Grants for storm damage

People whose principal dwellings are destroyed by storm can now be eligible for funds to help with the cost. Householders with storm damage to dwellings may be eligible for personal hardship grants for emergency accommodation and emergency repairs to their homes and for the replacement of essential household equipment.

Applications forms can be obtained from Mr. Harry Boyle, Manager, Health and Legislation, at the Caulfield City Council Offices.

HELP FOR LOCAL CLUBS

Many local clubs may be unaware they are eligible for F.A.C.S. grants from the government.

Grants are Social Group Development, Youth Development, Social Adjustment through Camping, and Materials and Equipment programs.

The list is not complete in description, so groups which fall between categories may still be considered.

Social Group Development services are those with the primary aim of promoting sound personality and social growth of individuals through activities geared towards learning self expression of social skills in groups.

Funding is on a matched basis. Funding is on a matched basis to a limit of $1000 and is a one year establishment grant only.

Camping services are those using camping as a means of promoting social development and adjustment, not for recreational purposes.

In this service campers are experiencing difficulty with social functioning and camping is part of a program to overcome that.

The materials and equipment service enhances human services by providing needed materials and equipment to those services, for example the Reverened Garbage service which collects useful waste material and recycles these to groups for craft materials.

Council has over many years carried out an annual program of footpath upgrading works.

These works have entailed the removal of asphalt footpaths and their replacement in concrete paving, with streets being selected on a basis of necessity for maintenance, and to provide a reasonable distribution of works throughout all Council Wards.

Council's 1981/82 Capital Expenditure Programme has included an amount of $185,000 for further footpath reconstruction works.

The selection of cost in situ concrete paving for new footpaths has been based on considerations of construction costs, long term maintenance requirements and durability, and public acceptance.

The use of non-conventional materials, and this has been promoted by Council in projects recently completed in Carnegie and Elsternwick Shopping Centres.

Many residential developments now employ decorative pavings within the property and Council is occasionally approached to permit an extension of this paving into the streets.

It appears likely that the introduction by Council of new materials for general footpath reconstructions will produce a favourable personal response, and within this year's program there exists the opportunity to adjust several streetscapes in an effort to provide streets of a more pleasant nature to motorists, pedestrians and residents.

The use of preformed, interlocking pavement materials costs approximately 60% more than cast in situ concrete, but their satisfactory life and aesthetic qualities promote their use. This year's programme has 19 streets and section of streets for footpath upgrading, and it is proposed that from that list the following streets and sections be reconstituted using interlocking paving:

1. Gardenvale Road, south side Nepean Highway to Begonia Road
2. Riddell Parade, west side south from Glenhuntly Road where adjacent the shopping centre
3. Horne Street, east side at Glenhuntly Road
4. North Road, between Bonner Drive and Malane Street
5. Charles Street
6. Leslie Street, south side
7. Kooyong Road and Hawthorn Road interchanges with Inkerman Road

The Western Youth Welfare Services is a program devised to provide work experience for unemployed young people.

As part of this program three boys from the centre, supervised by Youth Officer, Harry Browne, recently constructed a steel framed Bus Port for the Ormond Special School.

The activities of the group are funded through an innovative program grant from the School's Commission. As work becomes available the boys submit a quote for the job and compete on an equal footing with other Contractors.

The program has enabled a workshop to be established, and provided a wealth of work experience for many boys. All work is supervised by a Welfare Officer and "The work done by the boys," says Frank Cahill, Principal of the Ormond Special School, "was first rate and has provided a much needed amenity at the school." If you are interested in the work of the Western Youth Welfare Services or have a project in mind contact Mr. Martin Brown, Superintendent, telephone 379 5955.

Bike paths and police

Madam,

WHILE I heartily agree with those supporting the introduction of bike paths as a safety precaution, I wish to point out that the new paths are not yet safe for cyclists, in particular young cyclists and parents on pushchairs.

If you go church on Sunday, you may have noticed other repetitive outings or chores, there is no reward for them to know they are putting their time to good use. I have been working on an idea for bike paths and would like to propose it to the local council.

I have also suggested that the police be better trained in the use of bikes to ensure they are not a danger to the community. It is a safe and effective way to police our streets.

In conclusion, I believe that bike paths can be a valuable addition to our community, but only if they are properly designed and enforced. I look forward to hearing your thoughts on this matter.

Yours sincerely,

UPDATE OF FIREARMS LAW

The Australian Labor Party's Firearms Policy has been disputed by Glenhuntly's M.L.A. Dr. Vaughan.

As I reflect on my six years as Children's Services Co-ordinator, I am glad to be able to say that there have been no child abductions or injuries during my time in the role.

The time has come for the community to take responsibility for the safety of its children. It is not the role of the Government to enforce such laws, but of the community to be proactive in ensuring the safety of our children.

The Firearms Policy is designed to protect the community at large, safeguard the rights and reputations of responsible shooting organisations and licensed shooters and reduce the misuse of firearms by an irresponsible minority, said Dr. Vaughan.

Dr. Vaughan says Labor's policy is not against the legitimate interests of the farmer and recreational gun owner, and that it does not say licensed shooters should lose their firearms confiscated.

Under Labor's policy, a firearms owner who would need to pass a test to renew his licence.
ELECTORAL BOUNDARIES
The Quota Club of Caulfield is holding its Seventh Annual Art Show at the City of Caulfield Arts Centre from Friday, March 19 to Sunday, March 21.

The official opening is on Friday night and will be conducted by Dr. P. K. Lee, A.O., C.B.E., P.T.P., F.A.A., Leader Australian Antarctic Research Expedition.

Wine and cheese will be served on the opening night. All proceeds from the Art Show are donated to the Caulfield Hospital, which is the largest rehabilitation hospital in Victoria. Mr. Reg. Hunt of Reg Hunt Motors had donated $700 for the Print Award, a great contribution judged by Mr. Ken Hood — Deputy Director of the National Art Gallery of Victoria, and Mr. Len Morone — Caulfield Institute of Technology Fine Arts teacher.

Admission to the Art Show is 80 cents plus a free catalogue.

For further information please contact Mrs. A. Cun
ngham on 532 5600 or the Caulfield Hospital on (02) 6331 (ext. 301).

Tickets for the opening night may be bought by sending a cheque payable to the "Quota Club of Caulfield" with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the ticket secretary Miss M. Adamson, 15 Thany St., Malvern, 3144.

The show is open from 7.30 p.m. to 10.30 p.m. on March 19, from 10.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. on March 20 and from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. on March 21.

Caulfield '82 is out now!

A vital Community resource Guide for all City of Caulfield residents the guide is available free of charge at the Caulfield Town Hall.

It lists anything from bowling clubs to the Motor Registration Branch to schools to Social Workers and is the most useful book you will ever have.

Don't miss out on this necessary item.

Quota Clubs' Art Show

The Caulfield Baby Health Centres, Ladies' committee recently held its 62nd annual meeting. If the reports from the centres are to be believed the mothers of Caulfield have been busy. All centres, but one, reported an increase in births and attendances.

The subject was recognised to be particularly relevant as it relates to the stresses that face families today. With the development of the Child Maltreatment Act, the Child Health Centres and other community services are coming in contact with children, and are being encouraged to establish a supportive network for children at risk.

Pensioners want more support

The Combined Pensioners' Association held its annual meeting last month for the election of the new committee.

The new President is Mrs Alma Morton, 3 Mearey St., Elsternwick, 528 4459.

The new secretary is Mr H. Melbourne, Unit 2/58 Moorya Rd., Carnegie, phone 568 6468.

The conference of the Combined Pensioners Association, Mr Harry Melbourne, says there are many pensioners without service pension, and the Association is endeavouring to get concessions for all.

An item on which we would like to see concessions with is electricity, a 50% concession, the annual rail ticket, improved to take pensioners anywhere in Australia, not just Victoria, and the earnings for married couples to increase from $34 to $50 without any service pension.

The Association would like to see more members at general meetings. For further information contact Mrs Morton on 528 4459.

ENJOYING EARLY RETIREMENT

Retirement can be a double edged sword. Some retired people who have health problems find this brings dependency and isolation. Others who have the good fortune to stay well and active find retirement boring.

Through its Domiciliary Care Service, Council provides various services to alleviate some of the problems encountered by elderly people in the community.

Helping with the provision of these services, for example, delivering meals-on-wheels, can be a great way for retired people to fill in the day, meeting new people, making contact locally, whilst ensuring the continuation of essential services.

Shopping assistance

A new project is under way to help provide shopping assistance for elderly people who are unable to get to the shops under their own steam.

We are currently looking for people with a couple of hours a week to 'jockey' pick up perhaps half a dozen people for a few hours at a local centre.

We need drivers with their own cars, or others with a current licence to drive the mini-bus (no special endorsement required) and with the help of a 'jockey' pick up perhaps half a dozen people for a few hours at a local shopping centre.

Growing group

Domiciliary Care Shopping Aid helpers would be joining a growing group — about 300 — three quarters of whom are retired, who work with Council in helping other members of the community. They often find they are helping themselves towards a more interesting community life.

If you are interested in joining us, please ring Ger Coles on 524 3333 between 9 and 4 p.m., Monday to Friday.

HELP US TO HELP YOU

Caulfield's Big Bin Garbage Collection System has been well received throughout the City and the cooperation of the residents has been appreciated. There are, however, a few things that need to be complied with if the system is to continue to run smoothly and provide an efficient service to residents:

HOUSEHOLD WASTE
- Bins for emptying should be out on footpaths or nature strips by 6 a.m. on the collection day.
- All waste should be placed in the bin with the lid closed and thus flyproofed.
- The bin should not be used for hot or burning ashes, rocks, soil, paint, oil, solvents or heavy materials which may overload or damage the bin.
- Bins which are too heavy will not be emptied.
- No extra waste will be collected (plastic bags, etc.).
- Do not leave the bin on the nature strip between the collections.
- Please do not place long branches or timber in the bin if it will not allow the lid to close properly.
- Bins for emptying should be out on footpaths or nature strips by 6 a.m. on the collection day.
- Bottles will be collected fortnightly by a separate recycling truck.
- For your collection day, refer to the enclosed map.
- Bottles should be out by 6 A.M. on the collection day.
- As the cost of handling cardboard containers makes the bottle collection uneconomical, residents are requested to assist the Council by placing their bottles on the nature strip in one of three ways:
  1. If the bottles are carried to the nature strip in a carton, please re-stack the bottles onto the nature strip and place the carton in the Big Bin.
  2. Place bottles in a reusable container onto the nature strip.
  3. Place bottles loose onto the nature strip.
- This co-operation will greatly assist the economical collection of bottles.

PAPER
- Will be picked up monthly.
- The Paper and Cardboard Recycling Appeal will provide separate details of collection arrangements and calendar showing collection date.
- Cardboard cartons should be flattened and left out with papers.

RECYCLING DEPOT
Bottles and Paper may be left, free of charge, at Neerim Road Depot, 107 Neerim Road, Glenhuntly. Depot open a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday to Saturday — excluding Caulfield Race Days.

USING YOUR BIN

Please
- Do not overfill bin.
- Cut branches etc. to ensure lid closes properly.
- No extra bags.

Please
- Do not leave bin on nature strip or footprint (other than on collection days) and so prevent theft or vandalism.

Please
- Do not leave bin on nature strip or footprint (other than on collection days) and so prevent theft or vandalism.
- On bottle collection day stack bottles neatly next to bin or a tree to prevent people walking into them.

Autism is a little known disorder that affects cognitive and language development in children and adults.

Even during the Year of the Disabled, Autism received little publicity in terms of television and newspaper coverage, compared to other more well known disorders and disabilities.

The public was given little to little information about the condition, aside from the fact that autism is a childhood problem.

The condition is rare, occurring in only 1 person in every 1,000. However, it is not an unusual disorder like Down's Syndrome because it is a childhood problem.

This obvious lack of exposure to the condition means that awareness they have an autistic child is often delayed, and parents may not be aware of an autistic child.

The condition is usually diagnosed when a child is about two years old, and often it is not until a child is about six years old that parents are aware that their child is autistic.

Children with autism often have a difficult time making eye contact, unusual laughter and giggling, and inflexibility of thinking and play.

Once a diagnosis is made, there is often a lack of information about the condition, which means that parents may not be aware of the condition.

Swim therapy for the handicapped

The Royal Southern Memorial Hospital has vacancies in the Star Club (Swim Therapy and Recreation) swimming program for handicapped children and adults.

Classes start on Tuesday, March 9 and continue each Tuesday until November. The pool is heated and there are changing rooms.

The group is supervised by a qualified instructor, a physiotherapist and an occupational therapist from the Royal Southern Memorial Hospital Community Care Centre.

The aim of the program is to provide the opportunity for handicapped people of all ages to become independent in the water and to develop skills which will give basic survival and recreational swimming.

See Contact Diary for further details on the classes. Volunteers are needed to assist in the pool and training will be provided.

WORK AT HOME FOR OUR CHILDCARE SCHEME

The Caulfield/C.I.T. Family Day care Program is looking for people to provide Child Care for students and staff at C.I.T. If you are interested in working "near" in your own home, please contact C.I.T. Community Services at 573 2500 or the Family Day Care Office at Caulfield Town Hall on 524 3333 for an application.

Leadership awards from Rotary

NOMINATIONS ARE CALLED FOR the Caulfield Rotary Club's Leadership Awards for 18 to 24 year olds involved in leadership within organisations or catering for young people.

The awards will be sponsored on a week long seminar from May 9-16 which is aimed at self-evaluation, personal growth and the development and practice of leadership skills.

Ability to attend the seminar on a full time basis is necessary. Interested people can obtain further information by contacting the Youth Service Director of Caulfield Rotary Club on 211 9392.

Help for Moomba mums

The Nursing Mothers Association of Australia is coming to the rescue of mothers during Moomba festivities this year.

The Victorian branch of the Nursing Mothers Association is again providing a caravan for feeding and changing babies or toddlers in Alexandra Gardens.

All mothers are welcome to use our free services which will include privacy for breastfeeding, bottle and baby food warming facilities, changing tables etc.

Over the past two years more than 400 mothers and babies have used the caravan and it is hoped that many more mothers will again make use of this service in 1982. The caravan will operate from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on February 27 and 28 and on Monday, March 8 near the St John's Ambulance Brigade complex.

CALISTHENICS FOR EVERYONE

Planning for the Caulfield Festival took a giant leap forward when 40 representatives of local community organisations voted to establish a company to organise the Festival.

At a recent public meeting in the City Hall it was decided the company will include a board of directors representing Council and the community who will appoint a management committee to organise the festival.

Councll's Legal Officer, Mrs Elizabeth Loftus, answered questions on the technicalities of the memorandum and articles of incorporation.

The date for the election of board members is March 11, 1981 at 8 p.m. in the Mayoress' Reception Room at the City Hall.

Nominations for community representatives should be posted or delivered to the City Offices by wednesday, March 10.

Everyone is welcome to attend the meeting and is encouraged to suggest ideas on the types of events that will make up the festival.

Anyone interested in being on the management committee should not be shy in coming forward.

Clubs, organisations, businesses or individuals interested in the festival are welcome to participate. The festival runs from Saturday, November 27 to Sunday, December 5 which is the time for organisations and groups to hold their main event.

Brochures for the '82 SUNDAY SCHOOL are now available from the Caulfield Arts Centre!

The Spurway Homes Trust has a vacant one bedroom dwelling in Anderson St near the City Hall available for an elderly pensioner couple.

Enquiries to Mr Eric Parson on 211 4152 or Mr Fred Arden on 528 5895.

Murrumbeena is a good push at the official opening of the superslide at Caulfield's swimming pool — a good return for the season!

Bowed Over

FIRST YEAR BOWLERS at Glenhuntley Bowls Club have performed outstandingly in the last season. No one would argue that these new bowlers have been a success, a fact strongly supported by the record of 987 games, 125,944 plays, and 287 wins. These figures illustrate the club's dedication and hard work, and they are a clear testament to the success of the first-year bowlers. The club's success is further reflected in the impressive number of wins, which reached 97, indicating a high level of performance and skill.
