mile from the dam, having finished his day's work, suggested a swim before tea time. His wife, nee Ivy Cole, accompanied him, and whilst sitting on the bank she noticed him in difficulties, and seeing him disappear, ran for assistance. It was over an hour before his body was recovered from ten feet of water. He was buried at Spring Vale Cemetery, our Principal officiating at the graveside. Mrs. Halliday has our deepest sympathy.

England.

Mr. James F. Schofield, who was appointed to the Gloucester Adult Deaf Society in 1924, has been appointed Superintendent of the Oldham Society, Mrs. W. J. McCormick retiring after thirty years of service. Mr. Schofield is a brother of Mr. S. A. Schofield, Superintendent of the Manchester Society.

America.

The new preparatory class entering Gallandet College for the Deaf, Washington, D.C., consists of thirty-three students from fifteen States.

CHURCH FOR THE DEAF FURNISHING FUND.

A very generous response was made to the appeal of our Principial and Mr. F. E. Frewin, on behalf of the Church Furnishing Fund, yet not quite sufficient to cover the total cost, but because of the widespread unemployment amongst the Deaf, it was decided to postpone any further appeal for the present. Nevertheless, if any of our Deaf or hearing friends are in a position to subscribe, we shall be glad of their help. Perhaps there is a friend amongst our readers who would be willing to donate the vestry furnishings—it is without furniture at present—and another friend for floor coverings for the aisles of the church. These would be very welcome gifts and greatly appreciated. We acknowledge with grateful thanks:—

HARVEST THANKSGIVING.

Our Harvest Thanksgiving service was held on Sunday, 8th March, when the Church was tastefully decorated with fruit, vegetables, flowers, plants, etc. Mr. E. J. D. Abraham conducted the service. Thanks are tendered to friends, both hearing and Deaf, for the many gifts that graced the rostrum. After the service the gifts were distributed to the unemployed and sick members of our society.

A very happy social was held on the evening of 3rd March, the proceeds to augment its fund, when some good new amusing games were introduced under the direction of the Hon. Secretary, W. Ashby. The attendance was good considering a small party went to Geelong the same night. As usual, the happy evening terminated with a light supper.

FORGETTING GOD'S DAY.

"There are too many people in Australia who are forgetting God's day, and too many who do not take much account of God. Perhaps that is partly why Australia is in the position she finds herself to-day. There is a tendency now to think only of our bodies; we do not realise that this world is the training ground for the life to come."—Archbishop Head.

OBITUARY.

We regret to announce the passing away of Mr. A. Halliday, of Castlemaine, 4th February; Mrs. Nolan, 17th February; Mr. S. Moss, 5th March; Mr. J. Lindsay, 13th March; Mr. J. Gibson, of Adelaide, 14th March.

EDITORIAL NOTE.

We are more than pleased with the hearty reception given to the February issue of "The Victorian Deaf." Whilst buoyant with faith, knowing the unfavorable conditions of the times, we did not anticipate the immediate and substantial support we have met with. It is very encouraging. The articles on the late Mr. J. E. Muir and "Our First School" came in for much favorable comment, and the constructive and all-round newsy nature of the issue generally pleased our deaf and hearing friends of deaf alike.

"The Victorian Deaf" Committee: Mr. E. J. D. Abraham (Chairman), J. M. Johnston, Geo. Newnham, Jack McLean, E. Johnson (Editor) and Harry Puddy (Manager). News, etc., should be addressed to the Editor, subscriptions and orders to the Manager. "The Victorian Deaf," Jolimont Square, Melbourne East.
