

Centenary Celebrations

The United Grand Lodge
OF ANTIENT, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS
of Victoria

CENTENARY GALA BALL

7.30 p.m., Friday, 17th March, 1989
Southern Cross Hotel Ballroom

GARDEN PARTY

2 p.m.-5 p.m., Saturday, 18th March, 1989
Grounds of Government House

Proceeds from these Functions will assist the establishment of the Freemasons Public Charitable Foundation.

Gala Ball

One of the glittering occasions of the first week of the centenary celebrations, the Gala Ball will be held in the Ballroom of the Southern Cross Hotel.

A three course dinner will be served accompanied by fine Australian wines. Guests will dance to the music of the Harry Casio Big Band.

Ladies gifts by courtesy of Clarins and Fernand Aubry, "The Beauty Professionals".

The Centenary Raffle will be drawn during the evening.

Garden Party

By kind permission of the Governor of Victoria, His Excellency Dr Davis McCaughey, AC, and Mrs McCaughey, AO, the Garden Party will be held on the magnificent grounds of Government House.

Open to Freemasons, their families and friends, guests will be entertained throughout the afternoon by music from the Victoria Naval Band and the Victoria Police Band. The State Apartments will be open for inspection and a String Quartet for Chamber Music will play in the Ballroom.

Government House has been the home of no less than six Victorian Grand Masters including Sir Dallas Brooks after whom was named the Masonic Centre Concert Hall.