Caulfield's big day, tomorrow, August 4.

Tomorrow, Friday August 4, 1978 will go down as one of the greatest days in the history of Caulfield. It will be a day of pomp and ceremony.

It will start with the granting of the "Freedom of Entry" to the City by the Mayor, Councillors and citizens of Caulfield to the Third Ordnance Services Unit Royal Australian Army Ordnance Corps and finish with the arrival of the Governor-

General, Sir Zelman Cowen and Lady Cowen. The ceremony for the granting of the freedom of the city will begin in Caulfield Park at 1 p.m. The third Military District Band, considered to be Australia's best will play throughout the military parade.

Following the parade on the oval in Caulfield Park, the Unit will march through the park along Hawthorn Road to Glen Eira Road where its right to enter the City will be challenged by the police "City Marshall". Turn to page 3 for programme details.

The Governor-General, Sir Zelman Cowen and Lady Cowen will arrive at the Town Hall at 3 p.m. Following a tour of the municipality, a civic reception will be held at which the Governor-General and his wife will meet some seven hundred residents. A private dinner will be held in the evening and will be attended by Councillors and local Members of Parliament. A ceremony you shouldn't miss, programme page 3.

Contact Sporting Tribute

At 16 years of age, Kathy Ledson of Carnegie is already beginning to make a name for herself in the sporting world.

Kathy has been selected as a member of the Victorian team to contest the Australian Secondary Schools Volleyball Championships to be held in Sydney from August 19th-26th.

Kathy, who attends Murrumbidgee High School, says she has no particular goal other than to improve; she enjoys volleyball and the competitiveness it offers. Kathy believes volleyball is definitely becoming more popular.

She began playing one lunch time at school; now, aided by the coaching she has received from John and Sue Hiller, Australian volleyball champions, Kathy's future looks promising.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

As the council year comes along to an end I am able to reflect on what has happened during that time.

You must all be aware of how beautiful our Town Hall looks since it received a coat of paint.

Those who have received the benefit of the footpath reconstruction to concrete I'm sure are satisfied. You will be pleased to know that it is the council's intention to intensify the completion of all footpath reconstruction.

August 4 will be an important day in the history of Caulfield when the Governor-General will be the guest of the City. I trust that as many people as possible will make an effort to give the Governor-General a Caulfield welcome.

It has been my privilege and honour to have been your Mayor this past year. I have done my best, I hope to your satisfaction. Thank you, ratepayers, for that chance.

4.5 cents goes a long way

Last year, Caulfield Council received $4,954,988 from rates.

4.5 cents in the dollar was spent on Social Development and Recreation and Culture Services and Programmes. So what did you get for it?

Six hundred regular recipients received the Home Help Service, and over 100,000 meals from the Meals on Wheels were delivered to homes and hostels.

Supportive accommodation for 160 people was provided at the Council hostels for the aged. Child minding facilities were available for over 200 pre-school children.

Other services included the Home Handyman Scheme, Holiday Accommodation for the elderly, support for the Citizens Advice Bureau, salvage collections to support local charities, support grants for elderly citizens clubs and welfare advice and support.

The Caulfield Community Centre provided 600 programmes with a wide range of activities and the Afterschool Programme had 200 regular attendances.

1,100 children attended the School Holiday Programmes where they received all day care.

Caulfield Arts Centre held 200 programmes ranging from concerts and exhibitions to craft workshops.

40,000 places were available at the Arts Centre and Community Centre for children's activities.

Community Day, Caulfield's Fun Run and International Day were held in the spirit of the 'Life Be In It' Campaign.

For further information readers should contact the Social Development Department on 524 3228.

LETTERS

● Cr Irene Capek

Madam, On the occasion of my retirement from Council, may I express my gratitude to the people of Caulfield who elected me last year, to represent them.

I had two main motives for standing for Council: to prove that there was no discrimination on grounds of sex, religion, or national origin, in our City.

Further, that there is no monopoly or, necessarily perpetuity, for Council seats, and that "new blood" is vital for progress in these changing times.

I deeply appreciate that our residents approved both issues.

Last not least may I add that I do not feel that I am "stepping down", in continuing to be just ... one of the residents, who, after all have the highest priority in a City.

I would like to express my special thanks to the very capable administration, most of whom do not consider their work, just as an occupation from 9 till 5., but are deeply involved and interested in the people they serve.

Irene Capek, Caulfield.

Madam, I would like to tell you about Gamanon, which was formed in America to help the wives or partners of the compulsive gambler to cope with their own lives.

It is a fellowship of people with a common problem, learning to live emotionally, independently of their addicted partner.

In this group, which is anonymous, people learn that they are not responsible for the emotional instability of their partner, nor can they stop the progress of the addiction. They can only live their own lives and cope with their own problems on a day to-day basis.

It is a terrible experience to sit by and watch the gambler's destructive behaviour affect himself and the family, yet feel helpless to change the progress of the addiction.

Through Gamanon, the partner learns to understand a baffling addiction, have tolerance and acceptance of people, gain self-esteem and self-confidence to make decisions and carry them through, whether the gambler tries to help himself (through Gamblers Anonymous) or not.

Unfortunately, many compulsive gamblers' wives feel a sense of fear, failure and hopelessness that lowers their self-esteem. Gamanon can help these women or men cope with life and may indirectly help their partner.

Anonymous, Gamanon, Caulfield.

Further information regarding this group may be made by telephoning 'Caulfield Contact', Caulfield Town Hall, telephone 524 3333.

Madam, I refer to Gwen Alexander's letter to the "Caulfield Contact" of 6th July, in praise of Councillor John Zeleznikow's efforts in the matter of the Glenhantly over/underpass issue.

As John is an active member of the Labor Party, but elected to Council on the all-embracing unity ticket of the Caulfield Progress Association, would he have pursued this matter with the same zeal if the alternative Government occupied the Treasury Benches at Spring Street, and Joe Rafferty was replaced as Minister of Transport by his alternate?

I was originally entirely against an overpass at Glenhantly, but now feel that a suitably constructed one would be a greater asset to this Municipality than a liability.

PLIGHT OF THE WHALE?

How would you feel if you were being hunted; that the whole human race was being threatened with biological extinction?

There is evidence that whales are being hunted off the face of the earth. Some organizations deny this. What are the facts?

Caulfield Jaycees offer you the opportunity to see the B.B.C. film — 'Whales, Dolphins and Men', which will be shown at the Malvern Library Theatre, 1257 High Street, Malvern at 7.45 p.m. on August 31st.

You will also be able to hear and question speakers representing organizations for and against whaling in Australia.

So if you are interested in hearing both sides of this controversial issue, why not go along? It may enlighten you?

Enquiries may be directed to Terry Leith, telephone B. 261 1322.

In this I mean, if a public works project could be designed so that it would eliminate the railway goods yards situated near Derby Crescent, and perhaps provide additional car parking space, particularly on race days, the scheme would be worthwhile.

An additional benefit would accrue in that it would be possible to link the western sections of Lord, Clifton, Tattenham and Moodie Streets to the eastern ones, which are otherwise cut into two sections by the railway line, with no direct vehicular access from one to the other.

To my mind, the only matter that would need to be settled, if the scheme for an overpass were adopted, is suitable compensation to property owners for any possible loss of values, whether they decided to sell their homes, or to remain where they are.

In my many years of residence in Caulfield, I have never heard any complaints from residents in the North Ward concerning the railway overpass along Normanby Road, which has been in existence as long as the average long-standing resident of Caulfield can remember.

H. W. Boulter, Carnegie.

NEERIM ROAD RAILWAY CROSSING

The Minister of Transport, Hon. J. A. Rafferty requested the Victorian Railway Board to prepare a report on alternative ways of providing grade separations at the Neerim Road level crossing in Glenhantly.

The report, recently released, has been made available to the Caulfield Council in order that community views can be coordinated with it.

The report presents alternative methods of providing the grade separation — over the road and under the road with estimated costs on both methods.

The problem of building the railway line in a cutting is dealt with in detail, together with a consultant's report on the site conditions.

Caulfield Council has resolved that an appraisal should be made by Council staff in conjunction with independent consultants.

All information will then be collected and public comment sought before the council finally considers the report.

Community Activities

INTRODUCING FUSION Fusion is a go-ahead group!

It operates locally from a community centre in Murrumbidgee.

After a fire at the centre last year which temporarily curtailed activities, Fusion is once again on the move. Undaunted by their drastic fire, organisers have worked to re-establish the group and since its re-opening six weeks ago Fusion has progressed in leaps and bounds.

The centre, which is currently conducted by eight full-time, volunteer staff, is attracting sizeable crowds and an increase in staff seems inevitable.

Fusion's Saturday night coffee shop creates an atmosphere of welcome with its softly furnished, carpeted lounge and live acoustic musos who provide the entertainment.

Craft workshops operate twice daily and creches are available for Mums who wish to attend.

And on Tuesday nights people interested in learning or sharing skills in craft, photography, printing and musical instruments are offered free tutoring.

A youth emergency accommodation referral system, operated by the centre, has been of assistance to a number of people in need. "We are just beginning to tap what we know is an area of enormous need," said staff worker Helena Tobin 25, an ex-primary teacher, "and would be delighted to hear from people who could open up their homes for those in need."

Fusion also has other centres in Sydney, Perth, Burnie, Ulverstone and Bundaberg.

If you are interested in making further enquiries about Fusion, it is located at 101 Murrumbidgee Road, Murrumbidgee, telephone 568 2427.

FACS GRANTS

The Southern Suburbs Regional Consultative Committee established under the Family and Community Services Programme advises agencies and community groups to watch Victorian newspapers this Saturday (5th August) for details of eligibility and application procedures for Community Service Grants for 1979.

The Committee has asked FACS staff to assist groups to prepare applications. Groups will also have an opportunity to present a case in person to a funding sub-committee.

The contact person is Darryl Bubner, at the Southern Suburbs Regional Centre of the Social Welfare Department, 374 Highett Road, Highett. Telephone 553 0711.

Rotary

The sixteenth Annual Change Over night of the Caulfield Rotary Club, turned out to be an enjoyable evening for members, their wives, friends and guests.

The highlight was the presentation of a cheque for $1,000 presented by retiring President Roy Fryer, to Sister Bray, who represented Caulfield Hospital.

$15,000 has been raised, assisting Caulfield Hospital to build a new hostel for aged and disabled people. There has been an association with the club and Caulfield Hospital for a span of 7 years.

Rotary Exchange student, Matsumi, from Gifu South, Japan, addressed the guests with a broken accent. She thanked the Rotary for giving her the opportunity of coming to Australia to further her education.

The new President, Roy Fincher was given a vase, donated by Gifu South Rotary, by Roy Fryer.

Get out and have a go!

● Mrs Mena Bailey at work

A free ten week pilot program for community participation in oil painting has commenced. It is sponsored by the Caulfield Arts Centre and Caulfield Institute of Technology.

The slogan adopted by the program is 'for people who need to get out and have a go'. Materials and tuition are free.

So if you are interested, contact Jacki Hedges at the Caulfield Arts Centre on 524 3277.

Gamblers Anonymous

Gamblers Anonymous is a fellowship of men (sometimes women) with a common emotional problem — an obsession to gamble, whatever the consequence to the addict himself, or his family.

The only requirement for membership with G.A. is the desire to stop gambling. There are twelve steps to recovery as used in A.A. but the group is somewhat smaller than A.A., owing to the gambler's inability to accept that he needs help or that he is unable to stop the progress of his addiction on his own.

This emotional problem is the most insidious of the three major addictions; it causes untold suffering to the gambler and his family and can only be arrested, not cured.

Enquiries regarding this self-help group, which meets regularly in Caulfield, may be directed to 'Caulfield Contact', Caulfield Town Hall, telephone 524 3333.

GUIDING 'Round the World'

Nancy Needham, District Commissioner for the Carnegie/Murrumbidgee Girl Guides, leaves on her Guides' Tour of the World' on August 26th. Her 39 day tour will include visits to the four World Guide Centres.

She will stay at the first of these centres when she arrives in Bombay where a trip overland will take her to 'Sangam' — the World Guide Centre at Poona, 120 miles to the south west.

From there Mrs. Needham will travel to Our Chalet World Guide Centre at Adelboden in Switzerland and then to Amsterdam.

She will take in Holland, Germany, France and Italy.

The journey to France will take Mrs. Needham through the famous wine-growing district of Burgundy and then on to Paris with its well known attractions — the Champs Elysses, Arc de Triomphe, Eiffel Tower and Notre Dame Cathedral.

And then to London where she will visit 'Olave House', another of the World Guide Centres, and Foxlease Guides' Training College.

Her next stop will be Mexico and 'Our Cabana' World Guide Centre which overlooks the ancient city of Cuernavaca.

Mrs. Needham should have many stories to tell when she arrives back in Australia on October 3rd.

TRIP TO POINT LONSDALE

The Ormond Elderly Citizens' Club is arranging a five day tour to Point Lonsdale to leave on Monday September 25th.

The total cost of $75 includes transport, meals and accommodation at the Terminus Guest House, and coach tours of the area. A deposit of $10.00 will be required by August 21st.

For further enquiries please contact Mrs Neal or Mrs Smith at the Clubrooms, 2 Newham Grove, Ormond, telephone 578 7653 between 1.30 p.m. and 4.00 p.m. daily.

Feeling Lonely, Bored?

If so, the Caulfield Rotoract Club may be the answer for you if you live or work in Caulfield. Rotoract consists of young people, both male and female, whose ages range between 18 and 28 years.

This friendly group is united together in a common interest to develop leadership and responsible citizenship through service to the community.

Their aim is to promote international understanding and peace, and recognition and acceptance of high ethical standards as a leadership quality and vocational responsibility.

The Club is seeking new members, so if you are interested in making new friends, having fun and participating in this worthwhile venture, why not go along to their meetings.

They are held at the Elderly Citizens' Clubrooms, 8 Cedar Street, Caulfield on the first and third Tuesday each month. Fellowship is at 7.45 p.m. and the official meeting starts at 8.00 p.m. Enquiries, Jeff Coady B 56 2256 or Bob White B. 509 8266.

NEIGHBOURHOOD CENTRE FOR ELSTERNWICK?

Cindy Adeney, Louise Wall and Elizabeth Flann, residents of Elsternwick, believe there is a vital need for a Neighbourhood Centre in the area which would cater for all ages.

They are seeking support and ideas from other interested people, particularly in the areas of child care, youth and the aged.

Want to become involved? Phone Cindy Adeney, 528 2362, Louise Wall 528 1751 or Elizabeth Flann. 523 5330.

Friendship Through Music

Descant is a group which offers young people the opportunity to meet and share in a common interest — 'serious' music. The club members, who are mainly in their late twenties to early thirties and unattached, hold informal meetings generally in private homes.

Musical entertainment is organized by the group — on Sunday August 6th the Collarts Brass Quintet is presenting 'Music for Town and Fair' at 55 Lumeah Road, Caulfield at 8.15 p.m.

If you require further information on the group or its coming activities, please contact Mr P. Cohen, telephone B. 543 1122, Ext. 22; he will be pleased to answer any queries you may have.

New Books

A number of new books is added to the libraries in Caulfield regularly, a selection of which is listed below. Those which are not at your local library may be reserved and obtained on inter-library loan.

The Storm Petrels; the First Soviet Defectors, 1928-1938 by G. Brook-Shepherd — The story of five key Soviet Officials who were among the first to defect to the West.

The Russian Mind by R. Hingley — A book which analyses the enigmatic Russian mentality.

The Jargon of the Professions by K. Hudson — This interesting study of the technical language and jargon of the professions explains why it is that some occupations generate far more jargon than others.

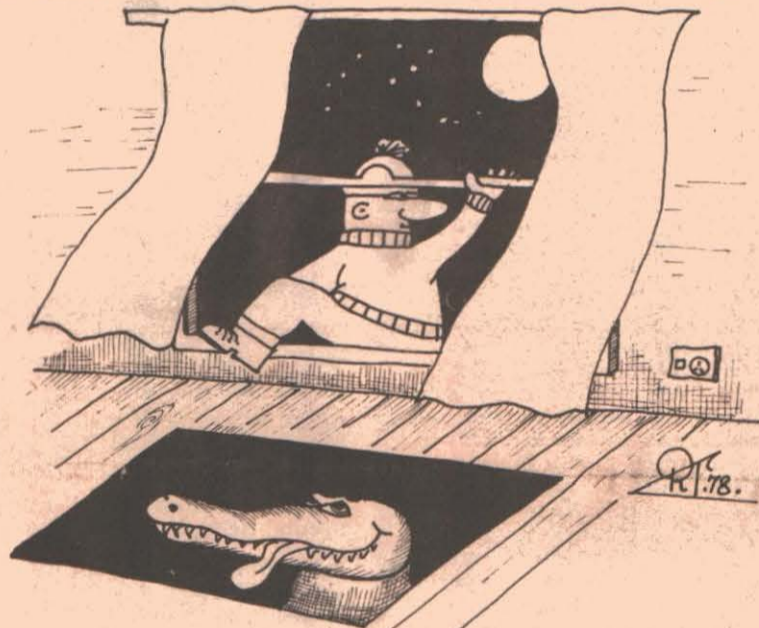

Ross: the Story of a Shared Life by N. McWhirter — The remarkable story of Ross McWhirter's full, varied and constructive life, told by his twin, Norris.

The Archaeology of Ancient Turkey by J. Mellaart — A fascinating history of early civilisation in Turkey.

Manwatching: A Field Guide to Human Behaviour by D. Morris — The author, a noted zoologist gives a full explanation of human behaviour and shows how attitudes and inner-most feelings are conveyed more successfully by unconscious movements than by word of mouth.

Before School by L. Murphy — A valuable guide for parents, which shows how to encourage the physical development of young children.

The Churchills; Portrait of a great family by J. Watney.
The Turin Shroud by I. Wilson — An investigation of recent scientific evidence which suggests that the Turin Shroud is the cloth in which Christ was wrapped in his tomb.

PROTECT YOUR HOME

Are you inviting a burglar into your home?

Police in Caulfield are continuously being called to investigate home burglaries. Most happen in broad daylight.

Although it is not possible to completely burglarproof your home, you can take steps to protect your family and property by reducing the opportunities for a burglar to break in.

Install mortice dead locks on outside doors; install a security door chain and spy-hole; keep doors and screen doors locked at all times; provide outside illumination; install automatic timer to turn on lights if you are out; keep your garage locked; don't leave a ladder or tools lying around; don't leave your valuables lying around; keep a record of all serial numbers of your property; apply your own mark on all other items; don't leave keys under the mat or in other obvious places; if keys are lost, change locks; if you are away from home cancel all deliveries such as milk, newspapers, etc.; have a friend mow the lawn and sweep the paths once a week; have your post office hold all mail until you return; leave your shades and blinds as you normally do, closed blinds make an effective screen for the burglar; buy merchandise only from bonafide dealers, buying "bargains" on the street may mean you're buying stolen merchandise. Stop the burglar's sales outlet.

Don't be a victim.
For emergency police aid call 662 0911 or 000.

Leisure Line

Poster Contest

Application forms for the Annual Poster Contest are available from the office of the Manager, Recreation and Culture, Caulfield Town Hall.

This contest is open to any interested person in two basic categories — professional and amateur. The amateur category is further divided into thirteen and over and under thirteen. Prizes total $300, with two $100 lots going to the top winners.

The theme of the contest is "Caulfield". The object is to produce a poster pointing out significant features in Caulfield, improving the lifestyle in Caulfield, or praising the municipality in some appropriate manner.

Further information can be obtained by ringing Lisa on 524 3253. Why not give it a try? You might really surprise yourself!

School Holiday Programs

Registration for the school holiday programs at the Community Centre (phone 524 3288 or 523 6110) and the Arts Centre (524 3277), is underway at present.

In order not to miss a place in these comprehensive and creative programs, you must register soon. Give the respective centres a ring for further information.

Surveys

Thanks to all of those who took part in the recent "Recreation Facilities" and "Parks Usage" surveys. The results will be available in two months and will be printed in Contact.

THE EXCURSION THAT GREW

● Caulfield High School student working with children at Ormond Special School.

On Monday 24th July, 105 form five students from Caulfield High School, turned out in force at various businesses throughout Melbourne, to take part in the Work Experience Program.

The idea of the program is to give students experience in the 'outside world' by sending them to various businesses ranging from hospitals to offices and industry. This enables the student to gain more knowledge of the careers they wish to follow when they leave school.

In 1969 Caulfield High became the first high school in Victoria to take part in the program. Mrs. Thelma Bell sent out 25 girls, who were placed into office positions. Some were asked to stay on at the completion of their form five year.

In 1974 the Workers Compensation Act, was introduced, and according to that Act, Students are able to work up to 12 days, three times yearly. All students are paid $3.00 a day. The Caulfield Council has helped the Work Experience Program since it began.

The program is now well established in the Caulfield High School form five curriculum, and thanks to Mrs Bell many students can have a go at their chosen career, and have that necessary experience in the 'outside world'.

Quota's Concern for Children.

The Caulfield Council has accepted an offer of financial support from the Quota Club with the support of the Rotary Club, to enable them to set up a research into the problems of children in the Caulfield Community.

It is hoped that from this research an aid program can be established in 1979, "The Year of the Child".

Not only will the research cover the young teenager but also the abused or child "at risk". Many people are aware of these feelings — the lucky ones have a sympathetic relative or friend to turn to. Others have none. If the research indicates a need in Caulfield, a service could be started where parents or older children ring for help.

COLLECTION ON THE ROAD

A selection of work from the Caulfield City Council Permanent Art Collection is presently on display at the Caulfield Town Hall, during regular Council hours. Featured are major oil paintings, ceramic and sculpture pieces.

Commencing September 4th for the month of September, the Collection will be shown at the Elsternwick Library, 4 Staniland Grove, Elsternwick, during library hours; Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 8.30 p.m., and on Saturday from 9.30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Keep a look out for the next venue for the "Collection on the Road".

Concert No. 2

"Musical Favourites", Number Two in the Arts Centre Concert Series will be presented on Sunday, September 10th at 3.30 p.m.

A delightful programme of musical favourites for voices and a variety of instruments, piano, harps, flute and violin will be performed by artists from the Victorian College of the Arts.

This special concert has been scheduled for the afternoon time for the convenience of families.

Tickets are: $2.00 adults and 50c children and pensioners. Bookings on 524 3277.
