A Fashion Rhapsody

This Katie Rendina Production will present variety in fashion using an elegant and romantic theme set to the classics of music.

This will be the first preview in Melbourne of the Winter Collections of these important designers.

Trent Nathan

The master designer who gave understated chic an Australian identity.
Member of Fashion's Hall of Fame.

Jill Fitzsimon

A winner of four Fashion Industry of Australia Awards in one year.

Joy Newton with Balencia

The Paris trained designer of sophisticated couture.

Susie Gallagher

Her designs emulate the expertise of young feminine European fashions.

Thornton Hall

Our import from nearby New Zealand, a winner of that country's highest Awards.

Teena Varigos

Known throughout Australia for her timeless designs.

Erich Planinsek

The master furrier from Europe who designs and makes stunning, individual furs. Now resident in Melbourne, with clientele in Italy, Japan and the USA. Winner of two prestigious Fur Council Designer Awards.

Designer labels from Europe

A range of Europe's top designer labels courtesy of Kevin Bell's "Squire Shop" of Toorak and the City.

The Collections of Jill Fitzsimon and Thornton Hall have been made available by leading fashion agent, Barry Friedlander.

The Zimmer Salon of South Yarra is providing hairstyling and make-up for Katie and this evening's models.

Gifts and prizes by courtesy of Clarins and Fernand Aubry, "The Beauty Professionals".

Katie Rendina

Katie Rendina: Known as Melbourne's top model for many years, Katie is a former "Miss Victoria" and "Miss Australia", who represented Australia in 1980 "Miss Universe". After six years as a model on the haute couture catwalks of Europe and the USA she returned to Melbourne as the Fashion Editor and columnist for The Herald. More recently Katie has become a successful entrepreneur in the field of Fashion Productions.
