CAULFIELD IDENTITY DIES

Mr William Richardson (Bill) Thomson, J.P., a well known community worker and ex-councillor of the City of Caulfield died on March 24th after a long illness.

Bill Thomson joined the Caulfield Council in 1949 and represented the South Ward for 21 years.

He served on, and at various times was Chairman of all the principal Council Committees.

In 1951 and again in 1967 the Council showed its confidence in him by electing him to its highest office, that of Mayor of the Municipality.

As the number one citizen he earned the respect of the Councillors and Officers and the esteem of the Citizens with whom he came in contact.

He retired from the Council in 1970, but never lost his interest in its activities. He regularly attended functions for ex-Councillors and was a frequent visitor to the Town Hall where his cheerful and friendly advice was always welcome.

During the war and for some years afterwards, Bill Thomson organised charity dances each Saturday night in the Caulfield Town Hall. Much of the money raised at these dances went towards building the Curraweena Homes for Elderly Citizens:— one of Bill's favourite projects.

He worked firstly to have the land, which was a rubbish dump, allocated by the Council, and later filled in so that the homes could be built.

He was made a Trustee and later Secretary of the Trust, and largely through his efforts the Curraweena Homes were completed and officially opened in 1960.

Another major interest of this busy man was the planning, building and administration of the Royal Southern Memorial Hospital. He attended the first meeting in 1952 to consider the feasibility of building a major hospital.

He was a foundation member of the Hospital Committee, and was one of the original Directors of the Board of Management. He continued to serve on the Board until his recent ill-health.

Bill Thomson served in World War I and was a member of the Caulfield Branch of the R.S.L.

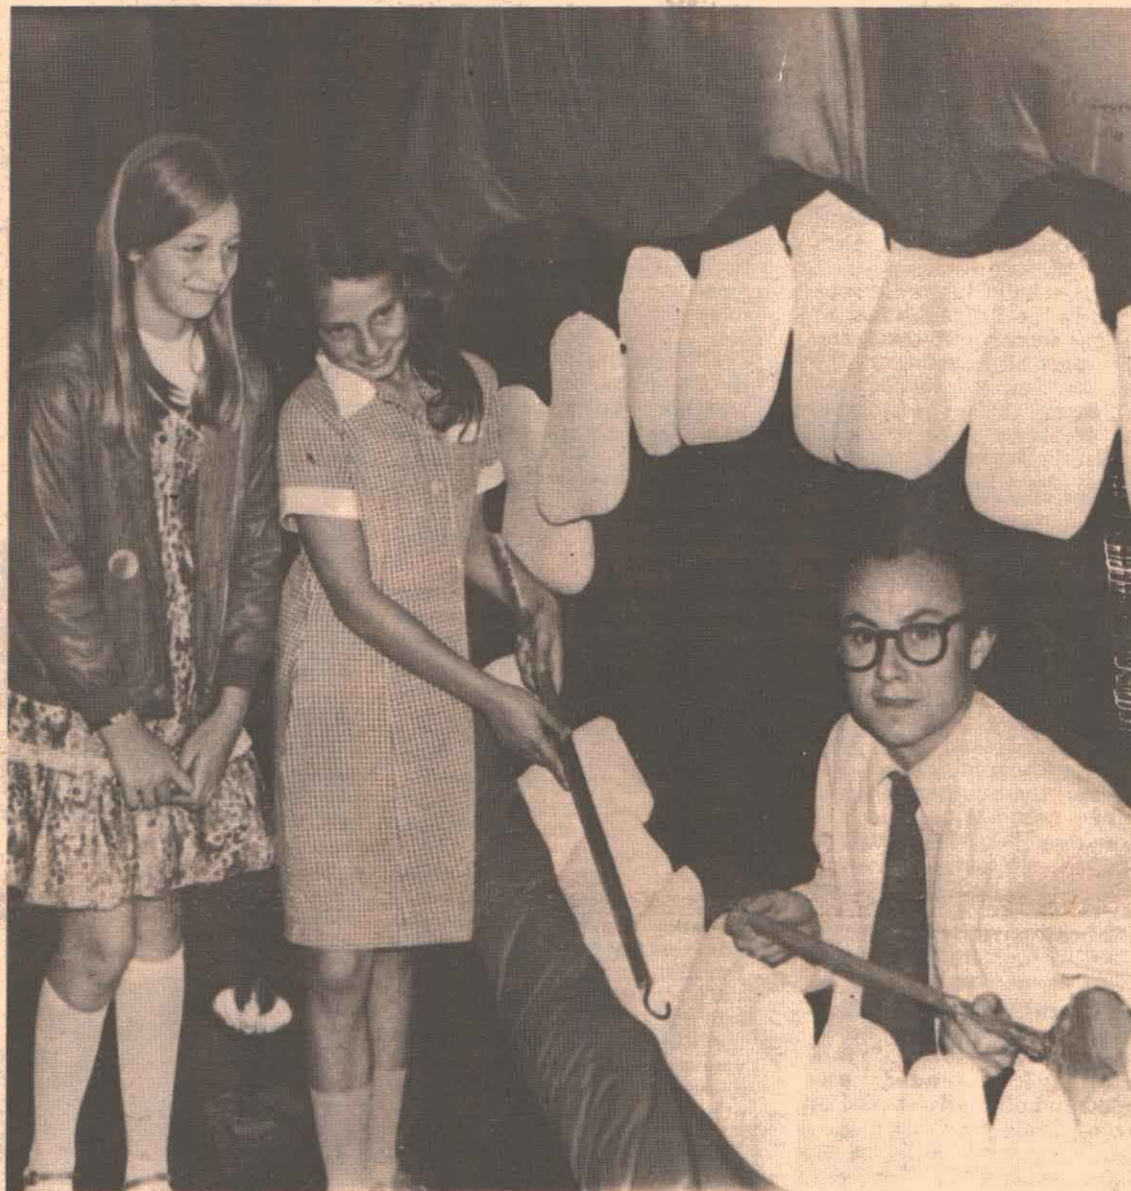

During World War II he joined the Sailors, Soldiers and Airmen's Fathers' Association and later became Victorian and then Federal President. He worked with the Association in liaison with the Mothers' Association for nearly 40 years.

In the early post-war years he was also a prominent member of the Local Repatriation Committee.

Early this year Bill Thomson was rewarded for his long and useful association with St. John Ambulance Brigade, when he was awarded the Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem.

This is regarded as the oldest Order of Chivalry in the World. It was an appropriate recognition of his great service to the St. John Ambulance Brigade and a fitting culmination to a lifetime of community service given by Bill Thomson to Caulfield and his country.

OPEN WIDE PLEASE

Chris Lord, left, from Murrumbena Primary School and Kathy Higginbotham from St Patrick's gave the dentist a much needed helping hand when Handspan Theatre presented the 'Mouth Show'.

Using puppets and people the group presented an imaginative program about toothcare to Primary School children of Caulfield.

The program was co-ordinated by the Caulfield City council who provided the venues and transport for the children.

Young Achievers

Caulfield High School and Wesley College are combining to participate in an exciting new venture — they have formed a company named "Westfield Enterprises — Australia".

March 26th saw the inaugural meeting of "Westfield Enterprises": a small firm to be operated jointly by some Level 10 and Level 11 students from Caulfield High School and Wesley College.

The paid up capital of $300 is in the form of one Dollar Sponsor Certificates held by friends, relatives and teachers of the students concerned.

Over the next six months the students will meet weekly, outside school hours, at the premises of B.H.P. the firm which is sponsoring their group. Executives from B.H.P. will act as advisors in setting up a business, producing an article and marketing it — they will not make any decisions for the Young Achievers.

At the end of the period the "Company" will be liquidated and the sponsors will be paid a dividend.

The Achievers themselves will be the Board of Directors, the Workers and the Sales Staff. They will receive token wages, salaries and commissions.

During the program, Achievers sell Sponsor Certificates to capitalize their company, elect officers, choose a product to manufacture or a service to offer, maintain a detailed records system, map out marketing plans and strategies, pay salaries, rent etc. produce, promote and sell their company's product and at the end of the program Achievers publish an Annual Report, return dividends to stockholders and liquidate their company.

This is a practical extra-curricular learning experience.

Peter Giasis from Caulfield High is the Managing Director, Scott Killingbeck from Wesley College is the Director of Marketing, David Channing, Caulfield High is the Director of Manufacturing, whilst Richard Girvan, Wesley College is Director of Finance, Robyn

Richardson, Caulfield High is the Company Secretary and Robert Lehrer, Caulfield High is the Director of Personnel. Other positions still have to be filled.

The Young Achievers program was introduced to Australia by the American Chamber of Commerce and has been taken up in Victoria by a number of organizations.

A second Young Achievers group involving Caulfield High School Students will be established shortly under the guidance and sponsorship of I.B.M.

By the time the Young Achievers have operated their own business for six months, whether their books show a profit or a loss, they will have a far more acute perception of the varying interacting roles of the Officers and Employees of a business organization.

This is Work Experience in a very real sense.

EXTRAORDINARY ELECTION MAY 24th Vacancy In West Ward

Because Mr. Don Dustan has recently become ineligible to sit on Council it has become necessary to call an election in the West Ward on Saturday May 24th.

VOTING IS COMPULSORY for all whose names appear on the Municipal Voters' Rolls. If the seat is contested Polling Booths and times for voting will be publicised in the local press and an election pamphlet will be circulated.

West Ward is bounded by Hotham Street, Inkerman Road, Orrong Road, Balacava Road, Kooyong Road, North Road and the Nepean Highway.

Nominations for candidates close at 4.00 p.m. on May 5th.

Postal Voting Services will be available from Tuesday, May 6th.

All enquiries should be directed to the Town Hall on 524 3297.

The E.E. Gunn Park and Pavilion — A TRIBUTE TO AN EX-MAYOR OF CAULFIELD

The E. E. Gunn Park is a well-known sporting venue of Caulfield. It has a long history and was originally known as Ormond Park.

Throughout the years it has been well supported by the sporting clubs that use its facilities. Both the Cricket and Football Clubs have had a tremendous record on the playing fields.

The Cricket Club has won 9 Sub-District 1st Eleven Premierships in 32 years, while the Football Club has won 5 'A' Grade premierships and has been runner-up on 7 occasions. In all, the Football Club has won 25 pennants since 1933.

The Baseball Club, which was formed in the 1930's has had an excellent record over the years. After years of knocking at the door, it finally reached top grade in the 1960's. The Club has now amalgamated with the Glenhuntly Baseball Club and is the only one within the City of Caulfield.

The Tennis Club, which became part of the Committee of Management in 1975, was founded in 1925. The original tennis pavilion was built in 1930, and was added to in 1965.

The Club has a total membership of 140 including 50 junior members. It has 5 courts and is affiliated with the Caulfield-Carrum Tennis Association, the Southern District Tennis Association and the Moorabbin Under-17 Tennis Association.

The original Park Pavilion was built in the late 1920's. The existing brick pavilion was erected in 1936 with extensions and upgrading being done in 1958.

Following the fire which badly damaged the pavilion on Christmas Eve 1977, it was demolished, extended, upgraded and officially opened in March of this year.

The new pavilion is to be known as the E. E. Gunn Pavilion and at its opening the Mayor of Caulfield spoke of Mr Gunn's services to Caulfield.

He was a member of the Caulfield City Council from 1949-1975 and in that time was Mayor twice — 52/53 and 64/65. Awarded the M.B.E. for Community Services, he was a foundation member of the Ormond Cricket Club and President from the early 30's until his retirement in 1972.

He was a driving force behind the Cricket Club's admission to senior ranks in 1948.

Ernie Gunn was also a foundation member of the Football Club and was Senior President for many years until he resigned in 1948 to form the Ormond Amateur Junior Football Club. He has been instrumental in the development of Junior Cricket and Football in the Caulfield District over many years.

When the Park Trust was formed in 1930, it was natural that Ernie Gunn should be President. This Trust was superseded by the Committee of Management and he is still active in his role as President of this Committee.

The sporting facilities which the Park provides are of a high standard. The main oval was recently regraded and a new turf wicket and turf practice wickets have recently been laid. This meant a difficult time for the clubs who were not able to use the grounds at this time.

The new Pavilion will provide much needed and improved facilities for the Clubs. It has been a combined project; Kelvin Greenway, an architect and member of the Cricket Club was responsible for the preparation of the initial plans, Graham Rowe from the Football Club and Ron Rowlands from the Baseball Club organised the curtains and their fittings etc.

The Cricket and Football Clubs between them contributed $10,000 towards the cost of refurbishing the Pavilion and Reception Room.

The rooms are available for hire and would provide excellent facilities for a special function. If you would like to hire the hall for a wedding, a 21st birthday or other function, contact the Secretary of the Trust, Mr J. C. Stock, 68 Purtell Street, East Bentleigh, 3165 or telephone on 579 5586 and enquire about the reasonable rates.

The E. E. Gunn Park and Pavilion are a credit to all those who have worked so hard over the years to maintain it. Why not visit the Park yourself sometime. Stop a while and watch the games, walk the dog (on a leash of course), or take the children to play on the playground equipment.

This is another of the areas that has allowed Caulfield to become known as the City of Parks.

It is a night being provided to enable present students and newcomers to come along and discuss the classes for 2nd and 3rd terms of this year.

A pleasant evening of Folk and Ballad style music and singing will be provided by Libby and Richard and it will make a great night for all who come.

Coffee and Bickies will be provided for supper. If you have any enquiries contact the centre on 524 3288.

IKEBANA INTERNATIONAL

Ikebana (Japanese Flower Arrangement).

A demonstration by Joyce Marx and Erica Strong, members of Ikebana International will be held at St. Mary's Church Hall corner Glen Eira Road and Hood Crescent on Tuesday May 6th at 2.30.

Anyone interested in flower arranging would find the afternoon most interesting, for the small charge of $1.

For further information, please contact Mrs Isaachsen on 527 1040.

Booran Road Traffic Considerations

A public meeting has been convened for Wednesday, April 30, 1980, at the Caulfield High School at 8 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting is to provide a venue where interested residents can discuss with the Council's Traffic Consultants, their points of view relating to the traffic using Booran Road (in particular between Neerim Road and Kambrook Road).

The Consultant is making a study of a wider area, but before firming up on his recommendations for Booran Road and the surrounding Streets, the Council wishes the residents and the High School Council to hold discussions with the consultant.

The meeting is being held in the area under consideration and it is hoped that many of the residents will avail themselves of the opportunity to discuss the traffic considerations.

Choir Receives International Recognition

The Jewish Hazomir Choir has been singing since 1947. In the early days it was a men's choir only, but later on they were joined by the ladies.

The 50 voice choir is well known for its work for charities and music festivals. They have sung at the Festival of All Nations, the Ghetto Commemoration, the Montefiore Homes for the Aged and here in Caulfield at the celebrations of the 75th Anniversary of Rotary International.

In its endeavours to bring the treasury of Jewish songs and music to the public the choir has undergone many changes. They have had some financial troubles but are now being supported by the Jewish Cultural Society "Kadimah" and the Melbourne Hebrew Congregation makes its facilities available for rehearsals.

The many long hours of practice put in by these dedicated men and women has paid dividends. In July of last year the Choir was invited to Israel to sing at the 11th International Assembly of Choirs.

Twenty-two choirs from around the world attended and the Australian flag was proudly flown around the concert halls alongside those from Austria, Belgium, France, Italy, Norway, Spain, U.S.A., South Africa, West Germany and others.

The Choirs renditions of "Waltzing Matilda" and "Click go the Shears" received a tumultuous reception and after the concert members were approached by many people in the audience with fond recollections of wartime Australians.

The trip was a never-to-be forgotten experience for the Hazomir Choir as they travelled around the country singing to both adults and children.

The Choir's conductor is Australian-born Adrain Bartak. In his final year of school he obtained the Exhibition in Music. He has also graduated in Law, Political Science and Education from the Melbourne University and now lectures in Law.

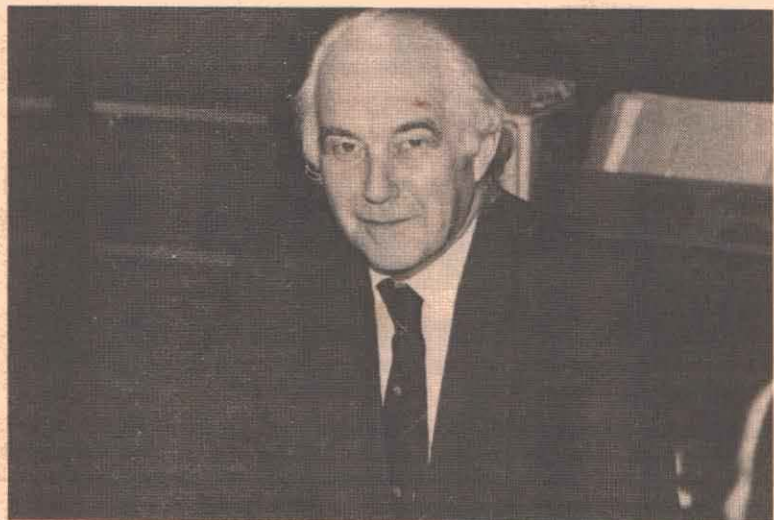

Accompanying Pianist for the Choir is Miss Miriam Rochlin. She is an excellent pianist and has served the Choir for many years.

Congratulations and continued success to all those involved in the work of this Choir.

Caulfield's Medical Officer Admitted Fellow of A.M.A.

Dr. Geoffrey Stillwell, Caulfield's Medical Officer of Health, has worked for the Council for 13 years. He is a member of the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners and has been a member of the Board of the Victorian Faculty since 1966.

The Federal Council of the Australian Medical Association at its January meeting admitted Dr. Stillwell as a Fellow of its Association.

Criteria for admission as a Fellow include at least 10 years of uninterrupted membership of the A.M.A., distinguished service to medicine and standing as a leader of the profession at State or Federal level.

As Caulfield's Medical Officer of Health, Dr. Stillwell is the principal advisor in all health matters in the City. He is responsible for the health planning of the municipality and, in consultation with the City Management Team, is involved in the day to day requirements in the health welfare field.

In addition he is responsible for all the immunisation projects of the City.

Dr. Stillwell is Chairman of the Section of Medical Officers of Health of the Victorian Branch of the A.M.A. and was a member of the Victorian Public Health Commission from 1970 until it was disbanded in 1978.

He has been a member of the Western Australian and Victorian Branches of the BMA and AMA since 1945 and except for a period of three months, he has been a member of the Council of the Victorian Branch since 1965.

He was a member of the Executive Committee in 1972; Vice-President of the Branch in 1973 and Honorary Secretary in 1977.

He has served as a member of many Committees and Sub-committees of the Council, and has been convener of the Legislative and the Workers' Compensation Sub-committees. In 1979 he was the chairman and convener of the committee which successfully organised the Centenary celebrations of the Victorian Branch of the A.M.A.

Services of the Council of Adult Education

Start a discussion group

If you have read the same book as another person and enjoyed talking about it with them, then you will probably find CAE's discussion group program of particular interest.

The Discussion Services Department of CAE has a book collection of over 800 titles. Fifteen copies of each title are available to groups of people interested in reading and discussing books together.

Joining or forming a group is an ideal way of organising some good reading for yourself while ensuring a stimulating exchange of views and ideas with other interested people.

The group encourages discussion of topical issues and the broadening of individual viewpoints, not to mention a good night out, once a month, in congenial company.

Throughout Victoria there are over 600 groups involved in the program and each has from six to fifteen members. Each year the groups select 36 titles from the list of available books, and each month fifteen copies of one of the selected titles is sent by rail to the group, along with reading notes and discussion material.

The books are sent to the group's nearest railway station for collection. Cost of sending and returning the books by rail is included in each individual's annual membership fee of $10.

Joining a group is simple. Just call the CAE and they will introduce you to a group in your area. If there is no group in your area, or if an existing group has reached the fifteen membership limit, they will help you form a new group.

The minimum number of people necessary to establish a new group is six. Obviously it requires self-motivation on your behalf to start a new group.

Contacting a friend, relative, neighbour or business acquaintance would be the first place to start. A notice in a supermarket, library, sporting club, or other public place would attract interested people.

Once a group has formed it is up to the members to decide its mode of operation. Although affiliated with CAE's Discussion Services Department there is no involvement unless the group requests assistance.

The distinctive value of the program is that each group has freedom to determine its own nature.

Regional seminars are run from time to time by the Department to allow members from different groups to meet staff members. In this way new services are introduced to the program, and ideas can be exchanged between groups.

For further information contact the Discussion Services Department at the CAE.

Reference Point 1980

The new edition of Reference Point ('A Guide to Tutors, Topics and Talents') is now available from the Council of Adult Education.

This directory contains information on over 150 tutors and speakers who can teach and talk on over 400 interesting areas; food and wine, art and craft, history, child-rearing, languages, politics, travel and a lot more.

Reference Point gives you information about each tutor: what their speciality area is, where they are prepared to travel in Victoria, how they can be contacted - in fact everything you will need to know if you are planning a program of speakers, organising adult classes, running a community centre or planning a conference.

This book is an invaluable resource for conference planners, program organisers for service clubs, adult educators, community resource people and many others. It puts the knowledge of the Council of Adult Education and many of its experienced tutors at your fingertips.

Reference Point is available at $4.50 a copy ($4 book, 50c postage) from Extension and Liaison Department, Council of Adult Education, 256 Flinders Street, Melbourne, telephone 652 0678.

ENGINEERING WINS A YOUNG MOTHER

Stresses and strains have won a prize for a young mother. But these stresses and strains have nothing to do with taut nerves or emotional tension.

Felicity Claire Finlayson (28) has won the City of Caulfield Award on the nomination of the School of Engineering at the Caulfield Institute of Technology.

Felicity, obtained the highest aggregate mark of all engineering students in her first year Civil Engineering 1979.

That surprised her a great deal because she's never thought of herself as a good student, never enjoyed school, and she was now returning to the learning environment after a break of eight years.

Felicity had undertaken a metallurgy diploma course at RMIT but had abandoned it when she met and married a geologist while doing laboratory work during vacation in a mining town in the Northern Territory. Now with her six-year-old daughter safely in school, Felicity is back studying.

A woman engineer raises eyebrows, but not any longer for Felicity.

"I think fellow students were rather sceptical at first, but I think I've won their approval with my performance last year."

"They are accustomed to women trying engineering. But they were also accustomed to the women dropping out."

Felicity believes that she finds study considerably easier as a mature student.

"I've learned that time at examinations is particularly precious, and I've become astute. I've been able to decide what was important to prepare and saved a lot of time."

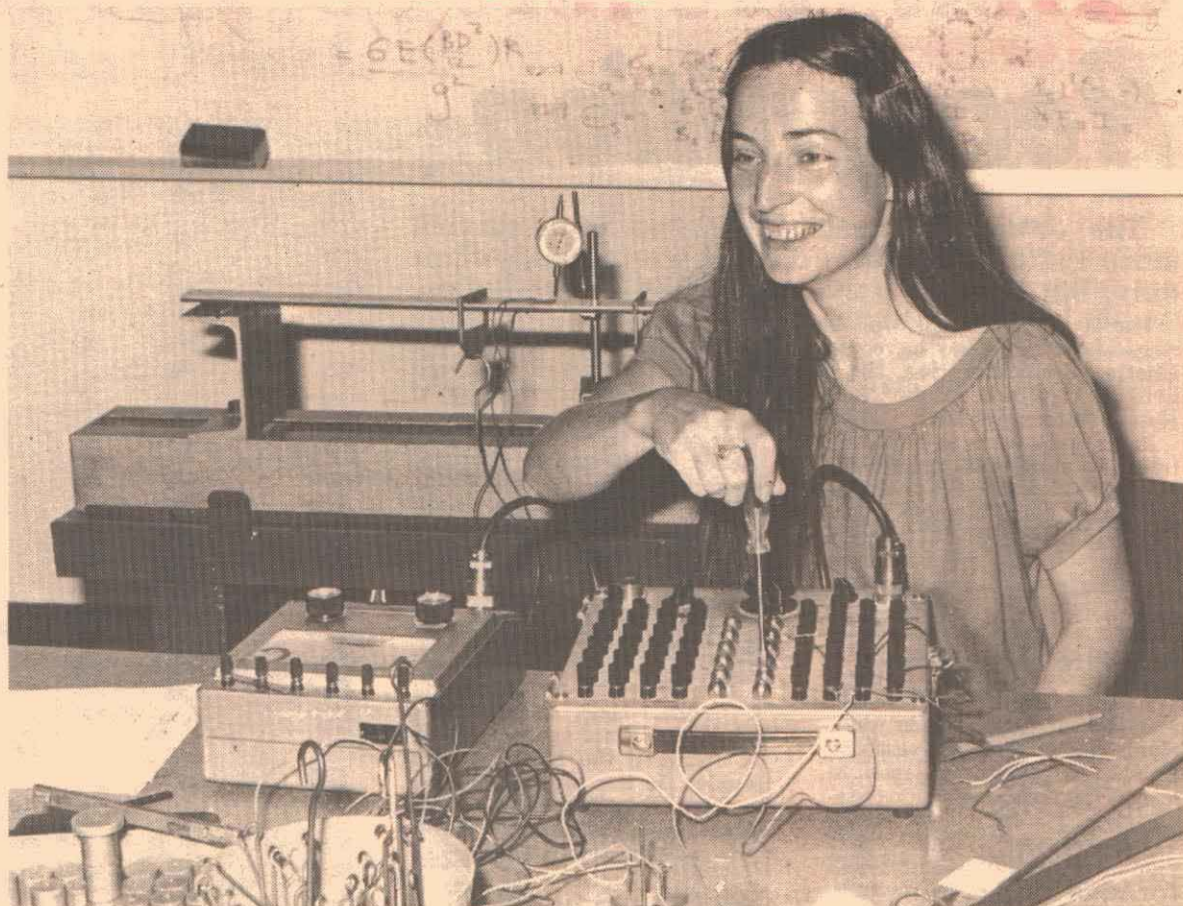

Felicity's interest in engineering centres upon the design aspect of building, and so, architecture. She believes it was her father's involvement in designing and renovating in Eltham that spurred her on.

"But I've never really thought about it," she said.

Among her subjects last year were mathematics (which she's always enjoyed), physics, chemistry and mechanics.

This year there'll be more mathematics, plus geology, the mechanics of solids, hydraulics, thermodynamics, among others.

Heavy going? Not for Felicity. She'll bear the stresses and strains with relaxed assurance.

VOTERS' ROLL ENROLMENT

Residents are reminded of their legal obligation to be enrolled on the Municipal Voters' Roll in respect of property which they occupy either as owners or tenants.

A recent amendment to the Local Government Act provides that a husband and wife occupying a property are now entitled, as of right, to enrolment on the Voters' Roll.

This means that where only the husband or wife was previously enrolled as an Owner/Occupier/Tenant of a house or flat, both partners are now automatically entitled to enrolment.

Previously, the spouse had to make special written application.

To assist Council in compiling the Voters' Roll and particularly with reference to new Residents/Ratepayers, residents are invited to write to or call at the Town Hall to register their names so that an up-to-date roll can be completed.

Applications or notification can be addressed to the Rate Collector P.O. Box 42, Caulfield South, 3162 and should be submitted prior to Tuesday 20th May, 1980.

Meet the COUNTRY WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Down in Murrumbidgee there is a large, dedicated group of ladies who meet once a month at the Uniting Church Hall.

They are all members of the Country Women's Association.

This Association was formed in 1928 when rural women and their families were seriously disadvantaged. It was felt that women could do something to help themselves if they banded together — these interested vital women set about organizing branches all over the country, showing how members could work both to enrich their own lifestyles and also the conditions in their own community.

Members taught each other many handicraft and home making skills, drama and music, sponsored Baby Health Centres, playgrounds, hospitals, street beautification, preservation of natural resources and tree planting.

Members were given the opportunity to show their work at Exhibitions, some members qualified as judges, or demonstrators and shared their skills with others.

Victoria now has over 16,000 members in over 60 branches in both Metropolitan and Country areas. The members of each group undertake their own service projects, and at the two conferences each year many new articles made by the members are collected for children's homes, hospitals, migrants, the mentally ill and State Relief etc.

Help is always being directed towards those who have less and need care. These projects are wonderfully supported, and not much publicity has been sought or given to them.

By voluntary cash donations to the Thanksgiving Fund each year some deserving organization is helped. Some of these have been: The Cancer Research for Children, Spinal Injuries Centre — Austin Hospital, Autistic Society, Multiple Sclerosis Society.

This year the Thanksgiving Fund is to go to the Children's Protection Society.

Members also contribute to the Welfare and Emergency Funds. From the Welfare Fund immediate money is available to help members and non-members who have suffered some devastating misfortune — a home burnt, or a dependent family left without the mother or father.

The Emergency Funds are used in times of National disasters, such as the large scale fires in the Western District or the Cyclones in Darwin and Fiji.

Scholarships for Junior and Tertiary Education are awarded yearly to the children of members in need and not just for academic brilliance.

International Year of the Child has been wonderfully supported by members. Every branch had its own project, many involving their own children, and then many of the Groups had a project also.

The State Project was a gift of $12,000 to the Deaf/Blind/Rubella Silent Night Appeal, this amount being enough, with a Government Grant, to build one cottage for these children. Members responded so well to this appeal that a further $18,000 was raised to help furnish the cottage.

The plight of the Kampuchean people also touched the hearts of members. State Council sent $2,000 immediately, and the branches sent in a further $900 to be added to the original donation.

Through affiliation with the Associated Country Women of the World the Country

Women's Association of Victoria stands with 8½ million women in 64 countries who are working together to improve conditions for rural women all over the world.

Did you know that 60% of the rural work of the world is done by women, many of them in the developing countries, in need of education and health care.

With the World President, An Australian, Dame Raigh Roe, the Associated Country Women of the World works to bring together those who care and those who need the care.

This year 12 tea chests of new sewing material have been sent by members to the Women's Interests Clubs of Papua New Guinea. This is a regular, on going project. Many handicrafts and sewing kits and materials have been sent to other Pacific Islands. $1,500 was given to help Leadership Training in the area within the previous 3 years.

The Magazine published monthly brings to the members news of the Association, articles on craft work and other news.

The Annual Subscription of $5.00 payable to a Branch gives any woman the privilege to be a participant in a friendly and very worthwhile organization.

Any woman wishing to learn of the Branch nearest her home can do so by contacting the Headquarters and Club Rooms at 3 Lansell Road, Toorak or by telephoning 24 8971 for further details.

The aim of the Handicraft and Home Industries Committee of the C.W.A. is to encourage handicrafts, homecrafts, music and drama among members from all corners of Victoria.

Caulfield's fun run, a success

In contrast to last year's bad weather, it was a beautiful morning on Sunday, April 13th as a large crowd of fun runners, once again, took over Hawthorn Road.

In excess of 500 people joined in what has become a regular feature of April in Caulfield.

Many of the runners were participating in their third Caulfield Fun Run and still more were joining in for the first time.

It was a real pleasure to see so many parents running with their children and Caulfield can be proud of the fact that this has become regarded as one of the real "fun" runs.

With no prizes or places recorded and an enjoyable, but testing course, people participated simply for the sake of joining others with a similar interest.

Rod Pitt led the runners with a smart 22 mins. 14 secs. and for the next 30 minutes or so men, women and children ranging from about 8 to 82 years of age arrived at Duncan MacKinnon Park.

Next year's run will be on about April 11th, and hopefully all those who participated this year will be back to renew the challenges of 1980.

Congratulations must go to the members of the Glenhenty Athletics Club who again conducted the event so successfully.

CAULFIELD ANTIQUE FAIR

Did you miss last year's Caulfield Antique Fair? Be sure to get to the Town Hall this time to see an even more impressive display of antique furniture, porcelain, silver, clothing, dolls and other curios.

NOTE THESE DATES NOW for next month: Friday May 30, Saturday May 31 and Sunday June 1. More details in next Contact.

News from Council

National Cancer Register

The Council is supporting a proposal of the City of Berwick for a national register to be implemented of all patients who have developed Cancer. It is felt that such a register is essential if any progress is to be made against the disease.

Such a register would assist research workers in the formulation of behavioural patterns and assessment of any factors which patients may have in common. We would perhaps see better progress in the control of cancer in the 80's.

This view will be made known to the appropriate Government Authorities.

Library Donation

The Malvern Girls' High School, in a submission to Council, spoke of its difficulties in maintaining an adequate reference book collection on the budget allowed by the Education Department.

The Caulfield and Malvern City Councils have each decided to contribute half the cost of a set of World Book Encyclopaedia to the school to assist with its reference collection.

Brighton General Cemetery

The Trustees of the Brighton General Cemetery have requested that the open drain running from Sussex Road to Hawthorn Road, crossing the cemetery be placed underground.

Suitable land for grave sites is in very short supply and this would allow the land adjacent to the drain to be used for urgently needed grave sites.

OFF STREET PARKING FOR LUCAN STREET

Residents are being invited to comment on alternative proposals for an off street parking scheme in Lucan Street.

A display of alternative schemes will be on display at the Town Hall until Tuesday, 15th May.

EXTENDED TRADING HOURS

Council is investigating the best means of expressing its concern, to Government Authorities, about the inconsistencies of the Labour and Industry Act with regard to trading hours. It feels that Municipal Authorities should be permitted to control trading hours within their own boundaries.

Alterations to Caulfield Park Centre Pavilion

This pavilion, that was constructed 14 years ago, was designed to cater for use by male teams only. This coming season, due to an amalgamation of the Old Melburnians and the Caulfield Women's Hockey

Clubs, the pavilion will house mixed teams. Alterations are proposed and are generally aimed at separating the existing facilities to provide change areas for both males and females.

ORRONG CRESCENT MEETING

The trial road works in Orrong Crescent will be considered by Council's Planning and Community Development Committee at its meeting on Tuesday 6th May, 1980. Any interested persons may attend the meeting at 7.30 p.m. in the Council Chamber.

KOORNANG ROAD, CARNEGIE — PARKING LIMITS

Following consideration of a report on parking studies carried out in Carnegie Shopping Centre Council has decided to reduce the time limit on parking in Koornang Road from 2 hours to 1 hour. This reduction will defer long term parkers in Koornang Road and result in more spaces being available to passing shoppers.

Adequate long term parking is available in off-street car parks off Shepperson Avenue and Kokaribb Road.

The signs for the new restrictions are currently on order and will be erected on Monday the 5th May.

COMMUNITY ACCESS

Caulfield Toastmistress

International Toastmistress Caulfield Organising Unit will be holding a Parliamentary Workshop on May 6 led by Fiona Wright, Lecturer in Oral Communication Secretary Studies Department at the Caulfield Institute of Technology.

It should be of interest to all who are members of any Club or Association and wish to know how to conduct a meeting efficiently and with a minimum of frustration; how to put motions and amendments, and how to speak to them in a confident and poised manner, also how to keep minutes or write an agenda.

Other workshops programmed are "Writing a Report", "Speaking with Visual Aid", "Effective Programming", "Book review" and on anything members wish to learn.

For further information, please ring Merna Young on 211 4711 after hours or Gerda Bischof on 523 6419 any time.

Mother's Day Street Stall

The Murrumbena Playgroup will be holding their Mother's Day Street Stall on Saturday May 10th outside the SSW Supermarket in Neerim Road, Murrumbena.

The stall could have many gift ideas for you for Mother's Day. Proceeds from the stall will go towards providing the Murrumbena Playgroup with outdoor play equipment for use at the Pre-school Children Centre in Murrumbena.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Madam,

As President of the Victorian Branch of the Library Association of Australia, and a ratepayer of the City of Caulfield, I was concerned to read the announcement of reduced opening hours at the Caulfield-Malvern Regional Library in a recent issue of the Caulfield Contact.

The additional weekend opening hours are a welcome addition and should facilitate use of the library service by a wider range of residents. However, the provision of additional weekend opening does not alter the fact that, overall, library opening hours have been reduced to the extent that all libraries except Malvern are closed completely for two weekdays each week and that Malvern is closed completely for one weekday each week.

On those weekdays that the libraries are open the hours of opening vary from 3 hours to 7½

SHELFORD FETE

Shelford Church of England Girls' Grammar School is holding a fete in the school grounds at Hood Crescent, Caulfield on Saturday May 3rd 10.00 a.m. - 4.30 p.m.

Don't forget that Mother's Day is Sunday May 11th. You can buy gifts from the work stall, white elephant or toy and book stall. There will be jams, pickles, groceries, plants and cakes for sale, and if you are hungry there will be hot dogs and hamburgers to buy.

Join in the fun and games of the pony rides, lucky dips or mini golf.

A good day is assured for young and old.

DINING CENTRE CHANGE OF ADDRESS

The Dining Centre which previously met at the Community Centre Maple Street, Caulfield on Mondays, is now meeting on Wednesdays at 12.00 noon in the main hall, Curraweena Flats, 10 Curraweena Road, Caulfield.

Remedial Gymnastics

During the past three years the staff at the Centre have organised many physical education programmes for various groups of children. Many of these children have been found to be in need of basic motor and co-ordinating skills.

To try to alleviate these problems a special course will be initiated. The programme will be concerned with developing the following skills:

- Hand-eye co-ordination
- Motor co-ordination
- Body weight bearing and balancing
- Body agility and flexibility
- Body awareness
- Spatial awareness

In order to assess the needs of the children and also to give an indication of improvement, a series of motor co-ordinating tests will be held prior to the course.

Tests will be held on Saturday May 3rd at the Caulfield Community Centre, 6 Maple Street, Caulfield South, 3162 at 12 noon.

The programme will run on Saturday afternoons from the 7th June until the 16th August inclusive between 12 noon and 1.30 p.m., incorporating three half-hour sessions. The teacher-pupil ratio for each half-hour session will never be more than 1:3.

A course fee of $20.00 will be charged. Anyone interested should contact the Centre on 524 3288 or 524 3298 by April 30th. Early applications would be appreciated.

Patchwork Players

The Patchwork Players will present their new play "Bonaventure," April 17th, 18th and 19th at the Holy Trinity Hall, cnr. Chapel St. and Brighton Road, Balacava starting at 8.15 p.m.

A Plea for Footballers

The newly-formed Carnegie-Chadstone Football Club is looking forward to an exciting first season.

The Club was formed recently by a number of players and committeemen from the Chadstone Football Club.

It has as its colours, Melbourne Jumpers, royal blue shorts and red socks and will be fielding seven sides, including two senior teams.

One of the aims of the club is to encourage and promote junior football in Caulfield. The home ground will be the East Caulfield Reserve, which has been the home of junior football for many years.

They want to make East Caulfield a top football venue again — a place where boys from 7-17 years of age can meet with the seniors to be taught the skills of this great game. It is planned that the Club will also provide the boys with a social outlet and give them interests that perhaps will keep them off the streets.

They are wanting to fill all the teams for this season and are urgently in need of boys to fill the under-15 and under-10 sides.

PLEASE HELP BOYS! How about coming to the Caulfield East Reserve and becoming part of this brand new Club. Training sessions are held —

JUNIORS:

Monday and Wednesday — under-15 and 13.

Wednesday and Friday — under-11 -10. From 4.45 to 6.15 p.m.

SENIORS:

Tuesday and Thursday 5 p.m. till finish.

As with many new projects there are a few teething problems. The Club is looking for community support from people and businesses in the area. Already there has been some response, but if you are willing to sponsor the Club or have any enquiries, please contact the President on 56 2744.

Widows Receive Attention

Researchers Dr Art Schulman and Leone Huddy co-ordinating the Widow Research Project.

Widowhood is a problem that has affected the lives of a large number of women and men in Australian society. Unfortunately, very little is known about how women and men in Australia cope with this problem.

Staff members from the Department of Psychology at Melbourne University and the Social Work Department at LaTrobe University are conducting a major study on widowhood in Australia.

This research is based on an Australian pilot study carried out in 1977. The purpose of the study is to provide a better understanding of the problems of widowhood, how women and men cope with these problems, who they turn to for assistance and what changes are needed to help them deal more effectively with their problems.

The Caulfield area has the highest percentage of widowed women in Victoria and has been selected as one of the representative areas in which widowhood will be studied.

With the assistance of the Caulfield City Council, widowed women and men in Caulfield will be approached in May and June to participate in the study. Women and men who agree to act as participants will be interviewed at a convenient time and place by a trained member of the project staff.

The interviewer will discuss with them the changes that have occurred in their lives, the problems of being widowed, the difficulties faced in dealing with their problems, the assistance they received from professionals and agencies and their suggestions about what could help lessen the problems of widowhood.

All information will be kept confidential and responses will be combined so that individuals cannot be recognised.

The results of the study will serve as a basis for recommendations to government and private agencies, individuals and professionals about the policies, programs and activities that could be most helpful in assisting women and men to cope with widowhood.

Women and men who participate in this study will not only add to an understanding of widowhood but will also be helping others with the problems associated with the loss of a spouse.

The project directors are Dr Arthur Schulman and Dr Linda Rosenman and the project is being co-ordinated by Leonie Huddy.

Schools Discuss 80's Challenges

Studies' co-ordinators at local schools recently met to discuss new assessment procedures affecting both state and independent education.

It was the inaugural meeting of an association of study directors and was hosted by Caulfield Grammar School.

Issues discussed included a review of curriculum at both state and independent schools to meet the changing needs of students in the 1980's.

Teachers were also encouraged to develop their professional skills and to keep in touch with research. This would enable them to cope with increasing community demands for accountability throughout their profession.

Papers were presented by Miss Elizabeth Britten, Principal of Shelford Girls' School; Mr Terry McKie, curriculum co-ordinator at P.L.C., Burwood and Mr Robin Matthews, who teaches a Graduate Diploma Course in Education at Rusden State College of Victoria.

HISTORY OF CAULFIELD

Caulfield's History "From Sand, Swamp and Heath" by Peter Murray and John Wells is still available from the Town Hall at its special low, introductory price.

The History is being sold at $16 a copy and is indeed great value for the many residents and interested people who would like to read of the background and beginnings of Caulfield.

It is a quality, hard cover book with many illustrations, photographs and reproductions of old maps and has been written in a style which makes it eminently readable for both the historian and layman.

Still available, are a number of the limited, calf bound editions of the book. These are personally signed by the Authors and Mayor and have the official Seal of the Council imprinted on them. This is a true limited edition with only 150 being circulated and they are being sold for $40.

If you have any enquiries, please contact the Community Liaison Officer at the Town Hall.

ELECTORAL EXAMINATION

The Caulfield City Council has recently commissioned the Political Studies Department of the Caulfield Institute of Technology to carry out a study and write a report on certain aspects of the City's electoral system.

We welcome the views of Caulfield residents on the following questions:

1. Compulsory voting — should it exist for Council elections?
2. Should polling day be moved from Saturday to another day?
3. Should polling hours be 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. (as at present) or 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.?
4. Any other relevant electoral matter.

Please address written comments to: Co-ordinator, Caulfield Electoral Project, City Hall, Cnr. Hawthorn and Glen Eira Rd., Caulfield, 3162 by May 12th 1980. All submissions would be treated in confidence, and names and addresses would be appreciated.

Holiday Club

It's just the place for children during the second week of the May school holidays.

Music is the Word

Music has long been regarded as an important part of a child's education and at one local school words are quite literally put to music.

At Malvern House, Caulfield Grammar School's preparatory campus in Glen Iris, renovations to the music facilities costing over $50,000 have just been completed.

Included in the new music area are two music classrooms and six practice rooms.

Almost all boys at the school play a musical instrument. All boys, in grades three to five choose either recorder, clarinet, violin or trumpet.

As well, there are two orchestras, a band, a choir and a string quartet. Ten teachers instruct the 250 boys receiving music tuition at the school.
